Ethical Dilemmas In Jewish Communal Service:

Ethical Dilemmas in Jewish Communal Service Norman Linzer, 1996      Resolving Ethical Dilemmas in Jewish Communal Service, 1986 It is now self evident that ethical dilemmas cannot be resolved in a professional manner without a theoretical perspective It is in the integration of the theory with the practice that professionals in Jewish communal service could be helped to deal with the ethical dilemmas that they frequently encounter      Journal of Jewish Communal Service, 1986 Beginning with 1931 Sept issue includes Proceedings of the annual sessions of the conference      Ethical Dilemmas in the Jewish Community Center, 1987 The Center is indeed universal in its acceptance of differences and while it is integrating and unifying it does not undermine its philosophy by allowing for separation an all Orthodox unit in the day camp which encourages the continuation and reinforcement of those differences and this is by definition the loftiest level of the concept of acceptance of difference Editor s Note This article was originally published in the Fall 1987 issue and is reprinted here with corrections due to production errors in the original publication      A Portrait of the American Jewish Community Norman Linzer, David J. Schnall, Jerome A. Chanes, 1998-05-30 This comprehensive look at the Jewish American community at the turn of the 21st century explores the many issues emERICAN Jews and their organizations are confronting and shows how the Jewish community responds so as to remain a distinct entity while also becoming a part of the larger American culture The contributors investigate the complex issues facing the American Jewish community in 12 areas that are at the heart of the Jewish communal enterprise This work will be of interest to students and scholars of Jewish studies and interfaith studies to professionals in social work and social services and to anyone interested in American communal dynamics      Ethical Issues in Social Work Practice Sandu, Antonio, Frunza, Ana, 2017-12-15 Today s practitioners and researchers are looking now more than ever at the ethical issues that are raised through the practice of social work and social services As such it is crucial that they are up to date on the latest data on how to address manage and overcome ethical issues in their practice Ethical Issues in Social Work Practice is a pivotal reference source for the latest research on the role of moral values within social work and the ethical dilemmas that arise in the profession Highlighting extensive coverage among a variety of applicable perspectives and themes such as governing principles of social work practice ethical analysis of social work cases and individual and social responsibility in social services this book is ideally designed for professionals and researchers working in the field of social work and social services as well as academics and upper level students seeking cutting edge research on ethics in the practice of social work      Social Work in Health and Mental Health Tuula Heinonen, Anna Metteri, 2005 Social Work in Health and Mental Health Issues Developments and Actions was created for final year undergraduate and master s level students in the health and mental health fields It is primarily a book on social work practice discussing how one might approach a specific health or mental health related problem or issue as a social worker Health and mental health are conceptualized broadly in this volume The health and well being of body and mind are seen as integrally connected shaped by biological physics psychological material social and structural features and determinants Clients are viewed as active engaged agents with strengths and resources from which to draw in meeting everyday challenges and major life crises Contributions form around the world allow the social work student to learn about current practice in places as diverse as Australia Finland China South Africa Wales Canada and the United States Each chapter is accompanied by both reflection questions and a case study derived from practice and written to stimulate discussion that develops assessment and treatment planning skills Clinical Social Work Helen Northen,1995 This revised edition of a classic text provides a comprehensive guide to contemporary clinical social work and to ways of integrating the complex needs of individuals families and groups Northen presents skills for working with diverse populations and discusses the impact of contemporary social problems including AIDS homelessness and family violence FREE INSTRUCTOR S MANUAL

