Ethics Of The Body Postconventional Challenges Basic Bioethics:

Ethics of the Body Margrit Shildrick, Roxanne Mykitiuk, 2005 Essays approach bioethics from postmodernist feminist theoretical perspectives opening it to critiques that question the traditional normative framework      Handbook of Research on Technoethics Luppicini, Rocci, Adell, Rebecca, 2008-08-31 This book traces the emergence of the new interdisciplinary field of technoethics by exploring its conceptual development important issues and key areas of current research Compiling 50 authoritative articles from leading researchers on the ethical dimensions of new technologies Provided by publisher      Human Genes and Neoliberal Governance Antoinette Rouvroy, 2007-12-13 Original and interdisciplinary this is the first book to explore the relationship between a neoliberal mode of governance and the so called genetic revolution Looking at the knowledge power relations in the post genomic era and addressing the pressing issues of genetic privacy and discrimination in the context of neoliberal governance this book demonstrates and explains the mechanisms of mutual production between biotechnology and cultural political economic and legal frameworks In the first part Antoinette Rouvroy explores the social political and economic conditions and consequences of this new perceptual regime In the second she pursues her analysis through a consideration of the impact of geneticization on political support of the welfare state and on the operation of private health and life insurances Genetics and neoliberalism she argues are complicit in fostering the belief that social and economic patterns have a fixed nature beyond the reach of democratic deliberation whilst the characteristics of individuals are unusually plastic and within the scope of individual choice and responsibility This book will be of interest to all students of law sociology and politics      Cyber Crime: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2011-11-30 Threatening the safety of individuals computers and entire networks cyber crime attacks vary in severity and type Studying this continually evolving discipline involves not only understanding different types of attacks which range from identity theft to cyberwarfare but also identifying methods for their prevention Cyber Crime Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications is a three volume reference that explores all aspects of computer based crime and threats offering solutions and best practices from experts in software development information security and law As cyber crime continues to change and new types of threats emerge research focuses on developing a critical understanding of different types of attacks and how they can best be managed and eliminated      The Censor's Hand Carl E. Schneider, 2015-04-24 An argument that the system of boards that license human subject research is so fundamentally misconceived that it inevitably does more harm than good Medical and social progress depend on research with human subjects When that research is done in institutions getting federal money it is regulated often minutely by federally required and supervised bureaucracies called institutional review boards IRBs Do can these IRBs do more harm than good In The Censor's Hand Schneider addresses this crucial but long unasked question Schneider answers the question by consulting a critical but ignored experience the law's learning about regulation and by amassing empirical evidence that is scattered around many literatures He concludes that IRBs were fundamentally misconceived Their usefulness to human subjects is doubtful but they clearly delay distort and deter research that can save people's lives soothe their suffering and enhance their welfare IRBs demonstrably make decisions poorly They cannot be expected to make decisions well for they lack the expertise ethical principles legal rules effective procedures and accountability essential to good regulation And IRBs are censors in the place censorship is most damaging universities In sum Schneider argues that IRBs are bad regulation that inescapably do more harm than good They were an irreparable mistake that should be abandoned so that research can be conducted properly and regulated sensibly Health Law

Anne-Maree Farrell, John Devereux, Isabel Karpin, Penelope Weller, 2017-05-25 Drawing upon a range of disciplinary perspectives Health Law Frameworks and Context adopts a theoretically informed and principles based approach to examining health law Appealing to students and academic scholars alike the text moves beyond traditional medical law frameworks to provide a broader contextual understanding of the way in which law intersects with health A clear and accessible style of writing combined with a sophisticated and nuanced approach takes this rich and challenging field to a new level of analysis Written by respected academics within the field Health Law Frameworks and Context is an essential text for scholars and students looking to grasp the fundamental concepts of this rapidly expanding area of law as well as those who wish to deepen their knowledge and understanding of health law in Australia and internationally A Companion to the Anthropology of the Body and Embodiment Frances E. Mascia-Lees, 2011-03-29 A Companion to the Anthropology of the Body and Embodiment offers original essays that examine historical and contemporary approaches to conceptualizations of the body In this ground breaking work on the body and embodiment the latest scholarship from anthropology and related social science fields is presented providing new insights on body politics and the experience of the body Original chapters cover historical and contemporary approaches and highlight new research frameworks Reflects the increasing importance of embodiment and its ethnographic contexts within anthropology Highlights the increasing emphasis on examining the production of scientific technological and medical expertise in studying bodies and embodiment Feminist Philosophies of Life

