Framing Women Changing Frames Of Representation From The Enlightenment To:

Framing Women Sandra Carroll, Peter Wagner, Birgit Pretzsch, 2003 With contributions of scholars from Europe and North America this book covers the representation of women in word and image in the context of changing frames of mentalities in two distinct periods the Enlightenment and postmodernism Subjects and artists authors covered include prostitution English and French art Hogarth Reynolds Beardsley Greuze postmodern feminist theatre recent fiction by Cormac McCarthy Margaret Atwood and Spanish literature Special chapters deal with the construction of women in recent popular animated cartoons and computer games Fashioning Childhood in the Eighteenth Century Anja Müller, 2016-12-05 This innovative collection of essays re-examines conventional ideas of the history of childhood exploring the child's increasing prominence in eighteenth century discourse and the establishment of the category of age as a marker of social distinction alongside race class and gender While scholars often approach childhood within the context of a single nation this collection takes a comparative approach examining the child in British German and French contexts and demonstrating the mutual influences between the Continent and Great Britain in the conceptualization of childhood Covering a wide range of subjects from scientific and educational discourses on the child and controversies over the child's legal status and leisure activities to the child as artist and consumer the essays shed light on well known novels like Tristram Shandy and Tom Jones as well as on less familiar texts such as periodicals medical writings trial reports and schoolbooks Articles on visual culture show how eighteenth century discourses on childhood are reflected in representations of the child by illustrators and portraitists The international group of contributors including Peter Borsay Patricia Crown Bernadette Fort Brigitte Glaser Klaus Peter Jochum Dorothy Johnson and Peter Sabor represent the disciplines of history literature and art and reflect the collection's commitment to interdisciplinarity The volume's unique range of topics makes it essential reading for students and scholars concerned with the history and representation of childhood in eighteenth century culture Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019 Metaphors of Confinement The Prison in Fact Fiction and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present as well as non-penal situations described as confining or restrictive These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial particularly African literature the book juxtaposes literary and non-literary contexts and contrasts fictional and non-fictional representations of imprisonment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods

Artists' Things Katie Scott, Hannah Williams, 2024-01-09 Histories of artists personal possessions shed new light on the lives of their owners Artists are makers of things Yet it is a measure of the disembodied manner in which we generally think about artists that we rarely consider the everyday items they own This innovative book looks at objects that once belonged to artists revealing not only the fabric of the eighteenth century art world in France but also unfamiliar and sometimes unexpected insights into the individuals who populated it including Jean Antoine Watteau François Boucher Jean Baptiste Greuze and Elisabeth Vigée LeBrun From the curious to the mundane from the useful to the symbolic these items have one thing in common they have all been eclipsed from historical view Some of the objects still exist like Jean Honor Fragonard's color box and Jacques Louis David's table Others survive only in paintings such as Jean Siméon Chardin's cistern in his Copper Drinking Fountain or in documents like François Lemoyne's sword the instrument of his suicide Several were literally lost including pastelist Jean Baptiste Perronneau's pencil case In this fascinating book the authors engage with fundamental historical debates about production consumption and sociability through the lens of material goods owned by artists The free online edition of this open access publication is at www.getty.edu/publications/artists-things and includes zoomable illustrations Free PDF and EPUB downloads of the book are also available
