The Nature of German Imperialism Bernhard Gissibl, 2016-07-01 Today the East African state of Tanzania is renowned for wildlife preserves such as the Serengeti National Park the Ngorongoro Conservation Area and the Selous Game Reserve Yet few know that most of these initiatives emerged from decades of German colonial rule This book gives the first full account of Tanzanian wildlife conservation up until World War I focusing upon elephant hunting and the ivory trade as vital factors in a shift from exploitation to preservation that increasingly excluded indigenous Africans Analyzing the formative interactions between colonial governance and the natural world The Nature of German Imperialism situates East African wildlife policies within the global emergence of conservationist sensibilities around 1900 Remembering Africa Dirk Göttsche, 2013 A groundbreaking treatment of the themes of colonialism and Africa in German literary fiction as presented in some fifty novels from the past three decades In the late 1990s in the wake of German unification multiculturalism and globalization a surge of historical novels about German colonialism in Africa and its previously neglected legacies hit the German literary scene This development accelerated by the centenary in 2004 of Germany's colonial war in South West Africa has continued to the present making colonialism an established theme of literary memorialization alongside Germany's dominant memory themes National Socialism and the Holocaust the former GDR and its demise in the Wende and more recently 1968 This is the first comprehensive study of contemporary German literature's intense engagement with German colonialism and with Germany's wider involvement in European colonialism Building on the author's decade of research and publication in the field the book discusses some fifty novels by German Swiss and Austrian writers among them Hans Christoph Buch Alex Capus Christof Hamann Lukas Hartmann Ilona Maria Hilliges Giselher W Hoffmann Dieter K hn Hermann Schulz Gerhard Seyfried Thomas von Steinaecker Uwe Timm Ilija Trojanow and Stephan Wackwitz Drawing on international postcolonial theory the German tradition of cross cultural literary studies and on memory studies the book brings the hitherto neglected German case to the international debate in postcolonial literary studies Dirk Göttsche is Professor of German at the University of Nottingham German Colonialism, Visual Culture, and Modern Memory Volker Langbehn, 2010-07 Investigating visual communication and mass culture print culture and suggestive racial politics racial aesthetics racial politics and early German film racial continuity and German film and photography this title offers an evidence of a German society between 1884 and 1919 that produced vibrant and heterogeneous cultures of colonialism
