Conflict Resolution Beyond the Realist Paradigm Philip Gamaghelyan, 2017-09-26 Conflict Resolution holds the promise of freeing approaches and policies with regard to politics of identity from the fatalistic grip of realism While the conceptual literature on identity and conflicts has moved in this alternative direction conflict resolution practice continues to rely on realist frames and acts as an unwanted auxiliary to traditional international relations Perpetuation of conflict discourses marginalization and exclusion of affected populations are widespread They are caused by the overreliance of conflict resolution practice on the binary frames of classic IR paradigms and also by the competitive and hierarchical relationships within the field Philip Gamaghelyan relies on participatory action research and collective autoethnography to expose patterns of exclusion and marginalization as well as the paradoxical reproduction of conflict promoting frames in current conflict resolution practice applied to the Nagorno Karabakh and Syrian crises He builds on the work of postmodernist scholars on reflective practice and on discourse analysis to explore alternative and inclusive strategies with a transformative potential The IR discipline that has dominated policymaking is only one possible lens and often a deficient one for defining preventing or resolving contemporary conflicts wrapped in identity politics Other conceptual frameworks can help to rethink our understanding of identity and conflicts and reconstruct them as performative and not static phenomena These transformative frameworks are increasingly influential in the conflict resolution field and can be applied to policymaking (Re-)Framing the Arab/Muslim Silke Schmidt, 2014-10-15 Media depictions of Arabs and Muslims continue to be framed by images of camels belly dancers and dagger wearing terrorists But do only Hollywood movies and TV news have the power to frame public discourse This interdisciplinary study transfers media framing theory to literary studies to show how life writing re frames Orientalist stereotypes The innovative analysis of the post 9 11 autobiographies West of Kabul East of New York Letters from Cairo and Howling in Mesopotamia makes a powerful claim to approach literature based on a theory of production and reception thus enhancing the multi disciplinary potential of framing theory Disaster Management and Human Health Risk III C. A. Brebbia, 2013-06-01 An increasing number of large scale natural disasters have affected millions of people in recent years Major earthquakes floods And hurricanes have caused great destruction of property and loss of life while forest fires pipeline failures and bombings have created equally devastating affects on a smaller scale The increased threats are the topic of the Third International Conference on Disaster Management and Human Health Risk convened so that experts on public health security and disaster management could share information This book contains the papers presented at the conference Topics covered include Disaster analysis Disaster monitoring and mitigation Emergency preparedness Risk mitigation Risk and security Safety and resilience Socio economic issues Biological threats Learning from disasters Social Psychology Paul Dickerson, 2024-04-19 This thoroughly updated second edition of Social Psychology addresses pressing topics such as climate change activism digital technology pandemics and AI With three new chapters on group behaviour culture and social cognition this edition engages in even more detail with both classic and contemporary approaches and draws on a wider range of critical perspectives Through accessible section by section critiques a vibrant sense of relevance debate and new possibilities are brought to the world of social psychology As you read this book you will be guided by a range of chapter activities that promote deeper learning including In the news boxes which highlight the relevance of social psychology to today s world Critical review summaries which evaluate the literature covered Focus boxes to highlight classic and contemporary research studies Try it out boxes which contain short activities questions or reflection prompts Definitions boxes to remind you of key terms and their meanings Review questions to check your understanding In a nutshell bite sized summaries of the ideas covered in each chapter And more This essential resource is a must have for students who want to go beyond a superficial awareness of names and theories to develop a deep critical understanding of social