Dickerson has crafted poetry for some forty years and by his own admission is not exactly a beginner His pen has produced several volumes worth of verse He celebrates the formal and cultivates the science of poetry though he believes the degree of spiritual refi nement in the voice distinguishes the poet His poems revel in the concrete and he believes in the poem as object He advocates a natural voice the primacy of the idea and the translation of the ordinary His ethic insists that mathematics aside all that passes for truth in human affairs is rooted in need and tribal belief He welcomes the return to poetry of transparency and design and prefers a poetic of mood and word magic to a poetry of politics In his view a poem is a joke whose punch line yields enlightenment He avoids the confessional mode as being too full of itself To learn the craft of poetry he recommends practice and constant alertness to poetic possibility He also recommends reading the greats Our Lady
