Guide To The Blue Tongue Poems:

Guide to the Blue Tongue Virgil Suárez, 2002 Shimmering with saturated color and heat Guide to the Blue Tongue is an intoxicating sequence of memory poems about growing up in the tropics threaded through the myth of Caliban from Shakespeare's The Tempest Caliban is the monstrous native in love with what he cannot possess lost to his own sense of identity In Virgil Suárez's vision the island of Caliban's imprisonment merges with the island of Cuba where the carboneros make charcoal and sell it door to door by the pound young boxers crackle with caged energy dock workers spill like ants out of the bellies of ships and the rain falls in torrents on corrugated tin roofs On this island of fire the Marquis de Sade joins other historical figures to drink absinthe and J Edgar Hoover lingers over mojitos and a cigar at the Tropicana Night Club in Old Havana Hovering behind the hotel shutters or half concealed behind their masks the old poets and prophets Shakespeare Tiresias Pablo Neruda are waiting to speak their passions Out of this rich imaginative brew Suárez evokes the mythical and historical landscape of Cuba and distills the hollow deep thudded pangs of exile's rootlessness the immigrant's constant longing to be possessed by a sense of place Steeped in a seductive incantatory language of desire Guide to the Blue Tongue gives entry to a place of blue possibility and daily undoing where the sting of salt fresh air is compounded by the ache of displacement and loss Latino Literature Christina Soto van der Plas, Lacie Rae Buckwalter Cunningham, 2023-03-31

Eduardo R. del Río, 2022-04-12 Cuban American writers have been studied primarily within the context of Latino literature as a whole Seeing a need to distinguish and define this unique literary perspective Eduardo del Río selected twelve important well-known authors and conducted interviews He chose writers who were born in Cuba but have lived in the United States for a significant amount of time and whose works include themes he considers elemental to Cuban American literature identity duality memory and exile But rather than a cohesive homogeneous group these conversations unveiled a kaleidoscope of individuality style and motive The authors bonds to Cuba inform their creative work in vastly different ways and attempts to categorize their similarities only highlight the range of character and experience within this assemblage of talented writers From playwright Dolores Prida to author and literary critic Gustavo P rez Firmat these voices run the gamut of both genre and personality In addition to the essential facts of literary accomplishment the interviews include a wealth of insight into each writer s history motivations concerns and relationship to language These personal details serve to humanize and illuminate the unique circumstances and realities that have shaped both the authors and their work What del Rio has ultimately brought together is a series of intimate sketches that will not only serve as an important reference for any discussion of the literature but will also help readers to develop for themselves a sense of what Cuban American writing is and what it is not

Arts of a Cold Sun G. E. Murray,2010-10-01 In these poems G E Murray blends the colors of the soul with those of the world it brushes up against exploring the ways in which art both as possession and possessor informs perception Viewing his subjects sometimes from airplane altitude sometimes from the intimacy of a shared restaurant table Murray crafts true stories about color narratives of dislocation and belonging that invite readers to question their own relationship to art Included in this volume is a long sequential poem titled The Seconds which Murray composed across the second days of thirteen months The rhythms of this diary as poem seize the tensions of shifting times and locales capturing the essences of moments that are at once chosen and arbitrary Codes toward an Incidental City the sequence that closes the book is a confederacy of forty poems that delve into the concrete familiarities and mythologies of urban landscapes illuminating the ecstasies of city life

A Map of the Night David Wagoner,2010-10-01 David Wagoner s wide ranging poetry buzzes and swells with life Woods streams and fields fascinate him he happily admits his devotion to Thoreau but so do people and their habits dear friends and family the odd poet and strangers who become even stranger when looked at closely In this new collection Wagoner catches the mixed feelings of a long drive the sensations of walking against a current the difficulty of writing poetry with noisily amorous neighbors and many more uniquely familiar experiences

