Hannah Kim,1997 Personality Assessment in the DSM-5 Steven K. Huprich,Christopher J. Hopwood,2014-10-29 The DSM 5 promises to be a major reformulation of psychopathology and no section is likely to change diagnostic practice more than that of personality pathology Unlike the DSM IV the DSM 5 personality disorders will be conceptualized as involving core deficits in interpersonal and self functioning and will utilize a hybrid assessment model involving both pathological trait dimensions and a limited set of personality disorder types These changes are based on empirical and theoretical work conducted during the era of DSM III IV but nevertheless there is significant disagreement among personality assessors regarding the DSM 5 proposal In this volume several members of the DSM 5 work group offer rationales for the proposal and offer empirical evidence regarding suggested changes and several personality assessment researchers critique the proposal and offer alternative conceptualizations This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Personality Assessment Journal of the Royal Historical and Archaeological Association of Ireland Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland,1856 Index of archaeological papers published in 1891 under the direction of the Congress of Archaeological Societies in union with the Society of Antiquaries Experimental Vibration Analysis for Civil Engineering Structures Álvaro Cunha,Elsa Caetano,2025-09-23 This volume presents peer reviewed contributions from the 11th International Conference on Experimental Vibration Analysis for Civil Engineering Structures EVACES held in Porto Portugal on July 2 4 2025 The event brought together engineers scientists researchers and practitioners providing a forum for discussing and disseminating the latest developments and achievements in all major aspects of dynamic testing for civil engineering structures including instrumentation sources of excitation data analysis system identification monitoring and condition assessment in situ and laboratory experiments codes and standards and vibration mitigation The topics included but were not limited to damage identification and structural health monitoring testing sensing and modeling vibration isolation and control system and model identification coupled dynamical systems including human structure vehicle structure and soil structureinteraction and application of advanced techniques involving the Internet of Things robot UAV big data and artificial intelligence Proceedings of the 1985 Public Health Conference on Records and Statistics ,1986

Economics in the Post-Keynesian Era Ashwani Saith, 2022-11-11 This book chronicles the rise and especially the demise of diverse revolutionary heterodox traditions in Cambridge theoretical and applied economics investigating both the impact of internal pressures within the faculty as also the power of external ideological and political forces unleashed by the global dominance of neoliberalism Using fresh archival materials personal interviews and recollections this meticulously researched narrative constructs the untold story of the eclipse of these heterodox and post Keynesian intellectual traditions rooted and nurtured in Cambridge since the 1920s and the rise to power of orthodox mainstream economics Also expunged in this neoclassical counter revolution were the structural and radical policy oriented macro economic modelling teams of the iconic Department of Applied Economics along with the atrophy of sociology development and economic history from teaching and research in the self purifying faculty This book will be of particular interest to researchers in the history of economic thought sociology of knowledge political economy especially those engaged in heterodox and post Keynesian economics and to everyone wishing to make economics fit for purpose again for negotiating the multiple economic social and environmental crises rampant at national and global levels Policy Analysis in Spain Laura Chaqués-Bonafont, Jacint

Jordana, 2022-04-29 This book is the first systematic study of policy analysis activities in Spain It provides a comprehensive overview of how policy actors including politicians think tanks researchers interest groups and experts generate information for the policy making process The book explores how executive and legislative actors participate in the production of policy analysis and how all actors elaborate and disseminate information on policy analysis Contributors consider the ways different policy actors are involved in the production of data and information about policy problems the resources used to produce policy analysis and the type of analysis produced over time in different policy areas Fitness Costs and Benefits of Female Song Michelle L. Hall, Naomi E. Langmore, 2017-09-11 Bird song traditionally regarded as primarily a male trait is in fact widespread among female songbirds and was probably present in the ancestor of modern songbirds Odom et al 2014 Nature Communications These recent findings challenge the view that sexual dimorphism in the expression and complexity of song is largely the outcome of sexual selection on males It is now clear that understanding the evolution of bird song requires explaining variation within and among species in the expression and complexity of female song To do this we need a better understanding of the nature of variation in female song in different contexts and systems as well as the fitness costs and benefits of variation in the expression and complexity of female song This Research Topic draws together current research on female song with the goal of understanding the fitness costs and benefits of the diversity of female singing behaviour apparent among songbirds It includes articles ranging from single species studies investigating how female song varies with context and contrasts with male song to comparative analyses exploring relationships between female song and ecological social and other factors as well as opinion pieces Researching edTPA Promises and Problems Peter B.