psychology and its relevance to the real world Paul Dickerson is Associate Professor of Psychology at University of Roehampton London Social Movement De-Radicalisation and the Decline of Terrorism Gordon Clubb,2016-10-04 By drawing on social movement theories this book explains how terrorist movements decline using the case of Irish Republicanism The continuity of terrorism and political violence from generation to generation demonstrates the need to go beyond a focus on groups or individuals in order to explain how terrorism ends The concept of de radicalisation has been critiqued for its lack of explanatory value in accounting for disengagement from terrorism or how the risk of terrorism re emerging is reduced However building on the morphogenetic approach this book distinguishes between structure culture and agency over time in order to analyse the causal influence between the two Two processes are analysed disengagement framing processes explain how actors change attitudes to violence and the book identifies which factors ensure frames resonate with audiences and social movement de radicalisation accounts for the outcomes of disengagement in initiating structural change which transforms the landscape the next generation finds itself in The fundamental aim of the book is to provide theoretical and conceptual insights into how terrorism can not only come to an end but can be prevented from emerging to be a significant threat again within a society This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism and political violence social movement theory British and Irish Politics war and conflict studies security studies and IR in general Theories of Violent Conflict Jolle Demmers,2012-07-26 This textbook introduces students of violent conflict to a variety of prominent theoretical approaches and examines the ontological stances and epistemological traditions underlying these approaches Theories of Violent Conflict takes the centrality of the group as an actor in contemporary conflict as a point of departure leaving us with three main questions What makes a group Why and how does a group resort to violence Why and how do or don t they stop The book examines and compares the ways by which these questions are addressed from a number of perspectives constructivism social identity theory structuralism political economy human needs theory relative deprivation theory collective action theory and rational choice theory The final chapter aims to synthesise structure and agency based theories by proposing a critical discourse analysis of violent conflict This book will be essential reading for students of war and conflict studies peace studies conflict analysis and conflict resolution and ethnic conflict as well as security studies and IR in general Journalism and Austerity Christos Kostopoulos,2020-09-10 Using an original empirical study of the frame building process in the press this book analyses the interplay between political economy and framing theories focusing on what the frames found in the press can reveal about structural power struggles and the contribution of journalism to democratic debate Bush's War Jim A. Kuypers,2006-10-10 Immediately after the attacks of September 11 2001 Americans looked to President Bush for words of leadership In his most formal reply of the day he said Today our fellow citizens our way of life our very freedom came under attack in a series of deliberate and deadly terrorist acts The victims were in airplanes or in their offices secretaries businessmen and women military and federal workers moms and dads friends and neighbors Thousands of lives were suddenly ended by evil despicable acts of terror The stark tone of Bush s speech suggested the promise of more words to come from the president and it is these words that Bush s War addresses While many books have offered a take on the attacks of 9 11 and their impact upon American society one area has been comparatively ignored presidential justifications for war in the age of terrorism Specifically what did President Bush say to justify American military actions in the postD9 11 world And how did the public hear what he said especially as it was filtered through the news media The eloquent and thoughtful Bush s War shows how public perception of what the president says is shaped by media bias Jim A Kuypers compares Bush s statements with press coverage arguing that the nature of American public knowledge concerning our role in the world has been changed _not by 9 11 but by the subsequent argumentative back and forth between Bush and the press

