Traditional Knowledge, Traditional Cultural Expressions, and Intellectual Property Law in the Asia-Pacific Region Christoph Antons, 2009-01-01 Among the many contentious matters thrown up by the relentless march of economic globalization those forms of knowledge variously known as indigenous or traditional remain seriously threatened despite numerous transnational initiatives and highly publicized debate It is not proving easy to bring these holistic worldviews into accordance with the technical terms and classifications of intellectual property law The contributions in this volume contrast efforts to find solutions and workable models at the international and regional level with experiences on the ground Legal policies related to indigenous knowledge in settler societies such as Australia and New Zealand are compared with those in densely populated neighbouring countries in Asia where traditional knowledge is often regarded as national heritage While many of the chapters are written by lawyers using an interdisciplinary approach other chapters introduce the reader to perspectives from disciplines such as legal sociology and anthropology on controversial issues such as the understandings of art culture tradition customary law and the opportunities for traditional cultural knowledge and traditional cultural expressions in an Internet environment Experienced observers of the international debate and regional experts discuss international model laws as well as legislation at regional and national level and the role of customary law Topics covered include the following and much more the concept of farmers rights biodiversity and bioprospecting traditional knowledge as a commodity encounters between different legalities geographical indications registration requirements sanctions remedies and dispute resolution mechanisms the ongoing fragmentation and loss of traditional knowledge and systems of data collection Travel, Tourism and Art Tijana Rakić, Jo-Anne Lester, 2016-02-17 Art in its many forms has long played an important role in people's imagination experience and remembrance of places cultures and travels as well as in their motivation to travel Travel and tourism on the other hand have also inspired numerous artists and featured in many artworks The fascinating relationships between travel tourism and art encompass a wide range of phenomena from historical Grand Tours during which a number of travellers experienced or produced artwork to present day travel inspired by art artworks produced by contemporary travellers or artworks produced by locals for tourist consumption Focusing on the representations of touristic places locals travellers and tourists in artworks the role of travel and tourism in inspiring artists as well as the role of art and artwork in imagining experiencing and remembering places and motivating travel and tourism this edited volume provides a space for an exploration of both historical and contemporary relationships between travel tourism and art Bringing together scholars from a wide range of disciplines and fields of study including geography anthropology history philosophy and urban cultural tourism art and leisure studies this volume discusses a range of case studies across different art forms and locales

Unpacking Culture Ruth B. Phillips, Christopher B. Steiner, 1999-01-30 Tourist art production is a global phenomenon and is increasingly recognized as an important and authentic expression of indigenous visual traditions These thoughtful engaging essays provide a comparative perspective on the history character and impact of tourist art in colonized societies in three areas of the world Africa Oceania and North America Ranging broadly historically and geographically Unpacking Culture is the first collection to bring together substantial case studies on this topic from around the world

The Anthropology of Art Howard Morphy, Morgan Perkins, 2009-02-04 This anthology provides a single volume overview of the essential theoretical debates in the anthropology of art Drawing together significant work in the field from the second half of the twentieth century it enables readers to appreciate the art of different cultures at different times Advances a cross cultural concept of art that moves beyond traditional distinctions between Western and non Western art Provides the basis for the appreciation of art of different cultures and times Enhances readers appreciation of the aesthetics of art and of the important role it plays in human society

Indigenous Tourism Movements Alexis C. Bunten, Nelson Graburn, 2018-01-01 Indigenous Tourism Movements explores Indigenous identity using movement as a metaphor drawing on case studies from throughout the world including Botswana Canada Chile Panama Tanzania and the United States

Folk Art Potters of Japan Brian Moeran, 2013-12-19 This is a study of a group of potters living in a small community in the south of Japan and about the problems they face in the production marketing and aesthetic appraisal of a kind of stoneware pottery generally referred to as mingei or folk art It shows how different people in an art world bring to bear different sets of values as they negotiate the meaning of mingei and try to decide whether a pot is art folk art or mere craft At the same time this book is an unusual monograph in that it reaches beyond the mere study of an isolated community to trace the origins and history of folk art in general By showing how a set of aesthetic ideals originating in Britain was taken to Japan and thence back to Europe and the United States as a result of the activities of people like William Morris Yanagi So etsu Bernard Leach and Hamada Shoji this book rewrites the history of contemporary western ceramics

