Ethical Issues Western Philosophical And Religious Perspectives:

Ethical Issues Terrence Paul Reynolds, 2005 This book is the rare contemporary moral problems anthology that privileges depth over breadth Containing readings on moral theory and practice from a collection of today's most important thinkers and drawing on philosophical and religious perspectives it offers important divergent viewpoints on some of today's most hotly contested issues An introductory chapter on moral theory lays the foundation for subsequent in depth explorations of sexual ethics abortion the conduct of war euthanasia and suicide environmental ethics capital punishment and human cloning

The Tragedy of Common Sense John P. Clark, 2016-08-01 Introduction by Salvatore Engel Di Mauro Foreword by Ariel Salleh This book takes as its object of critique one of the best known and most influential arguments in contemporary applied ethics which is biologist Garrett Hardin's case for lifeboat ethics John Clark analyzes the moral dimensions of world hunger foreign aid immigration policy and population growth Clark critiques the lifeboat ethics as a way to explore in depth both the common and the commons It is about the truth we hold in common and about certain falsehoods that we hold in common This book also contains Garrett Hardin's 1974 essay Living on a Lifeboat Ethical Perspectives on Environmental Issues in India George Alfred James, 1999 The Essays In This Volume Are Of Interest Not Only To Readers Concerned With Indian Environmental Issues But Also To Persons Concerned With Environmental Issues Around The World Reinhold Niebuhr's Paradox Daniel Malotky, 2011-12-16 Confronted with the uncertainties of living in a modern liberal society many are tempted toward moral paralysis a hesitation to judge or act on those judgments Reinhold Niebuhr's paradoxical conception of the self allows for a deeper interpretation of this plight and in this insightful book Daniel Malotky shows that Niebuhr's work holds out a potential solution to it a framework for a measure of moral certainty without ideological blindness The paradox of freedom and finitude demands that though endeavors to reach a meaningful totality will always be limited in some fashion grasping this totality must still be attempted Using Niebuhr's thought as a guide Malotky conceives of a framework that provides the parameters of justification as defined by the pragmatists while also opening the door to the critical appropriation of the moral wealth of Christian tradition Malotky follows Niebuhr's example in a defense of the traditional Christian concepts of sin love and grace He engages in immanent criticism shaping a response to the violently disposed focusing on the issue of gun violence in particular and defining what our own attitude should be to the use of force Readers will be engaged by the way this this concise book models a properly Christian pragmatism on questions of violence

Varieties of Ethical Reflection Michael Barnhart, 2002-01-01 Varieties of Ethical Reflection brings together new cultural and religious perspectives drawn from non Western primarily Asian philosophical sources to globalize the contemporary discussion of theoretical and applied ethics The work pushes ethics beyond a Western philosophical tradition tending toward universalism to infuse and broaden modern ethical theory with relativistic Asian ethical principles The contributors introduce multicultural concepts and ideas from the Chinese Taoist Confucian and Neo Confucian Indian and

East Asian Buddhist and Hindu traditions focusing on such areas of moral controversy as the clash between women's rights and culture universal human rights abortion and euthanasia in a non Western setting and the standardization of medical practice across cultures

Business Ethics in the Middle East Yusuf Sidani, 2018-06-12 Business Ethics in the Middle East fills a crucial gap in the Middle East educational landscape Written in an easy and accessible format this book covers the foundations of business ethics by drawing from both Eastern and Western traditions The chapters include many examples case studies activities and illustrations that are customized to the Middle Eastern market yet relevant to readers outside of the Middle East who want thorough insights about business behaviour in the region A special module introduces the Arab Middle Eastern context that non Arab readers will find valuable The author addresses topics related to organizational culture leadership CSR corporate governance marketing HR accounting finance and production This is accomplished with a deep attention to the cultural and contextual elements of the Middle East Special attention is given to religious business ethics while still deeply engaging the vast heritage of Western ethical systems This combination is essential for the development of a comprehensive approach to the topic of business ethics This textbook will be essential reading for students of business ethics in the Middle East and will also be valuable for students and researchers across business ethics Islamic Studies religion and philosophy

Religious Perspectives on Bioethics and Human Rights Joseph Tham, Kai Man Kwan, Alberto Garcia, 2017-09-06 This book deals with the thorny issue of human rights in different cultures and religions especially in the light of bioethical issues In this book experts from Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism Daoism Hinduism and Confucianism discuss the tension between their religious traditions and the claim of universality of human rights The East West contrast is particularly evident with regards to human rights Some writers find the human rights language too individualistic and it is foreign to major religions where the self does not exist in isolation but is normally immersed in a web of relations and duties towards family friends religion community and society Is the human rights discourse a predominantly Western liberal ideal which in bioethics is translated to mean autonomy and free choice In today's democratic societies laws have been drafted to protect individuals and communities against slavery discrimination torture or genocide Yet it appears unclear at what moment universal rights supersede respect for cultural diversity and pluralism This collection of articles demonstrates a rich spectrum of positions among different religions as they confront the ever more pressing issues of bioethics and human rights in the modern world This book is intended for those interested in the contemporary debates on religious ethics human rights bioethics cultural diversity and multiculturalism

A Bibliographic Guide to the Comparative Study of Ethics John Braisted Carman, Mark Juergensmeyer, William Darrow, 1991-04-26 This bibliography is the culmination of four years work by a team of noted scholars its annotated entries are organised by religious tradition and cover each tradition's central concepts offering a judicious selection of primary and secondary works as well as recommendations of cross cultural topics to be explored Specialists in the history and literature of religions and comparative religion will find this bibliography a valuable research tool Essentials of Teaching and Learning in Nursing Ethics Anne Davis, Verena Tschudin, Louise Tew, 2006-02-24 This title is directed primarily towards health care professionals outside of the United States This book aims to fill a gap with an in depth exploration of nursing ethics content from the western philosophical tradition and some of the methods used in teaching this content It addresses cross cultural issues in using specific ethics content It also reveals the poverty of the present dualism model in nursing ethics and replace this with a more complex and more useful model that invites debate Its scope is both wide and deep but that is needed to enrich the basis for teaching nursing ethics Outlines and critiques all current ethical theories and considers their application to nursing practice Explores ethical issues in numerous cultures Includes case studies drawn from a range of countries Written by leading nurse educators and philosophers in the field