Hasana Sharp, Chloë Taylor, 2016-06-01 Much of the history of Western ethical thought has revolved around debates about what constitutes a good life and claims that a good life is achievable only by certain human beings In Feminist Philosophies of Life feminist new materialist posthumanist and ecofeminist philosophers challenge this tendency approaching the question of life from alternative perspectives Signalling the importance of distinctively feminist reflections on matters of shared concern Feminist Philosophies of Life not only exposes the propensity of discourses to normalize and exclude differently abled racialized feminized and gender nonconforming people it also asks questions about how life is constituted and understood without limiting itself to the human A collection of articles that focuses on life as an organizing principle for ontology ethics and politics chapters of this study respond to feminist thinkers such as Gloria Anzald a Judith Butler Adriana

Cavarero Simone de Beauvoir Luce Irigaray and S ren Kierkegaard Divided into three parts the book debates the question of life in and against the emerging school of new feminist materialism provides feminist phenomenological and existentialist accounts of life and focuses on lives marked by a particular precarity such as disability or incarceration as well as life in the face of a changing climate Calling for a broader account of lived experience Feminist Philosophies of Life contains persuasive original and diverse analyses that address some of the most crucial feminist issues Contributors include Christine Daigle Brock University Shannon Dea University of Waterloo Lindsay Eales University of Alberta Elizabeth Grosz Duke University Lisa Guenther Vanderbilt University Lynne Huffer Emory University Ada Jaarsma Mount Royal University Stephanie Jenkins Oregon State University Ladelle McWhorter University of Richmond Jane Barter Moulaison University of Winnipeg Astrida Neimanis University of Sydney Danielle Peers University of Alberta Stephen Seely Rutgers University Hasana Sharp McGill University Chlo Taylor University of Alberta Florentien Verhage Washington and Lee University Rachel Loewen Walker Out Saskatoon and Cynthia Willett Emory University

Feminist Phenomenology and Medicine Kristin Zeiler, Lisa Folkmarson Käll, 2014-02-21 Situated at the intersection of phenomenology of medicine and feminist phenomenology this volume provides insights into medical practices such as surgical operations organ transplants dentistry midwifery and psychiatry The contributors make clear the relevance of feminist phenomenology to the fields of medicine and health by highlighting difference vulnerability and volatility as central dimensions of human experience rather than deviations It also further vitalizes the field of phenomenology by bringing it into conversation with a range of different materials including case studies fiction and other forms of narrative and shedding new light on issues like bodily self experience normality and deviance self alienation and objectification The volume s focus on concrete experience develops and sharpens the methodological tools and conceptual framework of phenomenology and makes it an excellent resource for scholars students and medical practitioners alike

