Something We Have That They Don't Steve & Mark Clark & Ford, Steven H. Clark, 2004-04 There is some connexion I like the way the English spell it They re so clever about some things Probably smarter generally than we are Although there is supposed to be something We have that they don t don t ask me What it is John Ashbery Tenth Symphony Something We Have That They Don t presents a variety of essays on the relationship between British and American poetry since 1925 The essays collected here all explore some aspect of the rich and complex history of Anglo American poetic relations of the last seventy years Since the dawn of Modernism poets either side of the Atlantic have frequently inspired each other s developments from Frost s galvanizing advice to Edward Thomas to rearrange his prose as verse to Eliot s and Auden s enormous influence on the poetry of their adopted nations whichever Auden is Eliot once replied when asked if he were a British or an American poet I suppose I must be the other from the impact of Charles Olson and other Black Mountain poets on J H Prynne and the Cambridge School to the widespread influence of Frank O Hara and Robert Lowell on a diverse range of contemporary British poets Clark and Ford s study aims to chart some of the currents of these ever shifting relations Poets discussed in these essays include John Ashbery W H Auden Elizabeth Bishop T S Eliot Mark Ford Robert Graves Thom Gunn Lee Harwood Geoffrey Hill Michael Hofmann Susan Howe Robert Lowell and W B Yeats Poetry and sovereignty Philip Larkin remarked in an interview of 1982 are very primitive things these essays consider the ways in which even seemingly very unprimitive poetries can be seen as reflecting and engaging with issues of national sovereignty and self interest and in the process they pose a series of fascinating questions about the national narratives that currently dominate definitions of the British and American poetic traditions This innovative and exciting new collection will be of great interest to students and scholars of British and American poetry and comparative literature

Archaeologia Cambrensis, 1919 Beyond Discontent Eckart Goebel, 2012-04-26 According to Freud's later works we do not really feel well or free within civilization Our discontent never disappears and we shall never become completely reliable members of society Alcohol already suffices Freud tells us to ruin the fragile architecture of sublimations Since Beyond the Pleasure Principle sublimation seems to be nothing more than a euphemism for suppressing the drives We sublimate because we did not get or were not allowed to have what we actually wanted Is sublimation a mere surrogate or perhaps even the name psychoanalysis found for theoria in the twentieth century With Freud as its pivot Goebel provides an intellectual history of sublimation which also serves as an introduction to other key ideas associated with the authors discussed such as Schopenhauer's philosophy of music the will to power in Nietzsche the structure of Freudian psychoanalysis Adorno's concept of modern art or Lacanian ethics In examining both its prehistory and reception Goebel argues that sublimation can be reconsidered as the road toward an individual and social life beyond discontent
