Ethical Responsibility Som 203:

Ethical Responsibility Pierre Du Jardin, 2001 The Feminist Care Tradition in Animal Ethics Josephine Donovan, Carol J. Adams, 2007 In Beyond Animal Rights Josephine Donovan and Carol J Adams introduced feminist ethic of care theory into philosophical discussions of the treatment of animals In this new volume seven essays from Beyond Animal Rights are joined by nine new articles most of which were written in response to that book and a new introduction that situates feminist animal care theory within feminist theory and the larger debate over animal rights Contributors critique theorists reliance on natural rights doctrine and utilitarianism which they suggest have a masculine bias They argue for ethical attentiveness and sympathy in our relationships with animals and propose a link between the continuing subjugation of women and the human domination of nature Beginning with the earliest articulation of the idea in the mid 1980s and continuing to the theory's most recent revisions this volume presents the most complete portrait of the evolution of the feminist care tradition

Christian Ethics Isma'il Ragi A. al Faruqi, 1967-01-01 Human-Computer Interaction - INTERACT 2009 Tom Gross, Jan Gulliksen, Paula Kotzé, Lars Oestreicher, Philippe Palanque, Raquel Oliveira Prates, Marco Winckler, 2009-08-18 INTERACT 2009 was the 12th of a series of INTERACT international conferences supported by the IFIP Technical Committee 13 on Human Computer Interaction This year INTERACT was held in Uppsala Sweden organized by the Swedish Interdisciplinary Interest Group for Human Computer Interaction STIMDI in cooperation with the Department of Information Technology at Uppsala University Like its predecessors INTERACT 2009 highlighted both to the academic and to the industrial world the importance of the human computer interaction HCI area and its most recent breakthroughs on current applications Both experienced HCI researchers and professionals as well as newcomers to the HCI field interested in designing or evaluating interactive software developing new interaction technologies or investigating overarching theories of HCI found in INTERACT 2009 a great forum for communication with people of similar interests to encourage collaboration and to learn INTERACT 2009 had Research and Practice as its special theme The reason we selected this theme is that the research within the field has drifted away from the practical applicability of its results and that the HCI practice has come to disregard the knowledge and development within the academic community

The Polity of Christ Ulrik Nissen, 2020-04-16 Ulrik Nissen addresses the difficulty that contemporary theology faces in trying to find a way to maintain both all the shared goods we cherish as political beings and the call for Christians to be a particular people in the world and bear witness to Christ Nissen stresses that Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christological ethics allows for a polemical unity between the reality of the world and the reality of God reconciled in the reality of Christ Based on a series of case studies that provide a point of departure for a robust reshaping of Christian humanism and responsibility Nissen reads Bonhoeffer's ethics in the light of both his Lutheran heritage and contemporary challenges highlighting the importance of his thought for political theology By demonstrating the significant influence of Lutheran and Chalcedonian Christology in contemporary ethics Nissen provides a robust argument for a love of the common reality we share as human beings and a call for Christians to bear witness to Christ in the public world Changing Sustainability Norms through Communication Processes Karin Buhmann, 2017-12-29 This book traces the development of the Business Human Rights BHR regime that has so far culminated with the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights It first surveys the argumentation and negotiation strategies that led to agreement on key elements of the BHR regime despite a range of conflicting interests across stakeholders from public private and not for profit organisations It then maps out pro active regulatory strategies and public private regulation for promoting responsible business conduct offering insights for civil society public regulators business managers academics and others The book will assist engaged parties in structuring their arguments within negotiation processes with a view to enhancing their influence on change in business organisations in support of sustainability and new norms of conduct can be treated prevented The following topics are highlighted the nature and cause of sleep insomnia or wakefulness remedies for insomnia treatment of insomnia in particular diseases dreams somnambulism and artificial somnambulism or hypnotism PsycINFO Database Record c 2005 APA all rights reserved Fair Trade and the Citizen-Consumer K. Index-catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon-General's Office, United States Army Library of the Surgeon-General's Office (U.S.),1900 Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science ,1921 Calling Bodies in Lived Spaces Kaia Dorothea Mellbye Schultz Rønsdal,2018-08-13 Kaia R nsdal combines the perspective of production of space ethical theory and fieldwork focusing on the contradictions in lived space by observing encounters and interactions between different groups of people in everyday public space It is an interdisciplinary contribution to the science of diaconia The interest lies with the lives that diaconia traditionally have been concerned with and the spaces where these lives are lived exploring the concept of calling through narratives of these lives and spaces The book challenges and contributes to traditional and contemporary notions of calling as it is understood in the Scandinavian tradition These notions stemming from interpretations of Luther place the calling among humans as opposed to it being something exclusively divine and ecclesiastical The discussion on the calling is enriched with concepts stemming from French sociology and human geography primarily from H Lefebvre and M Foucault as well as phenomenological contributions These are concerned with the significance of body space urbanity and spatial interpretation as space is a relational formative phenomenon constituted in practice and interaction Through methodologies developed from phenomenology and spatial theory where the researcher subject is an evident embodied participant detailed accounts from the field form the material describing everyday life in an Oslo cityscape From this material the concept of calling is explored developing the discussion from the perspective of the spaces of others The assumption being that it is in the spaces where people meet and bodies respond to other bodies whether marginalised or not that calling may manifest itself Through spatial analysis of the minute details of bodies and socialities in everyday life new material for ethical considerations is explored The analysis and discussion may enrich and further deepen the understanding of what takes place in public spaces recognising them as a source of knowledge in a range of disciplines These everyday encounters may also be described and analysed as contributions to the development of theory and praxis of diaconia
