Driven by God Jae-Eun Park, 2018-10-01 For more than two millennia believers have struggled with the antinomy of God's absolute sovereignty over and man's ultimate responsibility in justification and sanctification Theologians have used some version of the terms active justification and definitive sanctification in an attempt to illuminate this mystery However in the past decade scholars have begun to criticize these concepts saying that they are unsupported in Scripture lead to theological confusion and are of no practical benefit to believers Through the work of theologians from the broader Dutch Reformed tradition especially Herman Bavinck Alexander Comrie Herman Witsius and Abraham Kuyper Jae Eun Park demonstrates that the terms active justification and definitive sanctification are derived from Scripture and serve to clarify not obscure the doctrines of justification and sanctification In addition the book shows that neglect misuse or misunderstanding of the terms have resulted in contemporary criticisms that are unconvincing and unfounded. Writings of the aforementioned theologians define and expound four characteristics held in common between active justification and definitive sanctification: inseparability, objectivity, and decisiveness. Christ-centeredness and God's absolute sovereignty are concepts of the mentioned theologians. All four characteristics of active justification and definitive sanctification emphasize the God-driven nature of salvation. Jae Eun Park explains how, when properly defined and presented, the two terms are important theologically, bringing clarity to the issue of the perfect balance between God's sovereignty and human responsibility in salvation. He also shows how active justification and definitive sanctification offers practical assurance of their perseverance unto glory to true believers and provides pastors with an invaluable tool for exhorting parishioners who may have lapsed into either triumphalism or defeatism. The Christian Delusion John W.

Loftus, 2010-04-27 In this anthology of recent criticisms aimed at the reasonableness of Christian belief, former evangelical minister and apologist Loftus has assembled fifteen outstanding articles by leading skeptics expanding on themes introduced in Loftus' first book.

Hebrews Douglas J. Moo, 2024-11-19 Designed for the pastor and Bible teacher, the Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament features today's top New Testament scholars and brings together commentary features rarely gathered together in one volume. With careful analysis and interpretation of the Greek text, the authors trace the flow of argument in each New Testament book, giving readers the tools they need to properly understand and communicate the meaning of the text. Commentary on each passage follows a clear structure to help readers grasp the flow and meaning of the text: Literary Context: A brief discussion of how the passage functions in the broader literary context of the book. Main Idea: A one or two sentence statement of the big idea or central thrust of the passage. Translation and Graphical Layout: Presents each commentator's translation of the Greek text in a graphical layout to help the reader visualize and thus better understand the flow of thought within the text. Structure: Describes the flow of thought in the passage and explains how certain interpretive decisions regarding the relationship of the clauses were made in the passage. Exegetical Outline: The overall structure of the passage is described in a detailed exegetical outline. This will be particularly helpful for those who are looking for a way to concisely explain the flow of thought in the passage in a teaching or preaching setting. Explanation of the Text: Commentators examine words and images, grammatical details, relevant Old Testament and Jewish background to a particular concept, historical and cultural context, important text critical issues, and various interpretive issues that surface. Theology in Application: The theological message of the passage is summarized. The author discusses the theology of the text in terms of its place within the book and in a broader biblical theological context. Finally, each commentator provides some suggestions on what the message of the passage is for the church today. The Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament series is the go-to resource for pastors and Bible teachers looking for deep but accessible study that equips them to connect the needs of Christians today with the biblical text.
