Pirson, Ernst Von Kimakowitz, 2016-01-20 Cultures and moral expectations differ around the globe and so the management of corporate responsibilities has become increasingly complex Is there however a humanistic consensus that can bridge cultural and ethnic divides and reconcile the diverse and contrary interests of stakeholders world wide This book seeks to answer that question Life on the Brink Philip Cafaro, Eileen Crist, 2012-12-01 Life on the Brink aspires to reignite a robust discussion of population issues among environmentalists environmental studies scholars policymakers and the general public Some of the leading voices in the American environmental movement restate the case that population growth is a major force behind many of our most serious ecological problems including global climate change habitat loss and species extinctions air and water pollution and food and water scarcity As we surpass seven billion world inhabitants contributors argue that ending population growth worldwide and in the United States is a moral imperative that deserves renewed commitment Hailing from a range of disciplines and offering varied perspectives these essays hold in common a commitment to sharing resources with other species and a willingness to consider what will be necessary to do so In defense of nature and of a vibrant human future contributors confront hard issues regarding contraception abortion immigration and limits to growth that many environmentalists have become too timid or politically correct to address in recent years Ending population growth will not happen easily Creating genuinely sustainable societies requires major change to economic systems and ethical values coupled with clear thinking and hard work Life on the Brink is an invitation to join the discussion about the great work of building a better future Contributors Albert Bartlett Joseph Bish Lester Brown Tom Butler Philip Cafaro Martha Campbell William R Catton Jr Eileen Crist Anne Ehrlich Paul Ehrlich Robert Engelman Dave Foreman Amy Gulick Ronnie Hawkins Leon Kolankiewicz Richard Lamm Jeffrey McKee Stephanie Mills Roderick Nash Tim Palmer Charmayne Palomba William Ryerson Winthrop Staples III Captain Paul Watson Don Weeden George Wuerthner

Ecological Law and the Planetary Crisis Geoffrey Garver, 2020-10-29 This book uses a transdisciplinary systems approach to examine how Earth s human caused ecological crisis arose and presents a new legal approach for overcoming it Ecological Law and the Planetary Crisis first examines how the history of humanity s social metabolism along with the history of human inventions and ideas led to the human Earth dilemma we see today and explains why contemporary law is inadequate for confronting this dilemma The book goes on to propose ecological law law that maintains human activity within ecological limits such as planetary boundaries while ensuring social justice and equity as an essential element of an urgently needed radical pathway of change toward a perpetual mutually enhancing human Earth relationship Finally it offers a systems based analytical tool for organizing actions to promote the transition from environmental to ecological law Increasing the visibility clarity and development of ecological law this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of ecological and environmental law and governance Red Alert! Daniel R. Wildcat,2010-06-29 What the world needs today is a good dose of Indigenous realism says Native American scholar Daniel Wildcat in this thoughtful forward looking treatise The Native response to the environmental crisis facing our planet Red Alert seeks to debunk the modern myths that humankind is the center of creation and that it exerts control over the natural world Taking a hard look at the biggest problem that we face today the damaging way we live on this earth Wildcat draws upon ancient Native American wisdom and nature centered beliefs to advocate a modern strategy to combat global warming Inspiring and insightful Red Alert is a stirring call to action
