Eisenstein Two Films October And Alexnader Nevsky:

Two Films Sergei Eisenstein, Grigoriĭ Vasil'evich Aleksandrov, Petr Andreevich Pavlenko, 1984 Early Soviet Cinema David Gillespie, 2000 This text examines the aesthetics of Soviet cinema during its golden age of the 1920s against a background of cultural ferment and the construction of a new socialist society A History Of Russia Volume 2 Walter G. Moss, 2004-10-01 Moss has significantly revised his text and bibliography in this second edition to reflect new research findings and controversies on numerous subjects He has also brought the history up to date by revising the post Soviet material which now covers events from the end of 1991 up to the present day This new edition retains the features of the successful first edition that have made it a popular choice in universities and colleges throughout the US Canada and around the world Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture David A. Gerstner, 2006-03-01 The Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture covers gay lesbian bisexual transgender and queer GLBTQ life and culture post 1945 with a strong international approach to the subject The scope of the work is extremely comprehensive with entries falling into the broad categories of Dance Education Film Health Homophobia the Int Hollywood in the Holy Land Nickolas Haydock, E.L. Ridsen, 2014-01-10 This collection of essays analyzes film representations of the Crusades other medieval East West encounters and the modern inheritance of encounters between orientalist fantasy and apocalyptic conspiracy From studies of the filmic representations of popular figures such as El Cid Roland Richard I and Saladin to examinations of such topics as Templar romance and the role of set design location and landscape the essays make significant contributions to our understanding of orientalist medievalism in film Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here A Knight at the Movies John Aberth, 2012-10-02 Imagining the Middle Ages is an unprecedented examination of the historical content of films depicting the medieval period from the 11th to the 15th centuries Historians increasingly feel the need to weigh in on popular depictions of the past since so much of the public's knowledge of history comes from popular mediums Aberth dissects how each film interpreted the period offering estimations of the historical accuracy of the works and demonstrating how they project their own contemporary era's obsessions and fears onto the past The 100 Most Influential Musicians of All Time Britannica Educational Publishing, 2009-10-01 Welcome to a veritable feast for readers' eyes, minds and by extension ears Filled with profiles of truly accomplished musicians across a broad spectrum of musical styles and genres this volume includes such varied musical artists as Ludwig von Beethoven Elvis Presley and hip hop artist Jay Z Cosmopolitan Film Cultures in Latin America, 1896-1960 Rielle Navitski, Nicolas Poppe, 2017-06-19 Cosmopolitan Film Cultures in Latin America examines how cinema forged cultural connections between Latin American publics and film exporting nations in the first half of the twentieth century Predating today's transnational media industries by several decades these connections were defined by active economic and cultural exchanges as well as longstanding inequalities in political power and cultural capital The essays explore the arrival and expansion of cinema throughout the region from the first screenings of the Lumi re Cin matographe in 1896 to the emergence of new forms of cinephilia and cult spectatorship in the 1940s and beyond Examining these transnational exchanges through the lens of the cosmopolitan which emphasizes the ethical and political dimensions of cultural consumption illuminates the role played by moving images in negotiating between the local national and global and between the popular and the elite in twentieth century Latin America In addition primary historical documents provide vivid accounts of Latin American film critics movie audiences and film industry workers experiences with moving images produced elsewhere encounters that were deeply rooted in the local context yet also opened out onto global horizons

New York Magazine ,1991-10-21 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

The Film Factory Ian Christie,Richard Taylor,2012-10-12 The Film Factory provides a comprehensive documentary history of Russian and Soviet cinema It provokes a major reassessment of conventional Western understanding of Soviet cinema Based on extensive research and in original translation the documents selected illustrate both the aesthetic and political development of Russian and Soviet cinema from its beginnings as a fairground novelty in 1896 to its emergence as a mass medium of entertainment and propaganda on the eve of World War II

Classical Epic Tradition John Kevin Newman,2003-04-01 The literary epic and critical theories about the epic tradition are traced from Aristotle and Callimachus through Apollonius Virgil and their successors such as Chaucer and Milton to Eisenstein Tolstoy and Thomas Mann Newman s revisionist critique will challenge all scholars students and general readers of the classics comparative literature and western literary traditions

Hollywood Pride Alonso Duralde,2024-05-14 For generations members of the LGBTQ community in Hollywood needed to be discreet about their lives but make no mistake they were everywhere both in front of and behind the camera On the eve of the twentieth century in Thomas Edison s laboratory one of the earliest attempts at a sound film depicted two men dancing together as a third plays the violin It s only a few minutes long but this cornerstone of early cinema captured a queer moment on film It would not be the last With Hollywood Pride renowned film critic Alonso Duralde presents a history spanning from the dawn of cinema through the pansy craze of the 1930s and the New Queer Cinema of the 1990s all the way up to today He showcases the hard working actors writers directors producers cinematographers art directors and choreographers whose achievements defined the American film industry and charts the evolution of LGBTQ storytelling itself the way mainstream Hollywood decided it would portray or erase their lives and the narratives created by queer filmmakers who fought to tell those stories themselves Along the way readers will encounter a fascinating cast of characters such as the first generation of queer actors including J Warren Kerrigan Ramon Novarro and

