The Friar and the Maya Matthew Restall, Amara Solari, John F. Chuchiak, Traci Ardren, 2023-12-22 The Friar and the Maya offers a full study and new translation of the Relación de las Cosas de Yucatán Account of the Things of Yucatán by a unique set of eminent scholars created by them over more than a decade from the original manuscript held by the Real Academia de la Historia in Madrid. This critical and careful reading of the Account is long overdue in Maya studies and will forever change how this seminal text is understood and used. For generations scholars used and misused the Account as the sole eyewitness insight into an ancient civilization. It is credited to the sixteenth century Spanish Franciscan monastic inquisitor and bishop Diego de Landa whose legacy is complex and contested. His extensive writings on Maya culture and history were lost in the seventeenth century save for the fragment that is the Account discovered in the nineteenth century and accorded near biblical status in the twentieth as the first ethnography of the Maya. However the Account is not authored by Landa alone; it is a compilation of excerpts many from writings by other Spaniards. A significant revelation made here for the first time. This new translation accurately reflects the style and vocabulary of the original manuscript. It is augmented by a monograph comprising an introductory chapter seven essays and hundreds of notes that describes explains and analyzes the life and times of Diego de Landa the Account and the role it has played in the development of modern Maya studies. The Friar and the Maya is an innovative presentation on an important and previously misunderstood primary source.

Astronomers, Scribes, and Priests Gabrielle Vail, Christine L. Hernández, 2010 Astronomers, Scribes, and Priests examines evidence for cultural interchange among the intellectual powerbrokers in Postclassic Mesoamerica specifically those centered in the northern Maya lowlands and the central Mexican highlands. Contributors to the volume's thirteen chapters bring an interdisciplinary perspective to understanding the interactions that led to shared content in hieroglyphic codices and mural art. The authors address similarities in artifacts architectural styles and building alignments often produced in regions separated by hundreds of miles based on their analyses of iconographic archaeological linguistic and epigraphic material. The volume includes a wealth of new data and interpretive frameworks in this comprehensive discussion of a critical time period in the Mesoamerican past.

Painting the Skin Élodie Dupey García, María Luisa Vázquez de Ágredos Pascual, 2019-06-11 Mesoamerican communities past and present are characterized by their strong inclination toward color and their expert use of the natural environment to create dyes and paints. In pre

Hispanic times skin was among the preferred surfaces on which to apply coloring materials Archaeological research and historical and iconographic evidence show that in Mesoamerica the human body alive or dead received various treatments and procedures for coloring it Painting the Skin brings together exciting research on painted skins in Mesoamerica Chapters explore the materiality uses and cultural meanings of the colors applied to a multitude of skins including bodies codices made of hide and vegetal paper and even building skins Contributors offer physicochemical analysis and compare compositions manufactures and attached meanings of pigments and colorants across various social and symbolic contexts and registers They also compare these Mesoamerican colors with those used in other ancient cultures from both the Old and New Worlds This cross cultural perspective reveals crucial similarities and differences in the way cultures have painted on skins of all types Examining color in Mesoamerica broadens understandings of Native religious systems and world views Tracing the path of color use and meaning from pre Columbian times to the present allows for the study of the preparation meanings social uses and thousand year origins of the coloring materials used by today s Indigenous peoples Contributors Mar a Isabel lvarez Icaza Longoria Christine Andraud Bruno Giovanni Brunetti David Buti Davide Domenici Iodie Dupey Garc a Tatiana Falc n lvarez Anne Genachte Le Bail Fabrice Goubard Aymeric Histace Patricia Horcajada Campos Stephen Houston Olivia Kindl Bertrand Lav drine Linda R Manzanilla Naim Anne Michelin Costanza Miliani Virginia E Miller S lim Natahi Fabien Pottier Patricia Quintana Owen Franco D Rossi Antonio Sgamellotti Vera Tiesler Aur lie Tourni Mar a Luisa V zquez de gredos Pascual Cristina Vidal Lorenzo
