Fragments Of Real Presence:

Fragments of Real Presence Teresa Berger, 2005 Two time Catholic Press Award winner What do the feasts of the liturgical year look like when seen from the perspective of women How do traditions become enriched when we remember the women who have handed them down From Clare and Clairiol to The Making of Love An ABC Fragments of Real Presence from the Yale professor silenced by the Vatican offers us a rich landscape of insights throughout the liturgical calendar Each fragment is a different kind of meditation a hymn a theological reflection a historical discussion a poem giving us new ways to see with the eyes of women past and present From their experience our own spiritual experience of the traditions and the possibilities for the future will be enhanced and deepened Sacraments and Worship Maxwell E. Johnson, 2012-02-15 The church's development and use of sacraments has evolved in many ways from the days of the early church to the present This sourcebook provides key theological texts that played a role in those movements Johnson traces the history and theology of individual sacraments along with their liturgical context in the church's worship He includes materials previously developed in James F White's classic collection Documents of Christian Worship Descriptive and Interpretive Sources Westminster John Knox Press 1992 and supplements these to provide a wide range of indispensable materials He also contributes helpful background notes to give the reader the full breadth and depth of the church's thought on these important topics This book will be of great value to those studying the history of Christian worship and the development of the sacraments Bodies of Substance, Fragments of Memories John G. Sabol Jr., 2009-03-27 Ghost Research is archaeological work that requires specific field practices This book introduces the investigative techniques of a ghost archaeology This is defined as a scientific discipline of the ordinary a search for the repetitive patterns of cultural behavior that can be unearthed during an field investigation Six case studies of cultural hauntings are presented which illustrate the usefulness of archaeological methodology and techniques in field research The investigation of ghostly presence at Gettysburg in the anthracite coal region at Eastern State Penitentiary in Philadelphia and a Civil War haunting in Petersburg Virginia are cited These investigations show how potential evidential data can be uncovered if only the investigators would maintain an archaeological sensibility in their fieldwork operations Sacramentality Renewed Lizette Larson-Miller, 2016-04-11 Tracing developments in sacramental theology over the past twenty five years this study explores a growing ecumenical dynamism in both the academic study of sacramentality and its centrality in pastoral applications But how does ecumenical excitement in a renewed discovery of sacramental theology fit with different theologies of church and different pastoral beliefs and practices How does the universality of academic accessibility in the form of an expansive ecumenical sharing of perspectives meet the particularities of pastoral reality and ecclesial polity Arguing in favor of fruitful ecumenical conversation this book also focuses on the crucial interaction of ecclesiology liturgical practice and sacramentality which raises the need for a creative tension between the particularities of a given ecclesial system and the catholicity of Christian sacramentality Using Anglican sacramental theologies and Anglicanism as vehicles of exploration this study contributes to an overview of the state of the field of sacramental theology in the twenty first century while challenging the assumption that one size fits all In sacramental theology as in other important areas of Christian life unity in diversity may be the basis for authentic lived sacramentality

Eucharist and Globalization Claudio Carvalhaes, 2013-10-30 The ritual of eating and drinking together is one of the most important Christian events Often called Eucharist Lord's Supper or Communion this sacrament is about the presence of Christ transforming not only those who participate in it but also the world In this book the author engages this Christian liturgical act with movements of people around our globalized world and checks the sacramental borders of hospitality The author calls our attention to the sacramental practices of Reformed churches and from this liturgical practice challenges Christian churches to expand the borders of hospitality Engaging several critical lenses around the notion of the sacrament namely Greco Roman meals Calvin's theology and feminist and Latin American theologies the author challenges theological and liturgical understandings of the Eucharist He fosters an interreligious dialogue around the table and ends up using ritual theory to expand the circles of traditions vocabularies and practices around the sacrament Proposing a borderless border eucharistic hospitality the author encourages readers to ask who and where we are when we get together to eat and drink and how this liturgical act around Jesus table meal can transform the lives of the poor our communities societies and the world

The Irish Ecclesiastical Record, 1915 Heresies; or, Agnostic theism, ethics, sociology, and metaphysics Harry Croft Hiller, 1902

