Guide To South African References:

Guide to South African Reference Books Reuben Musiker, Naomi Musiker, 1997 Only a small proportion of the more than 1 100 entries have been retained from the earlier editions and supplements 1955 to 1983 more publications reflecting social and economic changes in South Africa have been included and the annotations are more extensive The main focus is on references such as dictionaries yearbooks and encyclopedias but handbooks manuals and histories are cited if no conventional references exist on the subject The selection is not limited to books published in South Africa The arrangement is by broad subject headings following the Dewey Decimal system The annotations are primarily descriptive but evaluations creep in now and again Distributed by Books International Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR     A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15     Colonialism in Africa 1870-1960: Volume 5, A Bibliographic Guide to Colonialism in Sub-Saharan Africa L. H. Gann, Peter Duignan, 1969 A comprehensive study of recent African history examining the political social and economic effects of colonialism     Guide to South African Reference Books Reuben Musiker, 1971     Reference Guide to Africa Alfred Kagan, Atoma Batoma, 2014-10-16 This third edition of the Reference Guide to Africa explains the most important resources for the study of the continent of Africa It contains a general sources section and a larger disciplinary oriented section All sources are annotated A new edition is sorely needed since the last edition was published nine years ago The previous editions have been successfully used in research libraries worldwide since 1999 and it has been used to teach several African studies research courses The book provides an orientation for researching almost any topic in the arts humanities and social sciences concerning the continent of Africa and all of its countries and ethnic groups The first part explains and lists portals databases bibliographies indexes guides encyclopedias country sources biography primary sources government publications and statistics The second part presents 16 subject oriented chapters mostly in the arts humanities and social sciences from agriculture and food security to women studies It covers sources that broadly cover the continent or in some cases only North Africa and the Middle East It generally excludes sources limited to one country or region of Africa except for North Africa because of the nature of the literature One third of the sources in this edition are new and nearly half of them are available in electronic format There are author title and subject indexes This unique work is intended for students teachers librarians and researchers It likely will be used most by reference librarians and teachers for students in high school through graduate studies It will also be used independently by undergraduate and graduate students It can be used to answer simple reference questions provide the resources for an undergraduate paper or for comprehensive work by advanced students and researchers     Reference Sources for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries Jack O'Gorman, 2014-02-25 Focusing on new reference sources published since 2008 and reference titles that have retained their relevance this new edition brings O Gorman's complete and authoritative guide to the best reference sources for small and medium sized academic and public libraries fully up to date     Guide to the study and use of
