Marxism and Biblical Studies* Christina Petterson,2020-04-20 In Apostles of Revolution Marxism and Biblical Studies Christina Petterson sheds light on the collaboration between Biblical studies and liberal ideology Marxist analysis of the bible is spreading but clarity about what constitutes Marxist readings and Marxist categories of analysis is lacking a lack of clarity compounded by the different strands within Marxist politics and its subtle resonances in biblical scholarship The author examines the interplay between Biblical studies and liberal ideology in two ways First by presenting and discussing some of the central Marxist categories of analysis namely history ideology and class and how these categories have been co opted into biblical studies and in the process lost their radical edge Second by discussing the emergence of the discipline of biblical studies during the Enlightenment and to what extent the containment strategies of biblical studies overlap with those of capitalism Bringing the World into Focus Michel Listenberger OD FVI,2017-04-24 This is a story of struggle and triumph as visionaries overcome barriers to bring sight to others who cannot see The joys and tears of volunteers are shared in stories of what drives their passions toward a life changing causegiving the gift of sight Bringing the World into Focus is about Volunteer Optometric Services to Humanity from its beginnings in Kansas when two pilots flew their private planes to Mexico to its global outreach today of eighty one chapters and five thousand members providing eye care around the world Feasting on History James De Lorenzi,2025-07-15 During the brutal Italian occupation of Ethiopia 1936 1941 the country descended into endless counterinsurgency and mass violence which specifically targeted local intellectuals with the sanction of Italy s leading experts Yet these atrocities followed decades of dialogue between Ethiopian and Italian researchers and in the postcolonial era their successors continued to debate Ethiopia s past and future as survivors and perpetrators This historical reckoning unfolded against the backdrop of Third World liberation disputed colonial guilt and the search for postcolonial justice Feasting on History is a wide ranging intellectual history of the Italian Ethiopian relationship told through the intertwined lives of Heruy W ld Sellas an Ethiopian writer and civil servant and Enrico Cerulli an Italian Orientalist and colonial official It takes place on the battlefields and detention sites of fascist empire within the evolving institutions of the international system and throughout the interlinked intellectual worlds of Europe Africa and the African diaspora James De Lorenzi documents the violence perpetrated by experts across these spaces as well as the pioneering Ethiopian effort to address the crimes of empire through international law He also explores a distinctive European tradition of Africa focused Orientalism and its critical reception by Ethiopian African and

Offen,2000 This ambitious book explores challenges to male hegemony throughout continental Europe over the past 250 years For general readers and those interested primarily in the historical record it provides a comprehensive comparative account of feminist developments in European societies as well as a rereading of European history from a feminist perspective By placing gender or relations between women and men at the center of European politics it aims to reconfigure our understanding of the European past and to make visible a long but neglected tradition of feminist thought and politics On another level the book seeks to disentangle some misperceptions and to demystify some confusing contemporary debates about the Enlightenment reason nature and public vs private equality vs difference In the process the author aims to show that gender is not merely a useful category of analysis but that sexual difference lies at the heart of human thought and politics Gender History in a Transnational Perspective Oliver Janz,Daniel Schönplug,2014-04-01 Recent debates have used the concept of transnational history to broaden research on historical subjects that transcend national boundaries and encourage a shift away from official inter state interactions to institutions groups and actors that have been obscured This approach proves particularly fruitful for the dynamic field of global gender and women s history By looking at the restless lives and work of women s activists in informal border crossings ephemeral NGOs the lower management of established international organizations and other global networks this volume reflects the potential of a new perspective that allows for a more adequate analysis of transnational activities By pointing out cultural hierarchies the vicissitudes of translation and re interpretation and the ambiguity of intercultural exchange this volume demonstrates the critical potential of transnational history It allows us to see the limits of universalist and cosmopolitan claims so dear to many historical actors and historians Contested Fields Alan McDougall,2020-01-29 Few cultural activities speak more powerfully to international histories of the modern world than football In the late nineteenth century this cheap and simple sport emerged as a major legacy of Britain s formal and informal empires and spread quickly across Europe South America and Africa Today football known to many as soccer is arguably the world s most popular pastime an activity played and watched by millions of people around the globe Contested Fields introduces readers to key aspects of the global game synthesizing research on football s transnational role in reflecting and shaping political socio economic and cultural developments over the past 150 years Each chapter uses case studies and cutting edge scholarship to analyze an important element of football s international story migration money competition gender race space spectatorship and confrontation Encyclopedia of British Football Richard William Cox,Dave Russell,Wray Vamplew,2002 This reference work aims to provide sports enthusiasts journalists librarians students and scholars with an authoritative source of
