Guildford The Changing Face:

Guildford Stanley Newman,2002 Cardinal Hume and the Changing Face of English Catholicism Peter

Stanford,1999-01-01 After the persecutions that followed the Reformation the Catholic Church that re emerged in the 19th century was a defensive introspective one largely made up of working class immigrants and a handful of land owning families who kept the faith despite adversity It was viewed with some suspicion by the English Establishment as something foreign subversive to be held at arm s length But particularly after World War II a new generation of educated Catholics emerged outward looking questioning anxious to take their places in society Peter Standford argues that Basil Hume s appointment was a symbol of change His very Englishness has exorcised some of the nightmares in the national subconscious about the Catholic Church And in his struggles as a leader with a flock that is not as obedient as once it was the cardinal has redefined English Catholicism by blending its traditional theological conservatism with a liberal pastoral practice The Changing

Face of Britain from the Air Leslie Gardiner,1989

Gender and Labour in New Times Lisa Adkins,Maryanne

Dever,2018-02-02 This book is concerned with the gender order of post Fordism and especially the labour demanded from many women by post Fordist capitalism It maps and traces these demands as well their entanglement in complex processes of value creation In so doing the contributors elaborate how processes of financialization calls for work readiness new modes of economic calculation processes of economization and emergent regulatory strategies are reconfiguring labour and life in post Fordism and summoning new forms of women s work Contributors also map how these same processes are repositioning feminism especially feminism as a mode of critique Feminism here stands not in an external relation to the objects and matters it seeks to critique but as implicated in those very objects In mapping this terrain Gender and Labour in New Times opens out new feminist research agendas for the study of the post Fordist labour and the modes of regulation that post Fordism as a regime of capital accumulation entails This book was originally published as a special issue of Australian Feminist Studies Psychoanalysts, Psychologists and Psychiatrists Discuss Psychopathy and Human Evil Sheldon

Itzkowitz,Elizabeth Howell,2019-11-04 Evil along with its incarnation in human form the psychopath remains underexamined in the psychological and psychoanalytic literature Given current societal issues ranging from increasingly violent cultural divides to climate change it is imperative that the topics of psychopathy and human evil be thoughtfully explored The book brings together social scientists psychologists and psychoanalysts to discuss the psychology of psychopaths and the personal societal and cultural destruction they leave as their legacy Chapters address such questions as Who are psychopaths How do they think and operate What causes someone to commit psychopathic acts And are psychopaths born or created Psychopaths leave us shocked and bewildered by behavior that violates the notions of common human trust and bonding but not all psychopaths commit crimes Because of their unique proclivities to deceive seduce and dissemble they can hide in plain sight especially when intelligent and highly educated This latter group comprise the successful or corporate psychopaths

frequently found in boardrooms of corporations and among leaders of national movements or heads of state Addressing a wide range of topics including slavery genocide the Holocaust the individual as psychopath the mind of the terrorist sexual abuse the role of attachment and the neurobiology of psychopathy this book will appeal to researchers of human evil and psychopathy from a range of different disciplines and represents essential reading for psychotherapists and clinical psychologists

High Street David Rudlin,Vicky Payne, Lucy Montague,2023-07-07 The high street is in crisis How did we get here and what happens next The global pandemic has made the crisis immeasurably worse but it wasn't the cause The crisis was already raging in 2019 with thousands of store closures Large retailers became complacent and failed to respond to changing consumer behaviour Town centres are the victims of these changes rather than the cause of them To understand the current crisis and how it might be addressed this book takes a long view of retailing based on a hundred case studies It looks at the way town centres responded to previous crises and explores current trends affecting town centres and how places are responding The message is optimistic adaptable town centres can once more become the diverse characterful independent places that existed before they were homogenised by big retail Explore the past understand the present find a better future

The Rhythm of Modernization: How Values Change over Time Raúl Tormos,2019-11-04 In The Rhythm of Modernization Raúl Tormos analyses the pace at which belief systems change across the developed world during the modernization process It is often assumed that value change follows the slow rhythm of generational replacement This book however reports trends that contradict this assumption in the field of values Challenging Inglehart's modernization theory the transition from traditional to modern values happens much quicker than predicted Many baby boomers who were church going morally conservative materialists when they were young become unchurched and morally tolerant postmaterialists in their later years Using surveys from multiple countries over many years and applying cutting edge statistical techniques this book shows how citizens quickly adapt their belief systems to new circumstances throughout their lives

Shame Punishment Thom Brooks,2019-10-28 Shame punishment has existed for perhaps as long as people have been punished and the issue has been revisited in recent years to help improve crime reduction efforts In this collection shame punishment is examined from various critical perspectives including its relation with expressivism the diversity of shame punishment used today the link between shame punishment and restorative justice the relationship between dignity and shame punishment shame punishment and its use for sex offenders and critics of shame punishment in its different incarnations The selected essays are from leading experts and represent the most important contributions to scholarly research in the field

Equipping Young People to Choose Non-violence Gerry Heery,2011-10-01 This 12 session photocopiable programme is designed to help young people aged 10 to reduce their violent and aggressive behaviour Grounded in restorative justice principles it encourages them to take responsibility for their behaviour helps them recognize the effects of their actions and teaches them conflict resolution skills

Montalvo, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2003 With the increasing use of GIS in industrialised and developing countries the availability of spatial data has become an issue that affects many public and private sector organisations They are faced with the high cost and substantial effort involved in the generation of spatial data and so the sharing of this data is increasingly being seen as a way of overcoming expense and easing availability and access But this can provide a way of using GIS effectively only if the key players involved in the use and supply of spatial data are willing to share This book employs a theory from social psychology as an organising framework to systematize the determinants of organisations spatial data sharing behaviour It develops a model which explains the likely willingness of key individuals within organisations to engage in spatial data exchanges across organisational boundaries and then tests this on a survey based in South Africa

Structural Dynamics of HIV Deanna Kerrigan, Clare Barrington, 2017-09-30 This book examines the structural dynamics of HIV among populations at heightened vulnerability to infection as the result of stigma discrimination and marginalization It first examines how the socio structural context shapes HIV risk and how affected populations and national governments and programs have responded to these structural constraints Chapters focus on structural determinants of HIV risk among transgender women in Guatemala migrant workers in Mexico Nigeria and Vietnam and people who inject drugs in Tanzania Next the book examines resilience and community empowerment and mobilization among key populations such as female sex workers in the Dominican Republic and India and young women and girls in Botswana Malawi and Mozambique A third set of chapters explores how national responses to HIV have addressed the role of structural factors in diverse political geographic and epidemic settings including Brazil South Africa Ukraine and the USA Ultimately effective and sustainable responses to HIV among marginalized groups must be grounded in an in depth understanding of the factors that create vulnerability and risk and impede access to services Throughout this book brings together a rigorous social science research perspective with a strong rights based approach to inform improvements in HIV programs and policies It offers new insights into how to better address HIV and the health and human rights of historically excluded communities and groups

Evangelical and African Pentecostal Unity Hugh Osgood,2024-04-18 As the millennium approached the number of independent African Pentecostal churches in Britain increased rapidly Having assimilated classical Pentecostalism and the charismatic movement and having begun to find ways of working with the Caribbean Pentecostal denominations it remained to be seen how UK evangelicalism would fare with African Pentecostals This book looks at the intricacies of the relationship at a time that provided ample opportunities to weigh the benefits and challenges of integration from every possible angle
