Ethique Architecture Urbain:

Critical Strategies for Ecological Architectures Mathias Rollot, 2025-11-01 This book addresses the alarming state of the planet and considers a potential new role for architecture in the Anthropocene It explores ways in which architecture could contribute to solutions as well as how the discipline should prepare for the future Drawing on other disciplines such as bioregionalism animalism and decolonial thinking it demonstrates how architecture can extend its relevance The book introduces new theoretical approaches that encourage completely different ways of thinking showing and designing It introduces concepts such as human energy decolonial bioregionalism and emancipatory architecture which serve to challenge anthropocentric theories and promote more sustainable architectural practices This book makes an ethical appeal to architects and non architects alike proposing new strategies for thinking teaching and creating a wholly different kind of architecture for a rapidly changing world In doing so it addresses the challenges facing contemporary societies and ecological changes demonstrating how the ecological humanities can transform architecture as a field and radically alter its history references values and aims The book aims to contribute to a metamorphosis of architecture towards greater ecological and emancipatory capacity and towards pluriversal bioregions Éthique, architecture, urbain Thierry provides a rich source for the study of representational strategies and tactics in the modern city Tracing spatial practices of French travel writers in London and New York from 1851 to the 1980s this book contributes to a body of work that analyses travel and travel writing beyond the Anglophone context and engages a variety of travel writing in questions surrounding French modalities for negotiating and establishing a nexus of meanings for life in the modern city One of the central tenets of the book is that in the way its spaces are planned encountered and represented the city is operational in the formulation of identities and ideologies and the book's guiding question is how travel and travel writing allow for the exploration of urban modernity from a perspective of exchange Bringing together the strands of theory context and poetic analysis this book examines travel writing as a spatial practice of the modern city engaging urban space in questions of nationality power and legibility and opening avenues for the exploration of urban modernity from a position of alterity where alternative imaginative geographies of the city might emerge

Ethique, architecture, urbain Christiane Younès, Thierry Paquot, 2000 L éthique selon son étymologie est un ethos c'est-à-dire une manière d'être. Si pour l'homme au monde elle est un mode d'existence qui s'adresse chacun et se distingue aussi bien d'une morale comme rapport soi-même que d'une pensée moralisatrice pour l'autre. Ainsi l'éthique participe à la relation à l'autre et au monde la Nature ce qu'on nomme bien hautivement l'environnement Elle se confond parfois avec la responsabilité que nos actes ordinaires ne peuvent pas esquiver et la d'ontologie qui régit les pratiques professionnelles L'architecte et l'urbaniste par exemple sont non seulement responsables juridiquement de ce qu'ils décident mais éthiquement A l'heure où ces métiers connaissent de profondes mutations la suite des nouvelles configurations territoriales et des nouveaux modes de vie urbains la question de l'éthique se pose avec acuit. Bâtir la demeure de l'homme à l'habiter ses lieux et ses sites ne sont pas une mince affaire Certes de trop nombreux professionnels ne s'en soucient guère se préoccupent qu'ils sont par leur œuvre ou leur chiffre d'affaires Pourtant chaque jour s'affirme l'idée selon laquelle il n'y a pas d'esthétique sans éthique Les auteurs de ce livre architectes urbanistes philosophes sociologues juristes historiens explorent les implications de l'éthique pour les faiseurs de ville ainsi que les interfaces entre opérations d'aménagement pratiques démocratiques et exigences éthiques l'urbain: apports et méthodes Sandra Breux, Jean-Pierre Collin, 2014-05-01T00:00:00-04:00 Devant la complexité du territoire urbain actuel et des pratiques qui en rendent le croisement des regards et des perspectives si complexe, l'objectif de cet ouvrage est de fournir un instantané de ce qui se fait aujourd'hui en matière d'analyse de l'expérience urbaine. En laissant libre place à la diversité des analyses, des approches et des objets, l'ouvrage se construit autour de deux parties. La première regroupe les auteurs dont les propos s'articulent autour d'une posture ou d'un regard méthodologique spécifique, tandis que la seconde rassemble les auteurs qui ont davantage centré leur analyse autour de l'utilisation d'un ou de plusieurs outils de collecte de l'information. Si la diversité des objets de recherche et des thématiques est manifeste, littérature, cinéma, géographie, patrimoine, circuits, ambiance, participation et quartier sont tour à tour sollicités. La ligne directrice de cet ouvrage repose sur l'exposition des limites et critiques éventuelles des approches ou outils choisis. Au final, en posant un regard analytique et critique sur une variété d'approches et d'outils, l'ouvrage mobilise pour saisir les représentations de la ville et de ses territoires. Cet ouvrage alimente les démarches en cours pour le développement de nouvelles perspectives de recherche en études urbaines.

Leggere la città Aa. Vv., 2013-05-22T00:00:00+02:00
 La città è il luogo delle possibilità dell'incontro del nuovo con l'antico, dell'agire comune ma anche del pericolo del degrado e dello smarrimento. Affrontando a più riprese l'argomento nel corso delle sue ricerche, Paul Ricoeur istituisce un denso e proficuo parallelismo tra racconto, architettura e urbanistica e trova nell'analisi della città contemporanea un ampio campo di riflessione fondato sulla dimensione narrativa dell'architettura e su quella temporale dello spazio architettonico. L'atto dello scrivere e quello del costruire tendono a ordinare ciò che nella vita si presenta come confuso, dandogli intelligibilità e significato. Entrambi devono anche rispondere a una necessità di protezione che comporta un'ineludibile responsabilità nei confronti della fragilità dell'umano. Come scrive Heidegger, infatti, l'uomo non abita perché costruisce, ma costruisce perché abita; così se il costruire rimanda all'abitare, l'abitare interpreta e discute il costruire, lo confronta con le proprie aspettative, a volte lo accusa. E la qualità del nostro essere nel mondo dipende in larga parte dalla comprensione e dal procedere di questa dinamica. Leggere la città raccoglie gli interventi di Paul Ricoeur sull'argomento preceduti da un'ampia introduzione di Franco Riva che li colloca all'interno del pensiero dell'autore e del dibattito filosofico in cui nacquero e ne suggerisce le possibili linee di sviluppo.

Il parco della guarigione infinita Giuseppina Scavuzzo, 2022-01-21
 Sul confine tra Italia e Jugoslavia nel 1961, in un piccolo ospedale di provincia, ha inizio una delle più importanti battaglie per i diritti civili che abbia segnato il nostro Paese. Immagini di reti e cancelli divelti hanno tramandato della rivoluzione basagliana la traccia di un gesto radicale che nega ogni possibilità di riforma dell'istituzione. La ricerca dimostra, attraverso materiali inediti e dimenticati, quanto la negazione dell'istituzione passi attraverso un processo più complesso di trasformazione fisica dei luoghi e dell'architettura. Il dialogo tra architettura e psichiatria, che proprio l'esito della battaglia iniziata qui ha interrotto, pone oggi questioni assolutamente vive: il rapporto tra architettura e potere, quello tra diritti e uso degli spazi e, soprattutto, il tempo e lo spazio di guarigione che una società produce e immagina per chi non
