Guidelines For Stakeholders Participation In Strategic Environmental Management

Shannon K. Orr

Guidelines For Stakeholders Participation In Strategic Environmental Management:

Guidelines for Stakeholders United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, 2001
Environmental ministers take the lead in policy making but very little can be achieved without the involvement of key stakeholders This publication outlines the three key principles of Strategic Environmental Management having a long term view having a clear definition of the objectives and ensuring shared responsibility Next it looks at the importance of participation or involvement by stakeholders Whether they are individuals or institutions inside or outside government they are instrumental to achieve the overall environmental objectives This title provides useful tips for identifying who the key stakeholders are how to create stakeholder contact networks and how to present your proposed policy with an edge towards acceptance by using the media and other public forums to your advantage