T&T Clark Handbook of Sacraments and Sacramentality Martha Moore-Keish, James Farwell, 2022-12-29 Introducing readers to the contemporary field of sacramental theology this volume covers the biblical and historical foundations a survey of the state of the discipline and a collection of constructive essays representing major themes practices and approaches to sacraments and sacramentality in the contemporary world The volume starts with a set of foundational essays that offer broad introduction to the field of sacramental theology from contemporary scholars analysing a number of historical figures in order to illumine and inform contemporary sacramental theology The second part of the volume is dedicated to a series of essays on sacramentality and includes attention to elements of space time ritual action music and word all as aspects of what Christians have termed sacramental reality The third set of essays includes attention to each of the seven practices that have most commonly been termed sacraments in Christian traditions baptism eucharist Lord's Supper confirmation confession forgiveness and reconciliation marriage ordination and anointing The final part of this volume features scholars who are working on sacraments in conversation with contemporary academic disciplines critical race theory queer theory comparative theology and disability studies

The English Religion A. M., 1876 The Irish Ecclesiastical Record, 1942 Shadow and Substance Jay Zysk, 2017-09-30 Shadow and Substance is the first book to present a sustained examination of the relationship between Eucharistic controversy and English drama across the Reformation divide In this compelling interdisciplinary study

Jay Zysk contends that the Eucharist is not just a devotional object or doctrinal crux it also shapes a way of thinking about physical embodiment and textual interpretation in theological and dramatic contexts Regardless of one s specific religious identity to speak of the Eucharist during that time was to speak of dynamic interactions between body and sign In crossing periodic boundaries and revising familiar historical narratives Shadow and Substance challenges the idea that the Protestant Reformation brings about a decisive shift from the flesh to the word the theological to the poetic and the sacred to the secular The book also adds to studies of English drama and Reformation history by providing an account of how Eucharistic discourse informs understandings of semiotic representation in broader cultural domains This bold study offers fresh imaginative readings of theology sermons devotional books and dramatic texts from a range of historical literary and religious perspectives Each of the book s chapters creates a dialogue between different strands of Eucharistic theology and different varieties of English drama Spanning England s long reformation these plays some religious in subject matter others far more secular reimagine semiotic struggles that stem from the controversies over Christ s body at a time when these very concepts were undergoing significant rethinking in both religious and literary contexts Shadow and Substance will have a wide appeal especially to those interested in medieval and early modern drama and performance literary theory Reformation history and literature and religion

Contemporary Clay and Museum Culture Christie Brown, Julian Stair, Clare Twomey, 2016-06-17 This groundbreaking book is the first to provide a critical overview of the relationship between contemporary ceramics and curatorial practice in museum culture Ceramic objects form a major part of museum collections with connections to anthropology archaeology and other disciplines that engage with the cultural and social history of humankind In recent years museums have provided the impetus for cutting edge artistic practice either as a response to particular collections or as part of exhibitions But the question of how museums have staged contemporary ceramics and how ceramic artists respond to museum collections has not been the subject of published research to date This book examines how ceramic artists have over the last decade begun to animate museum collections in new ways and reflects on the impact that these new initiatives have had in the broad context of visual culture Ceramics in the Expanded Field is the culmination of a three year AHRC funded project and reflects its major findings It brings together leading international voices in the field of ceramics research undertaken throughout the project and papers delivered at the concluding conference By examining the benefits and constraints of interventions and the dialogue between ceramics and museological practice this book will bring focus to an area of museology that has not yet been theorized and will contribute to policy debates and art practice

Cultural Translation and Postcolonial Poetry A. Bery, 2007-11-21 This book uses the framework of cultural translation to explore the work of six significant modern writers from Ireland India Australia and the Caribbean Written in an accessible and approachable style it will be of interest not only to specialists in postcolonial literatures but also readers of modern and contemporary poetry more generally

The Future of Love John Milbank, 2009-01-01 With a newly written preface relating his theology to the current global situation The Future of Love contains revised versions of eighteen of John Milbank's essays on theology politics religion and culture ranging from the onset of neoliberalism to its current crisis and from the British to the global context Many of the essays first appeared in obscure places and are thus not widely known Also included are Milbank's most important responses to critiques of his seminal work Theology and Social Theory Taken together the collection amounts to a political theology arrived at from diverse angles This work is essential reading for all concerned with the current situation of religion in the era of globalization and with the future development of Radical Orthodoxy