Human Subjects Research Regulation I. Glenn Cohen, Holly Fernandez Lynch, 2014-07-11 Experts from different disciplines offer novel ideas for improving research oversight and protection of human subjects The current framework for the regulation of human subjects research emerged largely in reaction to the horrors of Nazi human experimentation revealed at the Nuremberg trials and the Tuskegee syphilis study conducted by U S government researchers from 1932 to 1972 This framework combining elements of paternalism with efforts to preserve individual autonomy has remained fundamentally unchanged for decades Yet as this book documents it has significant flaws including its potential to burden important research overprotect some subjects and inadequately protect others generate inconsistent results and lag behind developments in how research is conducted Invigorated by the U S government s first steps toward change in over twenty years Human Subjects Research Regulation brings together the leading thinkers in this field from ethics law medicine and public policy to discuss how to make the system better The result is a collection of novel ideas some incremental some radical for the future of research oversight and human subject protection After reviewing the history of U S research regulations the contributors consider such topics as risk based regulation research involving vulnerable populations including military personnel children and prisoners the relationships among subjects investigators sponsors and institutional review boards privacy especially regarding biospecimens and tissue banking and the possibility of fundamental paradigm shifts Contributors Adam Braddock Alexander Morgan Capron Ellen Wright Clayton I Glenn Cohen Susan Cox Amy L Davis Hilary Eckert Barbara J Evans Nir Eyal Heidi Li Feldman Benjamin Fombonne Elisa A Hurley Ana S Iltis Gail H Javitt Greg Koski Nicole Lockhart Holly Fernandez Lynch Michael McDonald Michelle N Meyer Osagie K Obasogie Efthimios Parasidis Govind Persad Rosamond Rhodes Suzanne M Rivera Zachary M Schrag Seema K Shah Jeffrey Skopek Laura Stark Patrick Taylor Anne Townsend Carol Weil Brett A Williams Leslie E Wolf      Merleau-Ponty Rosalyn Diprose, Jack Reynolds, 2014-12-05 Having initially not had the attention of Sartre or Heidegger Merleau Ponty s work is arguably now more widely influential than either of his two contemporaries Merleau Ponty Key Concepts presents an accessible guide to the core ideas which structure Merleau Ponty s thinking as well as to his influences and the value of his ideas to a wide range of disciplines The first section of the book presents the context of Merleau Ponty s thinking the major debates of his time particularly existentialism phenomenology the history of philosophy and the philosophy of history and society The second section outlines his major contributions and conceptual innovations The final section focuses upon how his work has been taken up in other fields besides philosophy notably in sociology cognitive science health studies feminism and race theory      Saving Face Heather Laine Talley, 2014-08-15 In Saving Face sociologist Heather Laine Talley examines the cultural meaning and social significance of interventions aimed at repairing faces defined as disfigured Using ethnography participant observation content analysis interviews and autoethnography Talley explores four sites in which a range of faces are repaired face transplantation facial feminization surgery the reality show Extreme Makeover and the international charitable organization Operation Smile Page 4 of cover      Animals as Legal Beings Maneesha Deckha, 2020 In Animals as Legal Beings Maneesha Deckha critically examines how Canadian law and by extension other legal orders around the world participate in the social construction of the human animal divide and the abject rendering of animals as property Through a rigorous but cogent analysis Deckha calls for replacing the exploitative property classification for animals with a new transformative legal status or subjectivity called beingness In developing a new legal subjectivity for animals one oriented toward respecting animals for who they are rather than their proximity to idealized versions of humanness Animals as Legal Beings seeks to bring critical animal theorizations and animal law closer together Throughout Deckha draws upon the feminist animal care tradition as well as feminist theories of embodiment and relationality postcolonial theory and critical animal studies Her argument is critical of the liberal legal view of animals and directed at a legal subjectivity for animals attentive to their embodied vulnerability and desirous of an animal friendly cultural shift in the core foundations of anthropocentric legal systems Theoretically informed yet accessibly presented Animals as Legal Beings

makes a significant contribution to an array of interdisciplinary debates and is an innovative and astute argument for a meaningful more than human turn in law and policy

Cosmetic Surgery Cressida J. Heyes, 2016-05-13 Practices of cosmetic surgery have grown exponentially in recent years in both over developed and developing worlds What comprises cosmetic surgery has also changed with a plethora of new procedures and an extraordinary rise of non surgical operations As the practices of cosmetic surgery have multiplied and diversified so have feminist approaches to understanding them For the first time leading feminist scholars including Susan Bordo Kathy Davis Vivian Sobchack and Kathryn Pauly Morgan have been brought together in this comprehensive volume to reveal the complexity of feminist engagements with the phenomenon that still remains vastly more popular among women Offering a diversity of theoretical methodological and political approaches Cosmetic Surgery A Feminist Primer presents not only the latest cutting edge research in this field but a challenging and unique approach to the issue that will be of key interest to researchers across the social sciences and humanities

Crippling Intersex Celeste E. Orr, 2022-10-22 Intersex and as is with disability The connections between intersex and disability deserve nuanced attention if we are to strengthen intersex human rights claims and understand the experiences of intersex people living with the disabling consequences of medical intervention Crippling Intersex examines three key themes the medical management of people with intersex characteristics the mainstream fascination with sport sex testing policies and procedures and the eugenic implications of preimplantation genetic diagnosis Celeste E Orr investigates how intersex and interphobia intersect with disability and ableism to propose a new approach to intersex studies and activism The integration of feminist disability studies with intersex studies provides tools to break down the traditional sex dyad and the entrenched cultural mandate against intersex traits This necessary work offers a radical new understanding of intersex with disability pushing analyses of intersex histories experience and embodiment further than feminist or queer theory can do alone

New Forms of Revolt Sarah K. Hansen, Rebecca Tuvel, 2017-05-24 Over the last twenty years French philosopher psychoanalyst and novelist Julia Kristeva has explored how global crises threaten people s ability to revolt In a context of widespread war deepening poverty environmental catastrophes and rising fundamentalisms she argues that a revival of inner psychic experience is necessary and empowering Intimate revolt has become a central concept in Kristeva s critical repertoire framing and permeating her understanding of power meaning and identity New Forms of Revolt brings together ten essays on this aspect of Kristeva s work addressing contemporary social and political issues like immigration and cross cultural encounters colonial and postcolonial imaginations racism and artistic representation healthcare and social justice the spectacle of global capitalism and new media

Good Ethics and Bad Choices Jennifer S.