William Haines Early cinema pioneers like Alla Nazimova and F W Murnau helped shape the new medium of moving pictures The sex symbols both male Rock Hudson Tab Hunter and Anthony Perkins and female Lizabeth Scott and Greta Garbo lived under the threat of their private lives undermining their public personas Underground filmmakers Kenneth Anger and John Waters made huge strides in LGBTQ representation with their off off Hollywood productions in the 1960s and 70s These screen legends paved the way for every openly queer figure in Hollywood today Illustrated with more than 175 full color and black and white images Hollywood Pride points to the bright future of LGBTQ representation in cinema by revealing the story of the community s inclusion and erasure its visibility and invisibility and its triumphs and tragedies History and

Popular Memory Paul A Cohen,2014-05-13 When people experience a traumatic event such as war or the threat of annihilation they often turn to history for stories that promise a positive outcome to their suffering During World War II the French took comfort in the story of Joan of Arc and her heroic efforts to rid France of foreign occupation To bring the Joan narrative more into line with current circumstances popular retellings modified the original story so that what people believed took place in the past was often quite different from what actually occurred Paul A Cohen believes this interplay between story and history is a worldwide phenomenon found in countries of radically different cultural religious and social character He focuses on Serbia Israel the Soviet Union China Great Britain and France all of which experienced severe crises in the twentieth century and in response appropriated age old historical narratives that resonated with what was happening in the present to serve a unifying restorative purpose A central theme in the book is the distinction between popular memory and history Although vitally important to historians this distinction is routinely blurred in people s minds and the historian s truth often cannot compete with the power of a compelling story from the past even when it has been seriously distorted by myth or political manipulation Cohen concludes by suggesting that the patterns of interaction he probes given their near universality may well be rooted in certain human propensities that transcend cultural difference The Oliver Stone

Encyclopedia James M. Welsh,Donald M. Whaley,2013 Oliver Stone has written and directed many memorable films while also developing a reputation for tackling controversial subjects such as the Turkish prison system Midnight Express the Vietnam war Platoon and Born on the Fourth of July insider trading Wall Street presidential assassination JFK and a voyeuristic media Natural Born Killers Along the way Stone has been nominated for more than 10 Academy Awards and three times received Oscars for his work In The Oliver StoneEncyclopedia James M Welsh and Donald M Whaley provide an overarching evaluation of Stone s work as screenwriter producer and director While the entries in this volume address all of the usual aspects of Stone s career they also explore new avenues of critical evaluation especially influences such as Friedrich Nietzsche and Buddhism which Stone converted to in the 1990s In addition this volume traces Stone s obsession with Latin American politics evident in his film Salvador 1986 his screenplay for Alan Parker s Evita 1996 and the documentaries Commandante 2003 Looking for Fidel 2004 and South of the Border 2010 Each entry is followed by a bibliography of published sources both in print and online A comprehensive and engaging examination of the director The Oliver Stone Encyclopedia will appeal to scholars and fans alike as the most comprehensive reference on this director's body of work

The Film Book Ronald Bergan, 2011-10-03 Film is the world's most popular artistic medium What began as a novelty at country fairs rapidly became the consummate art form of the twentieth century spanning both popular culture and high art The Film Book enables you to identify different cinematic genres appreciate the style of celebrated directors see how a film is made and understand why the greatest movies deserve their reputation The book is unique in encompassing each of these key aspects and as such outspans the many other guides and film companions on the market The guide is split into seven distinct sections each of which deals with a particular aspect of film The first of these chapters is a detailed history of the art form over the last 120 years charting its evolution from a musical event accompanied by pictures through its numerous developments and innovations talking pictures color film video and DVD online films computer generated special effects and the modern 3D experience The second shows how these techniques are applied in practice taking the reader behind the camera to explore the film making process and find out who's who on set offering a useful insight into how movies are brought to life Sections 3 to 6 look at the films themselves Providing an overview of cinematic styles and genres the third section covers everything from westerns musicals and sci fi to arthouse cinema the avant garde and the cult movie whilst the fourth compares and contrasts the major styles of international cinema with key schools movements directors and films The fifth section profiles 100 of the film industry's greatest and most influential directors listing their key works and assessing their cinematic legacy whilst the sixth section discusses 100 key cinematic works which invented extended or reinvented the art form The closing section of the book is an interesting and often provocative range of lists compiled by a variety of film associations publications and institutions Comprehensive authoritative and written with passion and verve The Film Book is a unique treasure trove of a guide that will appeal to anyone who loves movies
