The Arabic Classroom Mbaye Lo, 2019-04-12

The Arabic Classroom is a multicontributor work for trainee and in service teachers of Arabic as a foreign language. Collected here is recent scholarly work and also critical writing from Arabic instructors, Arabists and language experts to examine the status of the teaching and learning of Arabic in the modern classroom. The book stresses the inseparability of the parameters of contexts, texts and learners in the effective Arabic classroom and investigates their role in enhancing the experience of teaching and learning Arabic. The book also provides a regional perspective through global case studies and encourages Arabic experts to search for better models of instruction and best practices beyond the American experience.

Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language Andrea Facchin, 2025-10-01 Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language concentrates on the origins, developments and current directions of the discipline Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language (TAFL) within the Arab world and partially outside of it during the last 60 years, namely between 1958 and 2018. Considered in this volume are the most influential scholars, authors, educators and those significant works that have contributed to the development of the discipline. In addition, special attention is paid to the TAFL institutes regarded as epicenters of TAFL activities and important meetings that allow scholars to gather around the same table and discuss approaches, trends and methods used in the field. All of these aspects converge in one comprehensive study which is enriched by a narration of the main sociopolitical changes that have affected the Middle East in latter day history.

Arabiyyat al-Naas (Part One) Munther Younes, Makda G.

Weatherspoon, Maha Saliba Foster, 2017-07-14 Arabiyyat al Naas Part One offers a groundbreaking introduction to Arabic as it is written and spoken by native speakers. It combines a progressive and rigorous grounding in Modern Standard Arabic (MSA), the form employed for reading, writing and formal speaking, with an innovative integration of the spoken Levantine variety used in everyday situations in Syria, Lebanon, Jordan and Palestine. Introducing the two simultaneously, Arabiyyat al Naas Part One uses each in its proper context: Levantine for conversations and MSA for reading and writing activities. In this way, the course efficiently prepares students for the practical realities of learning and living Arabic today. Features include 21 theme-based units covering all the core topics expected in a first-year Arabic course, such as countries, clothes, colors, family and professions; a broad range of stimulating activities and exercises fostering active engagement with the course and the development of comprehension and communication skills; comprehensively covers the 5 Cs: communication, culture, connections, comparisons and communities; free downloadable resources filmed on location in Jordan, presenting over 40 videos and incorporating a wide variety of entertaining and realistic scenarios; a free companion website www.routledge.com/cw/younes offering a wealth of additional instructor and student resources, including a teacher's guide, an introduction to the letters and sounds of Arabic with audiovisual aid and writing demonstrations, audio recordings of songs and listening passages, video clips, sample tests, an answer key and language games; clear explanations of grammatical structures and concepts as they occur in the reading and listening materials to encourage progressive learning and active interaction with
