The Moral Psychology of Envy Sara Protasi, 2022-08-22 Envy is a vicious and shameful response to the good fortune of others one that ruins friendships and plagues societies or so the common thinking goes shaped by millennia of religious and cultural condemnation Envy's bad reputation is not completely unwarranted envy can indeed motivate malicious and counterproductive behavior and may strain or even tear apart relations between people However that is not always the case Investigating the complex nature of this emotion reveals that it plays important functions in social hierarchies and it can motivate one to self-improve and even to achieve moral virtue Philosophers and psychologists in this volume explore envy's characteristics in different cultures spanning from small hunter-gatherer communities to large industrialized countries to contexts as diverse as academia marketing artificial intelligence and Buddhism They explore envy's role in both the personal and the political sphere showing the many ways in which envy can either contribute or detract to our flourishing as individuals and as citizens of modern democracies

Feminisms and

Domesticity in Times of Crisis Jessica Martin, 2025-10-02 How can we make sense of intensifying gender inequalities amid the growing visibility of popular media driven feminism Can domestic cultures offer a space for feminist response and resistance to austerity Feminisms and Domesticity in Times of Crisis seeks to address these questions exploring how the revival of traditionally feminine domestic activities such as crafting baking and sewing exemplified by cultural figures such as the trad wife has coincided with the re politicisation and heightened visibility of domestic culture during an era of austerity Jessica Martin offers an in depth analysis of public figures who have forged austerity celebrity personas that blend domesticity with activism producing a popular but complex strand of neoliberal feminism Examining figures like Kirstie Allsopp Justine Roberts Jen Gale and anti austerity blogger and cook Jack Monroe Martin examines how each figure develops a distinct form of politicised domesticity Their responses span the political spectrum from Allsopp s promotion of the Big Society and conservative individualism to Roberts transformation of motherhood into parliamentary activism Martin also considers how this nostalgic turn to domesticity intensified during the COVID 19 crisis reinforcing narratives of white femininity patriotic stoicism and the so called British blitz spirit while helping to obscure the escalating inequalities of austerity era Britain Martin argues that the convergence of nostalgia and femininity has produced new discourses of performative thrift feminized labour and aspirational domesticity which are key resources for the justification of austerity policy
