Golden,2024-12-11 This second collection of studies by Peter Golden continues his explorations of the T rk Empire mid sixth to mid eighth centuries the stateless polities that appeared after its collapse and of the Khazar Qaghanate mid seventh century to ca 965 969 its imperial successor state in the western Eurasian steppes Building on earlier traditions the T rks created a paradigm for state building in the Eurasian steppes that persisted with variations into the early modern era Examined here are issues relating to the origins of and myths associated with the rise of the T rks and the systems of governance in the T rk and subsequent Turkic polities of Eurasia The institution of slavery and its role in Turkic nomadic societies receives significant attention In addition these essays document the cultural interactions between the Turkic nomads of pre Chinggisid Eurasia and neighbouring settled societies such as the Kievan Rus Georgia and the Islamic world Included here are studies dealing with the hitherto neglected role of Khazars in the Islamic ghul m slave soldier system Special attention is paid to the unique traditions of sacral rulership among the Khazars and an examination of their conversion to Judaism set within a larger Eurasian context Studies in Diachronic, Synchronic, and Typological Linguistics Bela Brogyanyi,1979-01-01 This two volume collection of papers was brought together in honor of Oswald Szemer nyi on the occasion of his 65th birthday The volumes contain 70 papers most of which deal with Indo European historical linguistics The Turks in the Early Islamic World C. Edmund Bosworth,2017-05-15

This volume brings together a set of key articles along with a new introduction to contextualize them on the role of Turkish peoples in the Western Asiatic world up to the 11th century. Such topics as the geographical and environmental original milieux of these peoples in the forest zone and steppelands of Inner Asia, the formation and breakup of tribal confederations within the steppes and the evolution of tribal structures are examined as the background for the appearance of Turks within the Islamic caliphate from the 9th century onwards. These came first as military slaves then as movements of peoples such as the tribal migrations of the Oghuz leading to the establishment of the Seljuq sultanate whilst from within Islamic society individual Turkish commanders were able at the same time to build up their own military empires such as that of the Ghaznavids. In this way was put in place a Turkish dominance of the northern tier of the Middle East with attendant changes in demography and land utilisation which was to last for centuries.

Migration and Identity in Central Asia Rano Turaeva, 2015-11-19

This book is an ethnographic and sociolinguistic study of Uzbek migrants in the capital city of Uzbekistan. The ethnographic details of the book represent post-Soviet urban realities on the ground where various forms of belonging, clash and kinship ties are reinforced within social safety networks. Theoretically, it challenges the existing theories of identity and identification which often considered the relations between We and Them, taking the We for granted. The book offers in-depth insights into the communication strategies of migrants, the formation of collective consciousness and the relations within the We domain. Constructed around contradictions regarding Uzbek identity and how various groups relate to one another as different ethnic groups, the theoretical argument of the book is built through such methods and analytical tools as strategic rhetoric and discourse analysis, communication and identity theories and the analysis of power and dependence. The book will be of interest to students and scholars of Central Asian Studies, Migration Studies and Central Asian Culture and Society.

The Persian Empire Mehrdad Kia, 2016-06-27

This well-balanced reference on ancient Persia demonstrates the region's contributions to the growth and development of human civilization from the 7th century BCE through the fall of the Persian Sasanian Empire in 651 CE. Knowledge of ancient Persia is often gleaned from the writings of the ancient Greeks and Romans, two civilizations that viewed the Persians as enemies. This one-of-a-kind reference provides unbiased coverage of the cultural history of the Persian Empire, examining the Median, Achaemenid, Parthian, Kushan and Sasanian dynasties and tracing the development and maturation of Iranian societies during a period of nearly 1,500 years. As one of the most comprehensive studies on the topic, this historical overview explores the region's rich past while providing insight into the cultures and civilizations the Persians came to rule and influence. Using primary sources written and inscribed by the ancient Persians themselves, the encyclopedia studies the pre-Islamic civilizations of Iran in the Middle East, the Caucasus, Central Asia and the Indian subcontinent. Incorporating contributions from scholars who discuss the rise and fall of various Persian dynasties, the work offers some 180 entries that cover such topics as religion royal nobility the caste system and political assassinations The content offers perspectives from a variety of disciplines from anthropology to archaeology geography and art history among other areas Papers in Honour of Professor Mary Boyce II H.W.
