Founders Of Constructive Postmodern Philosophy:

Founders of Constructive Postmodern Philosophy David Ray Griffin, John B. Cobb, Marcus P. Ford, Pete A. Y. Gunter, Peter Ochs, 1993-01-01 In presenting Peirce James Bergson Whitehead and Hartshorne as members of a common and distinctively postmodern trajectory this book casts the thought of each of them in a new light It also suggests a new direction for the philosophical community as a whole now that the various forms of modern philosophy and even the deconstructive form of postmodern philosophy are widely perceived to be dead ends This new option offers the possibility that philosophy may recover its role as critic and guide within the more general culture a recovery that is desperately needed in these perilous times The End of Modern Medicine Laurence Foss, 2012-02-01 The End of Modern Medicine chronicles the work of a small influential band of medical theorists and clinicians who over the past decade have sought to redress the physical fundamentalism of the biomedical model that shaped their professional training Laurence Foss challenges the prevailing medical model whereby mind and body are essentially separated and charts a new psychobiological course Asking fresh questions raising new possibilities probing long established preconceptions Foss presents a radically reconfigured medical model This model accounts for the full range of findings in the experimental literature most notably those surfacing over the past quarter century in psychophysiological studies which show a correlation between psychosocial variables and disease susceptibility that are in line with what more basic sciences tell us about the behavior of material systems and the nature of scientific explanation Foss also critically analyzes the regulative ideals of today s medical research community and puts modern science itself from which these ideals derive under a microscope Jewish Theology and Process Thought Sandra B. Lubarsky, David Ray Griffin, 2012-02-01 This collection constitutes the first extended discussion of the relationship between Judaism and process thought In the last half century the philosophies of Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne have become important sources for contemporary theological reflection Recently a number of Jewish thinkers have examined process thought as a potentially valuable resource for postmodern Jewish theology This book brings together many Jewish thinkers who have pioneered this discussion Jewish thinkers who have found process thought to be a useful framework for contemporary Jewish thought discuss issues that are primarily theological such as God s transcendence and immanence the problem of evil the idea of revelation Also included is a dialogue between Jewish and Christian thinkers on the appropriateness of process thought for their religious traditions Critical reflection on the continuities and discontinuities between Judaism and the process model is also covered Jewish Theology for a Postmodern Age Miriam Feldmann Kaye, 2019-03-08 Through a critical study of the writings of Rav Shagar and Tamar Ross Miriam Feldmann Kaye asks how Jewish theology can survive the tide of postmodernism and its refutation of a single objective and ultimate truth and suggests how aspects of postmodernism might be conceived of as a potential resource for rejuvenating religion Cultural Studies Lawrence Grossberg, 2005-08-05 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Toward a Priestly Christology Adriani Milli Rodrigues, 2018-11-02 Toward a Priestly Christology is a constructive theology on the person and work of Christ from the standpoint of a systematic thinking about his priesthood This priesthood is usually discussed in biblical scholarship on the Christology of Hebrews and also explored in historical or systematic theology with its connections with soteriology and ecclesiology However there is a scarcity of studies that attempt to systematize this topic in its basic components and their ontological foundations in order to provide conceptual clarity for a constructive discussion of the priestly Christology in systematic theology The book makes a contribution to this discussion by engaging firstly with the main models of Christ's priesthood in Christian theology and then with a theological reading of the letter to the Hebrews In both steps the author conceptually articulates the priesthood in terms of need agent actions and goal Then he observes the conceptual articulation from the macro hermeneutical point of view of ontology especially noticing how assumptions on time and space impact the internal logic of Christ's priesthood By using existing models of this priesthood as heuristic tools for systematic thinking the work attempts to push Christian theology toward a more dynamic understanding of Christ's priesthood especially regarding the relationship between the ascended Christ and our Christian life

Process and Difference Catherine Keller, Anne Daniell, 2012-02-01 The similarities and creative tensions between French based poststructuralism and Whiteheadian process thought are examined here by leading scholars Although both approaches are labeled postmodern their own proponents often take them to be so dissimilar as to be opposed Contributors to this book however argue that processing these differences of theory at a deeper level may cultivate fertile and innovative modes of reflection Through their comparisons contrasts and hybridizations of process and poststructuralist theories the contributors variously redefine concepts of divinity and cosmos advance the interaction between science and religion and engage the sex gender and religious ethics of otherness and subjectivity

Mothership Connections Theodore Walker Jr., 2012-02-01 Bringing a black Atlantic approach to constructive postmodern efforts to understand and transcend modern worldviews and modern world orders Mothership Connections draws upon the work of scholars in the tradition of W E B Du Bois Charles H Long Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne The author shows that connections to the originating influences of transatlantic slavery and black Atlantic experiences are essential to any adequate account of modernity and postmodernity He also argues that metaphysics is essential to theology and moral theory synthesizing neoclassical metaphysics and black theology to develop a black Atlantic account of metaphysical aspects of struggle power and ethical deliberation