Blumenthal-Barby, 2021-08-03 An analysis of how findings in behavioral economics challenge fundamental assumptions of medical ethics integrating the latest research in both fields Bioethicists have long argued for rational persuasion to help patients with medical decisions But the findings of behavioral economics popularized in Thaler and Sunstein s Nudge and other books show that arguments depending on rational thinking are unlikely to be successful and even that the idea of purely rational persuasion may be a fiction In Good Ethics and Bad Choices Jennifer Blumenthal Barby examines how behavioral economics challenges some of the most fundamental tenets of medical ethics She not only integrates the latest research from both fields but also provides examples of how physicians apply concepts of behavioral economics in practice Blumenthal Barby analyzes ethical issues raised by nudging patient decision making and argues that the practice can improve patient decisions prevent harm and perhaps enhance autonomy She then offers a more detailed ethical analysis of further questions that arise including whether nudging amounts to manipulation to what extent and at what point these techniques should be used when and how their use would be wrong and whether transparency about their use is required She provides a snapshot of nudging in the weeds reporting on practices she observed in clinical settings including psychiatry pediatric critical care and oncology Warning that there is no single simple account of the ethics of nudging Blumenthal Barby offers a qualified defense arguing that a nudge can be justified in part by the extent to which it makes patients better off

Ethics, Moral Life and the Body Rhonda M. Shaw, 2016-04-29 Shaw addresses the ethical turn in contemporary sociological thinking by exploring the contribution of sociology and the social sciences to bioethical debates about morality and tissue exchange practices

Transcending the Boundaries of Law Martha Albertson Fineman, 2010-07-12 Transcending the Boundaries of Law is a ground breaking collection that will be central to future developments in feminist and related critical theories about law In its pages three generations of feminist legal theorists engage with what have become key feminist themes including equality embodiment identity intimacy and law and politics Almost two decades ago Routledge published the very first anthology in feminist legal theory At the Boundaries of Law M A Fineman and N Thomadsen eds 1991 which marked an important conceptual move away from the study of women in law prevalent in the 1970s and 1980s The scholars in At the Boundaries applied feminist methods and theories in examining law and legal institutions thus expanding upon work in the Law and Society tradition This new anthology brings together some of the original contributors to that volume with scholars from subsequent generations of critical gender theorists It provides a retrospective on the past twenty five years of scholarly engagement with issues relating to gender and law as well as suggesting directions for future inquiry including the tantalizing suggestion that feminist legal theory should move beyond gender as its primary focus to consider the theoretical political and social implications of the universally shared and constant vulnerability inherent in the human condition

Ebola's Message Nicholas G. Evans, Tara C. Smith, Maimuna S. Majumder, 2024-11-26 Interdisciplinary perspectives on the science politics and ethics of the 2013 2015 Ebola virus disease outbreak The 2013 2015 outbreak of the Ebola virus disease EVD was a public health disaster 28 575 infections and 11 313 deaths as of October 2015 devastating the countries of Guinea Liberia and Sierra Leone a slow and mismanaged international response and sensationalistic media coverage seized upon by politicians to justify wrongheaded policy And yet there were also promising developments that may improve future responses to infectious disease epidemics the UN Security Council's first involvement in a public health event a series of promising clinical treatments and vaccines for EVD and recognition of the need for a global public health system to deal with epidemics that cross national borders This volume offers a range of perspectives on these and other lessons learned with essays on the science politics and ethics of the Ebola outbreak The contributors discuss topics including the virology and management of EVD in both rich and poor nations the spread of the disease with an essay by a leader of Médecins Sans Frontières racist perceptions of West Africa mainstream and social media responses to Ebola and the ethical issue of whether to run clinical trials of experimental treatments during an outbreak Contributors Christian L Althaus Daniel G Bausch Adia Benton Michael J Connor Jr Kim Yi Dionne Nicholas G Evans Morenike Oluwatoyin Folayan Stephen Goldstein Bridget Haire Patricia C Henwood Kelly Hills Cyril Ibe Marjorie Kruvand Lisa M Lee Maimuna S Majumder Alexandra L Phelan Annette Rid Cristine Russell Lara Schwarz Laura Seay Michael Selgelid Tara C Smith Armand Sprecher
