Marsoobian,2015-03-13 The Armenian world was shattered by the 1915 genocide Not only were thousands of lives lost but families were displaced and the narrative threads that connected them to their own past and homelands were forever severed Many have been left with only fragments of their family histories a story of survival passed on by a grandparent who made it through the cataclysm or if lucky an old photograph of a distant silent ancestor By contrast the Dildilian family chose to speak Two generations gave voice to their experience in lengthy written memoirs in diaries and letters and most unusually in photographs and drawings Their descendant Armen T Marsoobian uses all these resources to tell their story and in doing so brings to life the pivotal and often violent moments in Armenian and Ottoman history from the massacres of the late nineteenth century to the final expulsions in the 1920s during the Turkish War of Independence Unlike most Armenians the Dildilians were allowed to convert to Islam and stayed behind while their friends colleagues and other family members perished in the death marches of 1915 1916 Their remarkable story is one of survival against the overwhelming odds and survival in the face of peril Ararat ,2004 Unpopular Opinions Ara Baliozian,1998 Canadian Who's Who 2008 Elizabeth Lumley,2008-01-05 Now in its ninety eighth year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity Each entry details birth date and place education family career history memberships creative works honours and awards and full addresses Indispensable to researchers students media business government and schools Canadian Who s Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge The complete text of Canadian Who s Who is also available on CD ROM in a comprehensively indexed and fully searchable format Search astronaut or entrepreneur of the year aboriginal achievement award and Order of Canada and discover a wealth of information Fast easy and more accessible than ever the Canadian Who s Who on CD ROM is an essential addition to your electronic library International Books in Print ,1997 Canadian Slavonic Papers ,1988 Perseverance Lawrence Terzian,1990 The Greek Poetess and Other Writings Ara Baliozian,1988 Undiplomatic Observations Ara Baliozian,1995
