The Citizen's Almanac, 2008 Civil Rights and Politics at Hampton Institute Hoda M. Zaki, 2007 Civil Rights and Politics at Hampton Institute presents the story of how one of the preeminent and historically conservative private institutions of black higher education came to play an important part in the struggle for full racial equality Hoda Zaki traces Hampton Institute s progressive impact to its first black and alumnus president Alonzo G. Moron who used his office to launch a powerful and sustained attack against segregation A brilliant man who was uncompromising in his beliefs about creating a more inclusive democracy Moron struggled against conservative forces both outside of and within his own institution before his ouster by Hampton s predominantly white governing board in 1959 just a year before the Greensboro sit ins signaled the death knell for the segregationist era in which his institution had prospered Hoda Zaki details the significance of Moron s complicated career through discussions of his theories of citizenship education his work in promoting equal rights as a mission for the college and the political philosophy as evidenced in his speeches that he shared with other civil rights leaders of the era
