The Ethiopian Book of the Dead - Lefafa Sedeq Sir Ernest Alfred Wallis Budge, 2013-11-22 Of all the magical works written in Ethiopic and Amharic which have come down to us the most curious and the most interesting from an archaeological point of view is the little book of LEFAFA SEDEK which title I have translated by Bandlet of Righteousness

The Bandlet of Righteousness Sir Ernest Alfred Wallis Budge, 1929 Encyclopedia of World Scriptures Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2024-10-17 From the time of human beginnings holy words chants liturgy and narratives have enabled individuals to communicate the mysteries of the universe Bodies of liturgical composition had to survive oral transmission for centuries until calligraphers could inscribe them in pictograph symbol or coded cipher or write them in words on stone mural scroll parchment or paper Through repetitions of sacred speech and writing couples enter holy wedlock infants receive consecration and blessing youths advance to adulthood rulers dedicate temporal powers to God cities pledge themselves to peace and the dead pass from an earthly existence to the afterlife The most sacred and influential writings the world has recorded are covered A Z in this compendium The entries convey works from the cities of Mecca Jerusalem Rome Delphi and Salt Lake City from caves in Qumran and mountains in Japan from the Indus Valley and the American West from classical China Egypt and Greece and from the Hebrew communities of Iberia and of the German states Although all of the scriptures speak to a human need there are many differences in style purpose and tone The entries include holy law The White Roots of Peace funeral prescriptions the Tibetan Book of the Dead ceremonies the Lakota Black Elk Speaks literature Homeric hymns hero stories the Japanese Kojiki word puzzles the koans of Zen Christ lore the Apocrypha and the New Testament matrices I Ching and Tantra and numerology the Jewish Kabbala Writing styles include both the rapture of Rumi s Mathnawi and the spare aphorism of Confucius s Analects The information given in the texts range from Muhammad s revelations in the Koran to the everyday advice of Mary Baker Eddy s Christian Science writings A map locates the germ of sacred revelation and writing in sites all over the globe A timeline of dateable events from the history of world scripture names events in chronological order from the beginnings of the I Ching in 2800 B C E to the publication of a child s version of the Popul Vuh in 1999 C E The encyclopedia is comprehensively indexed with ample cross referencing to assist researchers toward further study of print and electronic sources Ephémérides orientalistes , 1929-03 Art and Religion in Africa Rosalind Hackett, 1998-10-01 Africa s religious and artistic traditions constitute a primary example of its intellectual and cultural vitality Artistic works play a vital role especially where oral traditions dominate in communicating ideas about the relationship between the human spiritual and natural worlds This work is a comparative study of Africa's visual and performing arts concentrating on their geographical material and gendered diversity and focusing on the relation of these arts to African religion The author combines ethnographic and art historical methodology but does not assume any prior knowledge of African art or African religion The text seeks a greater understanding of the philosophical and religious aspects of African art thus challenging western perceptions of what is important in terms of artistic representation This approach reveals the transformative capacities and multi dimensionality of African art The work also highlights the changes brought about by Christianity Islam and the newer religious movements in post colonial Africa