The Metaphysics of Becoming Thomas Padiyath, 2014-08-22 This study attempts to elucidate a possible meeting point of the traditions of Eastern and Western metaphysical thinking In discussing Whitehead's and Aurobindo's views on being and becoming it seeks the possibility of a better engagement between the East and the West in the light of the philosophical insights It is an initiation into the Sitz im Leben of Whitehead's philosophy and his general thought pattern It carries a perceptive analysis to show the clear primacy of Becoming or Process in Whitehead that extends even to the Divine It also highlights Aurobindo as a unique Indian Philosopher who articulated Indian thought in Western categories He was able to integrate the evolutionary theory of the West with the Indian understanding of becoming The relationship between God and Creativity and Sachchidananda and the Supermind is studied within the context of Enlightenment and Modernity and the way of doing philosophy in the West and in the East Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought Michel Weber,2013-04-30 Gathering 115 entries written by 101 internationally renowned experts in their fields the Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought aims at canvassing the current state of knowledge in Whiteheadian scholarship and at identifying promising directions for future investigations through internal cross elucidation and external interdisciplinary development Two kinds of entries are weaved together in order to interpret Whitehead secundum Whitehead and to read him from the vantage point of interdisciplinary and crossdisciplinary research The thematic entries provide i a broad contextualisation of the issue at stake ii a focus on Whitehead s treatment if any or of a possible Whiteheadian treatment of the issue iii a history of relevant scholarship iv a personal assessment by the Author The biographical entries provide i a brief vita of the targeted thinker ii a sketch of his her categories relevant to the Whiteheadian scholarship iii a personal assessment of the actual or possible Whiteheadian semantic transfer to or from the thinker Religion and Scientific Naturalism David Ray Griffin,2000-05-18 Articulates a metaphysical position capable of rendering both science and religious experience simultaneously and mutually intelligible Loneragan on Philosophic Pluralism Gerard Walmsley,2008-12-08 In his influential philosophical work Insight Bernard Lonergan made the intriguing and problematic claim that the polymorphism of consciousness is the one and only key to philosophy In Loneragan on Philosophical Pluralism Gerard Walmsley examines Lonergan s many discussions of the different forms of human consciousness as well as his sustained responses to the problems raised by philosophical and cultural pluralism Looking closely at Lonergan s thoughts on patterns of experience different levels of consciousness and the differentiations of consciousness that occur through the historical development of individual human minds Walmsley shows how polymorphic consciousness allows individuals to understand a range of philosophical positions By understanding this range an individual is able to sympathetically and critically appreciate different positions Testing the strength of Lonergan s position he directly engages postmodern thought and comparative philosophy to demonstrate that Lonergan s account of polymorphic consciousness provides a better basis for a positive evaluation of difference than does the work of many postmodern thinkers An ambitious and soundly argued work Loneragan on Philosophical Pluralism is both an illuminating study of Lonergan s thought and an intriguing proposal for how difference and pluralism can be understood The Cambridge Companion to Postmodern Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer,2003-07-31 Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without

Spiritual Titanism Nicholas F. Gier, 2012-03-27 This work in comparative philosophy uses the concept of Titanism to critique certain trends in both Eastern and Western philosophy Titanism is an extreme form of humanism in which human beings take on divine attributes and prerogatives The author finds the most explicit forms of spiritual Titanism in the Jaina Samkhya and Yoga traditions where yogis claim powers and knowledge that in the West are only attributed to God These philosophies are also radically dualistic and liberation involves a complete transcendence of the body society and nature Five types of spiritual Titanism are identified and in addition to this typology a heuristic based on Nietzsche's three metamorphoses of camel lion and child is offered The book determines that answers to spiritual Titanism begin not only with the Hindu Goddess religion but also are found in Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism especially Zen Buddhism and Confucianism

Pragmatism and Modernities, 2010-01-01 Pragmatism belongs at least to a certain degree to the Protestant based reaction towards the economic social and political developments of the time in the US and it is no coincidence that the pragmatists all came from religious families if not even theologian families But these life conditions have changed over the course of the last century as much as the Protestant self assurance has been questioned more and more The question discussed in this book by international scholars is as to whether the possible modernity of pragmatism of around and after 1900 can still be labeled modern today in the modernity or post modernity around and after 2000 Has philosophy and philosophy of education found better alternatives Have the alternatives of the time around 1900 proven to be better Were the contemporary critics of pragmatism right These questions are discussed in fourteen chapters clustered in three larger parts The first part deals with pragmatism and modernity around 1900 the second part discusses contemporary alternatives to pragmatism and critics of pragmatism and the third and last part of the book deals with the modernity of pragmatism today Intended audience philosophers philosophers of education historians historians of education religious educators historians of sociology cultural historians political scientists postmodernists Physics and Whitehead Timothy E. Eastman, Hank Keeton, 2012-02-01 Featuring discussions and dialogue by prominent scientists and philosophers this book explores the rich interface of contemporary physics and Whitehead inspired process thought The contributors share the conviction that quantum physics not only corroborates many of Whitehead's philosophical theses but is also illuminated by them Thus though differing in perspective or emphasis the contributions by Geoffrey Chew David Finkelstein Henry Stapp and other scientists conceptually dovetail with those of Philip Clayton Jorge Nuno Yutaka Tanaka and other process philosophers The Thinking Professional Sue L. T. McGregor, 2025-09-24 This book concerns any progressive discipline and human profession looking to transform its practice via the cultivation of thinking professionals Topics include paradigm shifts the human condition transdisciplinarity the holomovement principle philosophical well being perspective transformation and transformative social change agency The Resurgence of the Real Charlene Spretnak, 2012-09-10 In this insightful beautifully written work one of America's most important feminist ecological thinkers reflects on the roots of modernity in Renaissance humanism the Reformation the Scientific Revolution and the Enlightenment Spretnak argues that an ecological postmodern ethos is emerging in the 1990s the creative cosmos and the complex sense of place Both a sharp critique and a graceful performance of the art of the possible The Resurgence of the Real changes the way we think about living in the modern world Postmodern Environmental Ethics Max Oelschlaeger, 1995-08-17 This book explains the role of language in causing and in resolving the ecocrisis showing that ecologically adaptive behavior can be facilitated through language The authors explore the discourses of deep ecology ecofeminism Judeo Christianity quantum theory and Native American world views all to the end of empowering ecosocial change