American Ghost Roses Kevin Stein,2010-10-01 In his first book as the poet laureate of Illinois Kevin Stein shoulders an array of poetic forms blending pathos humor and social commentary These poems ranging from meditative narratives to improvisational lyrics explore art s capacity to embody as well as express contemporary culture Stein embraces subjects as various as his father's death magazine sex surveys Kandinsky's theory of art the dangling modifier Jimi Hendrix's flaming guitar racial bigotry and a teacher's comments on a botched poem Presiding over this miscellany are ghosts of a peculiarly American garden of dreamers and beloved misfits those redeemed and those left fingering the locked gate Virgil Suarez Greatest Hits Virgil Suárez, 2003-03 Now Write! T. Smith, 2010-10-01 This is no fairy tale It's all fantastic and bizarre and true It's my life a raspy song that sounds better if you sing along The men and women who live and work near Opelika Alabama gather at the Hollow Log Lounge There under the watchful eye of the stuffed fox behind the bar they unload their gripes and worries tell their stories argue joke commune complain and confess In this collection of poems R T Smith paints a vividly imagined portrait of the community in this small town bar capturing the chorus of the patrons voices echoing off the knotted wood paneled walls Smith's stand in Sam Buckhannon scribbles stories heard and overheard as tongues loosened by liquor spin out monologues in which southern idiom and vernacular seem perfectly at home within the constraints of measured verse 90 Miles Virgil Suarez, 2020-02-24 Ninety miles separate Cuba and Key West Florida Crossing that distance thousands of Cubans have lost their lives For Cuban American poet Virgil Suarez that expanse of ocean represents the state of exile which he has imaginatively bridged in over two decades of compelling poetry Whatever isn't voiced in time drowns Suarez writes in River Fable and the urgency to articulate the complex yearnings of the displaced marks all the poems collected here 90 Miles contains the best work from Suarez's six previous collections You Come Singing, Garabato, In the Republic of Longing, Palm Crows, Banyan, and Guide to the Blue Tongue as well as important new poems. At once meditative, confessional, and political, Suarez's work displays the refracted nature of a life of exile spent in Cuba, Spain, and the United States. Connected through memory and desire, Caribbean palms wave over American junk mail, Cuban mangos rot on Miami hospital trays, William Shakespeare visits Havana. And the ones who left Cuba plant trees of reconciliation with the ones who stayed. Courageously prolific, Virgil Suarez is one of the most important Latino writers of his generation.

The Disappearing Trick Len Roberts, 2007-07-27 In The Disappearing Trick, Len Roberts wrestles with the loss of loved ones, whether that loss be through death, a son moving away to college, or simply how people fade from our lives and memories. Hybrids of the narrative and lyric form, these poems are models of indirect statement that have, as Sharon Olds has said, emotional courage, powerful music, and a deep balance. Like the light shining on a face or a girl's thigh back in a sixth grade class, the poems often come as Proustian flashes lasting just a second but seeming eternal amid an increasing darkness.

Descant, 2002 Sleeping with the Moon Colleen J. McElroy, 2024-03-18 PEN Oakland National Literary Award 2008 Colleen J. McElroy's poetry shoots for the moon and takes it in too in one way after another. The collection's award-winning poems animate women's experiences of sex, shopping, and dancing while offering telling insight into the struggles and silver lining of lust, love, illness, and aging. Rich with vivid imagery and candid storytelling, Sleeping with the Moon takes readers on moonlit adventures under the night sky through the barroom's smoky haze and under the covers. Beware, such delicate sights have driven more than one woman to despair; instead, she watched him breathe, relishing for a moment that secret space where night grows soft and the moon's detumescence forgives, and where, if this jeweled light holds, they might strip themselves of years if only for one night from In Praise of Older Women.

Battles & Lullabies Richard Michelson, 2006 In this poignant book of poetry, Michelson weaves together the past and present, seeing within his children his own difficult childhood, within current wars the burning memory of the Holocaust, and within himself the ghost of his father.

Cuban Studies 34 Lisandro Perez, Uva De Aragon, 2004-02-01 Cuban Studies has been published annually by the University of Pittsburgh Press since 1985. Founded in 1970, it is the preeminent journal for scholarly work on Cuba. Each volume includes articles in both English and Spanish, a large book review section, and an exhaustive compilation of recent works in the field.
