Persuasive Gaming in Context Teresa La Hera, Jeroen Jansz, Joost Raessens, Ben Schouten, 2025-10-01 The rapid developments in new communication technologies have facilitated the popularization of digital games which has translated into an exponential growth of the game industry in recent decades The ubiquitous presence of digital games has resulted in an expansion of the applications of these games from mere entertainment purposes to a great variety of serious purposes In this edited volume we narrow the scope of attention by focusing on what game theorist Ian Bogost has called persuasive games that is gaming practices that combine the dissemination of information with attempts to engage players in particular attitudes and behaviors This volume offers a multifaceted reflection on persuasive gaming that is on the process of these particular games being played by players The purpose is to better understand when and how digital games can be used for persuasion by further exploring persuasive games and some other kinds of persuasive playful interaction as well The book critically integrates what has been accomplished in separate research traditions to offer a multidisciplinary approach to understanding persuasive gaming that is closely linked to developments in the industry by including the exploration of relevant case studies

Changes in Museum Practice Hanne-Lovise Skartveit, Katherine J. Goodnow, 2010 By examining the ways in which museums involve refugees and asylum seekers Changes in Museum Practice New Media Refugees and Participation explores the opportunities around new media Leading artists curators and academics come together to outline different degrees of participation by audiences and communities and explore a range of topics from video games to theatre from photography to participatory video and digital storytelling Case studies are used throughout to highlight the unique ways that various approaches to inclusion and participation can be used successfully Book Jacket

Service Excellence for Sustainability Nur Fazidah Elias, Ruzzakiah Jenal, Hazilah Mohd Amin, Hazura Mohamed, Siti Aishah Hanawi, 2021-07-22 This book provides significant conceptual and empirical contributions to the understanding of service science and the practices of service sectors in the wake of the fourth industrial revolution bringing together a collection of articles written by keynote and invited speakers at the 2nd Service Science Symposium held on 24 November 2019 The symposium was organised by the Serviceology Society Malaysia SESMA which aims to bring service researchers and practitioners under one roof to redefine service concepts and ideas and explore their application in real industrial and community settings In their contributions authors present multiple real world cases of service systems to demonstrate how organisations can incorporate service science to achieve sustainable development By re examining the existing service science models and the value creation process using valuable insights obtained from industries and communities in Malaysia Japan and Taiwan the authors present a new way forward for organisations

Moral Conflict W. Barnett Pearce, Stephen W. Littlejohn, 1997-03-20 Moral Conflict the subject of this book is passionate and difficult to resolve Responses that are normally effective such as explaining persuading and compromising can make matters worse and drive people further apart in such conflicts Moral conflicts occur when incommensurate social realities come to clash Disputes about abortion religion in politics and education legal rights for homosexuals and environmental politics are issues in which well intentioned parties have created polarized and diverse patterns of communication The most virtuous actions of each side not only fail but widen the schism Such conflicts require us to find forms of communication that go beyond our normal ways of dealing with disagreement In an original synthesis of communication theory and their own research W Barnett Pearce and Stephen W Littlejohn describe a dialectical tension between the expression and suppression of conflict that can be transcended in ways that lead to personal growth and productive patterns of social action In Moral Conflict several projects are described as practical examples of these new ways of working through difficult struggles