Contemporary Civilizations Guy Ankerl,2000 Some important questions are discussed in this book Are there any civilisations other than the Western one living in our so called Global Age Eastern civilisation Is the concept of East anything more than non West Or does there exist in reality a distinct Chinese Indian Arabo Muslim and Western civilisation Is the construction of large civilisation states such as China and India an unparalleled historical achievement Do economic ties always eclipse other forms of affiliation such as those formed through kinship or between speech communities What is the role of the Latin and the Jewish Peoples in our Anglo American led Western world Is English today the global language or merely an international one Is the Chinese thought pattern closely related to its writing system Is today s world one of symmetrical interdependence Or rather one of hegemony If the so called North South or East West dialogue fails in constructing a universally accepted world civilisation then what is the appropriate arrangement for reaching such a consensus within humankind Sh'ma ,2006 University of Michigan Official Publication University of Michigan,1992 Each number is the catalogue of a specific school or college of the University Jewish Elderly in the English-Speaking Countries David Guttmann,1989-06-23 Jewish elderly are among the most diverse and culturally heterogeneous people belonging to the aged population anywhere Their great diversity and conflicting approaches to subjects affecting their health and well being are familiar problems in services development in social policy and in services delivery At the same time this diversity is a source of fascination for practitioners policy makers leaders of religious and secular institutions and scholars in gerontology and ethnicity Ideas about serving the needs of this segment of society are eagerly sought by both the lay and the professional communities This is the first annotated bibliography to deal with the approximately one million Jewish elderly in the English speaking countries and Israel and it offers the reader an up to date survey of published material Covering the latest findings from gerontological research the book addresses outstanding issues in health and welfare mental health and support systems utilization and provides a comprehensive treatment of the characteristics traditions customs languages organization and historical backgrounds relating to the Jewish aged Jewish Elderly in the English Speaking Countries encompasses many of the aspects of living in different cultural environments and identifies a wealth of information on demographics immigration and settlement out migration and relocation adjustment to changing environments political participation attitudes and values and methods of intervention on behalf of Jewish aged This exhaustive study will be immensely useful to gerontologists engaged in cross cultural research and it will serve as a valuable guide to Jewish religious and charity leaders senior citizen community centers sociologists anthropologists and practitioners in all areas of human development

Ethical Issues in Cardiovascular Medicine David M. Zientek, Mark J. Cherry, 2021-11-29 This book provides an exploration of the ethics of cardiology practice It provides a variety of frameworks for analyzing ethical issues that arise in cardiovascular medicine Cardiovascular medicine the diagnosis and treatment of congenital and acquired diseases of the heart major arteries and veins has seen rapid change in diagnosis treatment and the organization of practice in the last half of the twentieth and the beginning of the twenty first century The complexity of these developments has resulted in increasing subspecialization and many practitioners are challenged to stay abreast with the latest developments in cardiology These changes also bring with them various ethical challenges The chapters in this volume are divided by five broad areas of practice beginning of life end of life transplantation and allocation of expensive or scarce resources professionalism and research The case based approach presented across the volume provides a perspective that will allow readers to reason through current and future ethical issues as they arise in this rapidly changing field Ethical Issues in Cardiovascular Medicine will be of interest to researchers working in bioethics clinical ethics and the philosophy of medicine as well as practicing physicians nurses and students who work in cardiovascular medicine

The Jewish Social Service Quarterly, 1996 Beginning with 1931 the Sept issue consists of the Proceedings of the conference

Social Work & the Courts Daniel Pollack, Toby G. Kleinmam, 2021-12-12 Social Work and the Courts is a compendium of the most recent and important legal cases in social work and social welfare Its dissection and analysis of crucial cases makes it an excellent tool for teaching social workers to understand the legal system and its operation The book demonstrates how courts view and deal with the performance action and conduct of social workers and their agencies This second edition includes more case studies paying particular attention to recent cases on foster care and child welfare In addition a new section on References and Further Readings has been added to the end of each chapter along with an update bibliography and Internet bibliography so that readers may easily find supplementary information

The Privatization of Human Services Harold W. Demone, Margaret Gibelman, 2013-11-09 No reader of professional journals agency reports or the daily press needs to be told that Professors Gibelman and Demone have assembled a volume of contributions to a very lively debate The two words highlighted privatization and contracting sum up the prescriptions of many for social service reform and the anxieties of others who question the new strategies The pace and scale of developments over the past 2 decades sometimes allows us to forget that the subject has a long history Privatization may be thought of as involving public turnover to the private sector of responsibility for services it has been delivering Or it may be the public sector arranging for the private sector to take on new services that the public wishes to encourage or for which it accepts responsibility The transaction usually involves public funds The historical story however is not one of public temporal primacy Health planning reports subject index United States. Health Resources Administration,1979 Resolving Ethical Dilemmas in the Jewish Community Center ,1987 The Center s pluralistic stance veers it away from a one dimensional doctrinal observance of Jewish law toward a more inclusive centrist position Conflict is thus inevitable among diverse value systems that comprise the constituencies served
