Rhetoric and Guns Lydia Wilkes, Nate Kreuter, Ryan Skinnell, 2022-04-01 Guns hold a complex place in American culture Over 30 000 Americans die each year from gun violence and guns are intimately connected to issues of public health as is evident whenever a mass shooting occurs But guns also play an important role in many Americans lives that is not reducible to violence and death as tools sporting equipment and identity markers They are also central to debates about constitutional rights as seen in ongoing discussions about the Second Amendment and they are a continuous source of legislative concern as apparent in annual ratings of gun supporting legislators Even as guns are wrapped up with other crucial areas of concern they are also fundamentally a rhetorical concern Guns and gun violence occupy a unique rhetorical space in the United States one characterized by silent majorities like most gun owners vocal minorities like the firearm industry and gun lobby and a stalemate that fails to stem the flood of the dead How Americans talk deliberate and fight about guns is vital to how guns are marketed used and regulated A better understanding of the rhetorics of guns and gun violence can help Americans make better arguments about them in the world However where guns are concerned rhetorical studies is not terribly different from American culture more generally Guns are ever present and exercise powerful effects but they are commonly talked about in oblique unsystematic ways Rhetoric and Guns advances more direct systematic engagement in the field and beyond by analyzing rhetoric about guns guns in rhetoric and guns as rhetoric particularly as they relate to specific instances of guns in culture The authors attempt to understand rhetoric s relationship to guns by analyzing rhetoric about guns and how they function in and as rhetoric related to specific instances in media coverage political speech marketing and advertising Original chapters from scholars in rhetorical studies communication education and related fields elucidate how rhetoric is used to maintain and challenge the deadly status quo of gun violence in the United States and extend rhetoricians sustained interest in the fields relationships to violence brutality and atrocity Contributors Ira J Allen Brian Ballentine Matthew Boedy Peter Buck Lisa Corrigan Rosa Eberly Kendall Gerdes Ian E J Hill Nathalie Kuriowa Lewis Patricia Roberts Miller Craig Rood Bradley Serber Catherine R Squires Scott Gage

Frank Pranks Steve Collins, Alan Martin, Frank Magazine, 2000-11 Irreverent but never irrelevant Canada s satirical news magazine FRANK is on prominent display in this hilarious volume of FRANK Pranks during which FRANK operatives concoct a wildly implausible cover story dial up their hapless victims and set out to prove just how gullible certain Canadians really are The results range from the deliciously predictable Canadian Alliance stalwarts are apoplectic when told that Ottawa is secretly donating Zambonis to the fictitious

African country of Chapati to the surprisingly educational FRANK canvasses the cronies and former cabinet ministers of deposed Prime Minister Brian Mulroney for an Airbus defense fund and the total pledged is fifty dollars Here at last are the unexpurgated full length renderings of some of FRANK s most audacious revealing and heartless phone pranks featuring such notables as Pierre Berton Her Excellency Adrienne Clarkson Sheila Copps Allan Fotheringham Michael Moriarty Farley Mowat Rita McNeil Lloyd Robertson William Thorsell Ken Whyte Elwy Yost and most of the membership of the Reform Party Canadian Alliance

Relativism and Monadic Truth

Herman Cappelen,John Hawthorne,2009-01-15 Relativism has dominated many intellectual circles past and present but the twentieth century saw it banished to the fringes of mainstream analytic philosophy Of late however it is making something of a comeback within that loosely configured tradition a comeback that attempts to capitalize on some important ideas in foundational semantics Relativism and Monadic Truth aims not merely to combat analytic relativism but also to combat the foundational ideas in semantics that led to its revival Doing so requires a proper understanding of the significance of possible worlds semantics an examination of the relation between truth and the flow of time an account of putatively relevant data from attitude and speech act reporting and a careful treatment of various operators Throughout Herman Cappelen and John Hawthorne contrast relativism with a view according to which the contents of thought and talk are propositions that instantiate the fundamental monadic properties of truth simpliciter and falsity simpliciter Such propositions they argue are the semantic values of sentences relative to context the objects of illocutionary acts and unsurprisingly the objects of propositional attitudes
