Harold Jaffe, Larry McCaffrey, Mel Freilicher, 1992-12      Texas Painters, Sculptors & Graphic Artists John E.
Powers, Deborah Daniels Powers, 2000      Ausstellungskat James Oles, Yale University. Art Gallery, 1993-09-17 Richly illustrated with works of both high culture and commercial kitsch many of them never before reproduced South of the Border revisits an era when Mexico captured the North American imagination Between the final years of the Mexican Revolution of 1910 17 and the immediate aftermath of World War II dozens of U S painters and photographers flocked to Mexico among them Edward Weston Paul Strand Marsden Hartley Helen Levitt Josef Albers and Robert Motherwell South of the Border reconsiders the work of these and other American artists along with representative works of their Mexican contemporaries and examples of the vast quantities of commercial art illustrated books and magazines travel posters and postcards and Mexican folk and tourist art that contributed to Americans image of their neighbor to the south Artists visiting or living in Mexico Oles writes were enthralled with the country s climate pre Columbian heritage and folk culture Especially during the Great Depression not only artists but the general American public as well saw in Mexico an appealing alternative to the pressures of industrial society Some artists including Winold Reiss Thomas Handforth and Doris Rosenthal won acclaim for their depictions of a seemingly timeless rural life in Mexican villages Others among them Pablo O Higgins Elizabeth Catlett and Robert Mallery fired their work with politics bringing the movement for social reform directly to the people through large murals and popular graphics In a bilingual text English and Spanish that accompanies more than 180 illustrations Oles describes these and many other U S artists drawn to Mexico placing their work in its original political and cultural context An accompanying essay by Karen Cordero Reiman reexamines the history of Mexican art from 1910 through 1950 providing a fresh interpretation of a period long obscured by nationalist discourse and the domination of muralism Published in cooperation with the Yale University Art Gallery South of the Border includes capsule biographies and selected bibliographies for many of the artists discussed in the text BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North Catherwood Peter O. Koch, 2013-01-16 Daring exploits and astounding achievements were common for two 19th century adventurers John Lloyd Stephens a New York lawyer and best selling author and Frederick Catherwood a London architect and renowned topographical artist Separately these explorers covered much of the same ground touring Italy Greece Egypt Arabia and the Holy Land in search of ancient sites that were of historical significance Jointly these adventurers endured many life threatening obstacles in a determined effort that led to the discovery of nearly fifty forgotten Mayan cities buried deep in the jungles of Central America and Mexico The vivid accounts penned by Stephens coupled with the magnificent drawings of ruins by Catherwood brought back to life a vanished civilization that both considered equal to the greatness of ancient Egypt Greece and Rome The story concludes with the premature and tragic deaths of the two
