Researches Into the Early History of Mankind and the Development of Civilization Edward Burnett Tylor,1870

Empire and Indigeneity Richard Price,2021-05-30 Indigeneity is inseparable from empire and the way empire responds to the Indigenous presence is a key historical factor in shaping the flow of imperial history This book is about the consequences of the encounter in the early nineteenth century between the British imperial presence and the First Peoples of what were to become Australia and New Zealand However the shape of social relations between Indigenous peoples and the forces of empire does not remain constant over time The book tracks how the creation of empire in this part of the world possessed long lasting legacies both for the settler colonies that emerged and for the wider history of British imperial culture

A Companion to Global Historical Thought Prasenjit Duara,Viren Murthy,Andrew Sartori,2014-01-21 A COMPANION TO GLOBAL HISTORICAL THOUGHT A Companion to Global Historical Thought provides an overview of the development of historical thinking from the earliest times to the present directly addressing issues of historiography in a globalized context Questions concerning the global dissemination of historical writing and the relationship between historiography and other ways of representing the past have become important not only in the academic study of history but also in public arenas in many countries With contributions from leading international scholars the book considers the problem of the global in the multiplicity of traditions of narrating the past in the global dissemination of modern historical writing and of the global as a concept animating historical imaginations It explores the different intellectual approaches that have shaped the discipline of history and the challenges posed by modernity and globalization while illustrating the shifts in thinking about time and the emergence of historical thought Complementing A Companion to Western Historical Thought this book places non Western perspectives on historiography at the center of discussion helping scholars and students alike make sense of the discipline at the start of the twenty first century

Who's who in the Commonwealth of Australia ... Fred Johns,1922

A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service,

British Ruling Cases from Courts of Great Britain, Canada, Ireland, Australia and Other Divisions of the British Empire, Extensively Annotated ,1924 This series of reports is in a sense a continuation but with a decided expansion of the plan of the English ruling cases as it takes the cases from the British empire instead of from England only but it continues the English ruling cases in the sense that it will include the most important cases from the English courts decided since that series terminated Pref Before Environmental Law Benjamin J Richardson,2023-10-05 This landmark open access book unveils the history of defending Australia's natural environment and examines the subject's legal and political contexts from the birth of the nation in 1901 until the advent of the so-called modern era of environmental regulation in the late 1960s It rejects the mythology that Australia lacked environmental law before the late 1960s in revealing how many of today's environmental laws from pollution control to nature conservation emerged from precedents or events much earlier in the 20th century This history however reveals a discrepancy between lawmakers' greater efficacy to exploit rather than protect the environment a discrepancy that grew as nature's backlash intensified in a rapidly degrading continent colonised to build the Australian nation In exploring these dynamics the book offers a rich tapestry of case studies illustrated with historic photographs that show the origins of Australia's environmental laws and how they borrowed from international precedents or furnished lessons for other nations Through its multi-disciplinary enquiry the book offers scholars and students of environmental law legal history and the environmental humanities a unique story about the failures and successes in the making of environmental law The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4.0 licence on bloomsburycollections.com The Cambridge History of the Australian Novel David Carter,2023-07-27 The Cambridge History of the Australian Novel is an authoritative volume on the Australian novel by more than forty experts in the field of Australian literary studies drawn from within Australia and abroad Essays cover a wide range of types of novel writing and publishing from the earliest colonial period through to the present day The international dimensions of publishing Australian fiction are also considered as are the changing contours of criticism of the novel in Australia Chapters examine colonial fiction women's writing Indigenous novels popular genre fiction historical fiction political novels and challenging novels on identity and belonging from recent decades not least the major rise of Indigenous novel writing Essays focus on specific periods of major change in Australian history or range broadly across themes and issues that have influenced fiction across many years and in many parts of the country Australia's Constitution after Whitlam Brendan Lim,2017-04-06 An original account of the 1975 constitutional crisis and its continuing relevance for informal constitutional change in contemporary Australian law Sources and Methods in Histories of Colonialism Kirsty Reid,Fiona Paisley,2017-03-27 Sources and Methods in Histories of Colonialism provides an in-depth study of the relationships between archives knowledge and power Exploring a diverse range of examples and surveying the now substantial scholarly literatures on the functions and scope of the imperial archive it facilitates a deeper understanding of the challenges of working with a range of specific source genres within imperial and colonial archives Covering the late eighteenth century to the present day and drawing on material from a range of modern empires including those established by Britain France the Netherlands

Spain and the United States chapters discuss themes such as the emergence of photography as an archival tool the use of oral history in histories of colonialism and the ways in which the state informs the archive and vice versa This book considers the ways in which newer ways of thinking about the past have challenged more traditional views of the archive provoking questions about what archives are and where their conceptual geographical and chronological boundaries lie Examining a wide selection of source material including government papers censuses petitions and case files and providing both an overarching introduction to the subject and close analysis of specific case studies this book will be essential reading for students of imperial and colonial history Calendar of the University of Queensland University of Queensland,1928

Rights and Redemption Ann Curthoys,Ann Genovese,2008 History has been central to a number of heated public debates in recent years As Indigenous people have sought redress through the law the role of history in the courts has become highly charged Rights and Redemption is a detailed investigation of the uses of history and historians in high profile cases involving Indigenous litigants something not previously attempted Ann Curthoys Ann Genovese and Alexander Reilly look at cases before the Federal Court during the era of the Howard government a time when Indigenous rights and the place of Aboriginal people in the national story were undermined in government laws and policies They investigate how the courts have made use of historians as expert witnesses and how the colonial past has been framed and understood by the courts Rights and Redemption is an important record of a unique period of litigation in Indigenous affairs in Australia and a meditation on ways in which law and history might improve Indigenous rights Book jacket Cyclopædia of Political Science, Political Economy, and of the Political History of the United States John Joseph Lalor,1881
