Guiding Lights Bcs Lighthouses And Their Keepers:

Guiding Lights Lynn Tanod, Chris Jaksa, 1998 Canada's west coast has one of the most extensive networks of staffed lighthouses remaining anywhere in the world and the authors visit all the most significant sites ranging from the Carmanah Point light that watches over the hikers of the West Coast Trail on Vancouver Islands station Little Alcatraz which is just a tower rooted on a rock 50 kilometres west of Prince Rupert to the popular harbour lights of Vancouver and Victoria Jam packed with magnificent full colour photographs and firsthand accounts from lightkeepers on every part of the coast this spectacular book captures the romance and beauty of British Columbia's lighthouses Here are the lightkeepers own tragic inspiring humorous and eerie stories of life on the lights Guiding Lights is not only a lovely gift book but a moving tribute to the people who have lived and worked on the lights and a valuable portrait of what continues to be a proud maritime heritage

Guiding Lights Shona Riddell, 2020-10-01 Women have a long history of keeping the lights burning from tending ancient altar flames or bonfires to modern day lighthouse keeping Yet most of their stories are little known Guiding Lights includes true stories from around the world chronicling the lives of the extraordinary women who mind the world's storm battered towers From Hannah Sutton and her partner Grant the two caretakers living alone on Tasmania's wild Maatsuyker Island to Karen Zacharuk the keeper in charge of Cape Beale on Canada's Vancouver Island where bears cougars and wolves roam the lives of lighthouse women are not for the faint of heart Stunning photographs from throughout history accompany accounts of the dramatic torching of Puysegur Point one of NZ's most inhospitable lighthouses haunted lighthouses in across the US and their tragic tales lighthouse accidents and emergencies around the world and two of the world's most legendary lighthouse women Ida Lewis US and Grace Darling UK who risked their lives to save others The book also explores our dual perception of lighthouses are they comforting and romantic beacons symbolizing hope and trust or storm lashed and forbidding towers with echoes of lonely mad keepers Whatever our perception stories of women's courage and dedication in minding the lights then and now continue to capture our imagination and inspire

Guardians of the Lights Elinor De Wire, 2015-10-17 In a charming blend of history and human interest this book paints a colorful portrait of the lives of a vanished breed the lighthouse keepers from the year 1716 when the first lighthouse was established in America to the early 1980s when automation replaced the last human guardian of the light A wealth of material from the archives of the 19th and 20th centuries primarily letters diaries and newspaper accounts provides vivid stories about lighthouse keeping in this country the daily work coping with fog storms and other catastrophes legends and ghosts women's and families roles lighthouse children and pets the natural world around lighthouses and the diverse characters of those who held the job Lighthouse keeping was a unique occupation now obsolete and this book is a fitting tribute to these tough usually solitary and dedicated heroes who kept the lights burning every night without fail

Guiding Lights, Tragic Shadows Edward Butts, 2005 A peaceful lighthouse at Prescott Ontario was once the flashpoint of American invasion in an undeclared war

Robbers called Blackbirds preyed on Lake Erie shipping using false beacons to confuse their victims The lighthouse at Oswego New York was the site of one of the worst disasters in the history of the United States Coast Guard A Lake Huron lightkeeper wiped snow off the window of his lamp room and inadvertently caused a shipwreck A 14 year old Detroit River lightkeeper's daughter was the heroine in a courageous rescue Lighthouses from the Upper St Lawrence River to the head of Lake Superior have played an integral role in the history romance lore and legends of the Lakes The towers and their keepers bore witness to and participated in the dramas of war shipwrecks and daring rescues All while enduring the privations of one of the loneliest occupations on earth

My House Is a Lighthouse Christine Welldon, 2019-07-02 Can you imagine yourself as a light keeper Could you live full time on an isolated coast Your job is to keep a light shining out to sea guiding ships to land warning them of jagged shoreline and maybe even assisting with a rescue in the case of a shipwreck Even though there are 750 lighthouses across North America only 51 light keepers actively live and work in one in Canada and just 1 keeper remains in the United States In the newest installment of Nimbus's popular Compass series Christine Welldon takes readers past the postcard perfect image and depicts a day in the life of 11 modern light keepers From Cape Beale British Columbia to Puffin Island Newfoundland learn about the grit intelligence and quick thinking that helps keep our coastlines safe Expertly weaving the historical with the modern Welldon shows us how light keepers are still bound by an age old mission Keep the light shining Be ever watchful Help those in trouble on the sea Includes over 50 full colour photos illustrations and maps as well as a glossary index and historical timeline