Conflict in the Modern Middle East Jonathan K. Zartman,2020-03-19 This book provides detailed coverage of all the key conflict related developments since the Arab Spring a seminal event that began in December 2010 and continues to have major influence on events in the Middle East North Africa and beyond This important reference offers readers a thorough understanding of the nature of the various conflicts that have erupted in the Middle East and North Africa following the Arab Spring Clear and concise explanations of important concepts related to Islam ideology and ethnicity and the economic social and cultural forces propelling conflict and revolution in the region will enable readers to gain insight into key developments there Biographical and organizational profiles combined with succinct overviews of each country provide a strong research foundation for students The book offers detailed descriptions of the minority groups that have suffered violence from both the countries and the societies around them sometimes generating refugee flows that engage neighboring states in security issues It also discusses the role of women in the region during these turbulent times Primary source documents and a chronology highlight political struggles to reach durable agreements and develop institutions to meet basic human needs in the modern Middle East

Challenging Inequality in South Africa Michelle Williams,Vishwas Satgar,2021-05-13 In Challenging Inequality in South Africa Transitional Compasses leading scholars of South Africa explore creative possibilities to challenge structures of economic social and political power that produce inequality Through concrete empirical examples of movements workers struggles initiatives and politics in challenging inequality the authors illustrate transitional compasses that go beyond protest politics to a generative politics a politics of building the alternatives in the interstitial spaces of capitalism The conceptual framing is oriented around the way in which power is produced and reproduced through intricate relationships between hegemonic projects and everyday life While power underpins all social relations it is often taken for granted as it is frequently hidden behind other social relations Resistance to power emerges through engendering counter hegemonic projects that are intertwined with alternative everyday practices The authors highlight sources of alternative forms of power found in resistance to dominant forms of power through concrete experiences to create transformative alternatives To concretize the conceptual framing the authors look at the emancipatory possibilities of a universal basic income the use of law in tackling inequality in health and education creative initiatives to establish a people centred food system through food sovereignty new forms of organizing led by precarious workers democratic possibilities in local state delivery and attempts at reconceptualizing the good life by looking at issues of happiness and ecosocialism The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Globalizations Legitimation Struggles Jodie M. Lawston,2006

Other People's Struggles Nicholas Owen,2019-05-30 In Other People's Struggles Nicholas Owen looks at the outsider in social movements people like men in women's movements white people in anti colonial movements or rich people in movements for the poor He asks why such outsiders usually termed conscience constituents are sometimes present and sometimes absent drawing on examples from British history of the last two hundred years It develops an original theory to explain their motivations the consequences of their participation and their controversial complex and changing place in social movements of the past and present The Case for Gay Rights David A. J. Richards,2005 As Americans wrestle with debates over traditional values defense of marriage and gay rights reason often seems to take a back seat to emotion In response legal scholar Richards reflects upon the constitutional and democratic principles relating to privacy intimate life free speech tolerance and conscience that underpin these often heated debates The distillation of Richards's thirty year advocacy for the rights of gays and lesbians his book provides a reflective treatise on basic human rights that touch all of our lives He places in context two key Supreme Court cases the 1986 Bowers v Hardwick decision and the 2003 Lawrence v Texas decision which overturned it Drawing upon his own experiences as a gay man Richards interweaves personal observations with philosophical political judicial and psychological insights to make a case that gays should be entitled to the same rights and protections that every American enjoys From publisher description Collective Killings in Rural China during the

Cultural Revolution Yang Su,2011-02-21 The violence of Mao's China is well known but its extreme form is not In 1967 and 1968 during the Cultural Revolution collective killings were widespread in rural China in the form of public execution Victims included women children and the elderly This book is the first to systematically document and analyze these atrocities drawing data from local archives government documents and interviews with survivors in two southern provinces This book extracts from the Chinese case lessons that challenge the prevailing models of genocide and mass killings and contributes to the historiography of the Cultural Revolution in which scholarship has mainly focused on events in urban areas

Emerging Technologies for Diagnosing Alzheimer's Disease Marianne Boenink,Harro van Lente,Ellen Moors,2016-09-13 This book explores international biomedical research and development on the early diagnosis of Alzheimer's disease It offers timely multidisciplinary reflections on the social and ethical issues raised by promises of early diagnostics and asks under which conditions emerging diagnostic technologies can be considered a responsible innovation The initial chapters in this edited volume provide an overview and a critical discussion of recent developments in biomedical research on Alzheimer's disease. Subsequent contributions explore the values at stake in current practices of dealing with Alzheimer's disease and dementia both within and outside the biomedical domain. Novel diagnostic technologies for Alzheimer's disease emerge in a complex and shifting field full of controversies. Innovating with care requires a precise mapping of how concepts, values, and responsibilities are filled in through the confrontation of practices. In doing so, the volume offers a practice-based approach of responsible innovation that is also applicable to other fields of innovation.