Mobility and Corporeality in Nineteenth- to Twenty-First-Century Anglophone Literature Jaine Chemmachery, Bhawana Jain, 2021-05-19 Mobility and Corporeality in 19th and 21st Century Anglophone Literature Bodies in Motion aims at exploring the intersection of literary mobility and body studies in Anglophone literature from the 19th century to the 21st century Corporeal mobility includes a variety of mobile bodies that have long been othered and marginalised due to issues pertaining to gender disability race and class Yet there is a relative lack of academic work on it despite the fact that Anglophone literature has increasingly portrayed the circulation of characters objects and information since the 19th century echoing the many types of mobility that have occurred through processes of colonisation decolonisation and globalisation This book therefore discusses the ways in which literatures produced in the English speaking world challenge normative depictions of bodies on the move and reconceptualise them by making corporeality an essential feature of movement across the world

Essays on Various Subjects Nicholas Patrick Wiseman, 1853 Prospects for Biological Control of Plant Feeding Mites and Other Harmful Organisms Daniel Carrillo, Gilberto José de Moraes, Jorge E. Peña, 2015-04-30 The history of biological control of harmful organisms by mites is marked by outstanding achievements with a few premiere natural enemies Early works concentrated on the use of predatory mites for the control of synanthropic flies More recently the focus has been mostly on mites of the family Phytoseiidae for the control of plant feeding mites This is an important family of acarine predators of plant pest mites which are effectively used in agriculture worldwide Besides the vast knowledge in several species in this family there are as well many opportunities for biological control represented in an array of organisms and through the improvement of management techniques which are constantly explored by researchers worldwide This has resulted in an increasing interest in predatory mite species within the families Stigmaeidae Ascidae Laelapidae Rhodacaridae Macrochelidae Erythraeidae and Cheyletidae among others This book will compile important developments with predatory mite species within these families which are emerging as important tools for integrated pest management New developments with predatory insects and pathogenic organisms attacking mites will also be a subject of this book Finally the potential and gaps in knowledge in biological control of acarine plant pests will be addressed

Edmund Champion Gerard Kilroy, 2016-12-05 Edmund Champion A Scholarly Life is the response at long last to Evelyn Waugh's call in 1935 for a scholarly biography to replace Richard Simpson's Edmund Champion 1867 Whereas early accounts of his life

focused on the execution of the Jesuit priest this new biography presents a more balanced assessment placing equal weight on Campion's London upbringing among printers and preachers and on his growing stature as an orator in an Oxford riven with religious divisions Ireland chosen by Campion as a haven from religious conflict is shown paradoxically to have determined his life and his death Gerard Kilroy here draws on newly discovered manuscript sources to reveal Campion as a charismatic and affectionate scholar who was finding fulfilment as priest and teacher in Prague when he was summoned to lead the first Jesuit mission to England The book argues that the delays in his long journey suggest reluctant acceptance even before he was told that Dr Nicholas Sander had brought holy war to Ireland so that Campion landed in an England that was preparing for papal invasion The book offers fresh insights into the dramatic search for Campion the populist nature of the disputations in the Tower and the legal issues raised by his torture It was the monarchical republic itself that in pursuit of the Anjou marriage made him the beloved champion of the English Catholic community Edmund Campion A Scholarly Life presents the most detailed and comprehensive picture to date of an historical figure whose loyalty and courage in the trial and on the scaffold swiftly became legendary across Europe American Literature and the Destruction of Knowledge Ronald E. Martin, 1991 This challenging study of a number of American writers belongs in the tradition of the history of ideas approach to literary history It offers an analysis of American literary developments and the relationship between writers and the philosophical and social thought of their times Martin examines the works of Emerson Whitman Dickinson Crane Frost Pound Hemingway Dos Passos Stevens Williams and several others with a sharp eye for the artistic consequences of changing epistemological assumptions and for the connection of ideas and form ISBN 0 8223 1125 9 29 95 The Dublin Review Nicholas Patrick Wiseman, 1846
