Guns hold a complex place in American culture Over 30 000 Americans die each year from gun violence and guns are intimately connected to issues of public health as is evident whenever a mass shooting occurs But guns also play an important role in many Americans lives that is not reducible to violence and death as tools sporting equipment and identity markers They are also central to debates about constitutional rights as seen in ongoing discussions about the Second Amendment and they are a continuous source of legislative concern as apparent in annual ratings of gun supporting legislators Even as guns are wrapped up with other crucial areas of concern they are also fundamentally a rhetorical concern Guns and gun violence occupy a unique rhetorical space in the United States one characterized by silent majorities like most gun owners vocal minorities like the firearm industry and gun lobby and a stalemate that fails to stem the flood of the dead How Americans talk deliberate and fight about guns is vital to how guns are marketed used and regulated A better understanding of the rhetorics of guns and gun violence can help Americans make better arguments about them in the world However where guns are concerned rhetorical studies is not terribly different from American culture more generally Guns are ever present and exercise powerful effects but they are commonly talked about in oblique unsystematic ways Rhetoric and Guns advances more direct systematic engagement in the field and beyond by analyzing rhetoric about guns guns in rhetoric and guns as rhetoric particularly as they relate to specific instances of guns in culture The authors attempt to understand rhetoric s relationship to guns by analyzing rhetoric about guns and how they function in and as rhetoric related to specific instances in media coverage political speech marketing and advertising Original chapters from scholars in rhetorical studies communication education and related fields elucidate how rhetoric is used to maintain and challenge the deadly status quo of gun violence in the United States and extend rhetoricians sustained interest in the fields relationships to violence brutality and atrocity Contributors Ira J Allen Brian Ballentine Matthew Boedy Peter Buck Lisa Corrigan Rosa Eberly Kendall Gerdes Ian E J Hill Nathalie Kuriowa Lewis Patricia Roberts Miller Craig Rood Bradley Serber Catherine R Squires Scott Gage