World Art Ben Burt, 2020-07-12 What do we mean by art As a category of objects the concept belongs to a Western cultural tradition originally European and now increasingly global but how useful is it for understanding other traditions To understand art as a universal human value we need to look at how the concept was constructed in order to reconstruct it through an understanding of the wider world Western art values have a pervasive influence upon non Western cultures and upon Western attitudes to them This innovative yet accessible new text explores the ways theories of art developed as Western knowledge of the world expanded through exploration and trade conquest colonisation and research into other cultures present and past It considers the issues arising from the historical relationships which brought diverse artistic traditions together under the influence of Western art values looking at how art has been used by colonisers and colonised in the causes of collecting and commerce cultural hegemony and autonomous identities World Art questions conventional Western assumptions of art from an anthropological perspective which allows comparison between cultures It treats art as a property of artefacts rather than a category of objects reclaiming the idea of world art from the art world This book is essential reading for all students on anthropology of art courses as well as students of museum studies and art history based on a wide range of case studies and supported by learning features such as annotated further reading and chapter opening summaries Ethnicity, Inc. John L.

Comaroff, Jean Comaroff, 2009-09-15 In Ethnicity Inc anthropologists John L and Jean Comaroff analyze a new moment in the history of human identity its rampant commodification Through a wide ranging exploration of the changing relationship between culture and the market they address a pressing question Wherein lies the future of ethnicity Their account begins in South Africa with the incorporation of an ethno business in venture capital by a group of traditional African chiefs But their horizons are global Native American casinos Scotland s efforts to brand itself a Zulu ethno theme park named Shakaland a world religion declared to be intellectual property a chieftom made into a global business by means of its platinum holdings San Bushmen with patent rights potentially worth millions of dollars nations acting as commercial enterprises and the rapid growth of marketing firms that target specific ethnic populations are just some of the diverse examples that fall under the Comaroffs incisive scrutiny These phenomena range from the disturbing through the intriguing to the absurd Through them the Comaroffs trace the contradictory effects of neoliberalism as it transforms identities and social being across the globe Ethnicity Inc is a penetrating account of the ways in which ethnic populations are remaking themselves in the image of the corporation while corporations coopt ethnic practices to open up new markets and regimes of consumption Intellectually rigorous but leavened with wit this is a powerful highly original portrayal of a new world being born in a tectonic collision of culture capitalism and identity Under the Palace Portal Karl A. Hoerig, 2003-09-30 A study of the Native American

Vendors Program which provides Santa Fe area American Indian vendors space under the Portal of the Palace of the Governors to sell jewelry pottery and other items they have made Tourism at the Grassroots John Connell, Barbara Rugendyke, 2008-03-01 In two regions where tourism is of considerable economic importance eastern Asia and the Pacific there have been remarkably few studies of the impacts of tourism in rural areas Moreover the shift towards ecotourism touted as a more environmentally benign form of tourism has extended the reach of tourism into more remote and fragile envirs The Social Psychology of Tourist Behaviour Philip L. Pearce, 2013-10-22 The Social Psychology of Tourist Behaviour is a seven chapter book that describes tourists tourism and tourist psychology The book particularly explores economic geographical anthropological and sociological studies of tourism Subsequent chapters look into the social role of tourist an approach to tourist motivation social contact between tourists and hosts and environmental settings of tourist behavior The book will be useful for advanced undergraduates graduate students and relevant practitioners and in some cases for a rather broader public in the field of social psychology Creating a Latino Identity in the Nation's Capital Olivia

Cadaval,2021-11-01 First published in 1999 in this study the author uses the annual Latino Festival as a framework for focusing the action and integrating many important informal and formal aspects of the Washington D C Latino Community She demonstrates how the festival became a stage where relationships were defined networks established and identity enacted and provided my window into the history and development of the community For this study she was interested in an interpretative framework appropriate to festival which would reflect the multiple voices and points of view found within the community Seeking the voices of leaders and community members in interviews and in Spanish and English language newspapers

Art in the Time of Colony Dr Khadija von Zinnenburg Carroll,2014-04-28 It is often assumed that the verbal and visual languages of indigenous people had little influence upon the classification of scientific legal and artistic objects in the metropolises and museums of nineteenth century colonial powers However as this book demonstrates it is a fallacy that colonized locals merely collected material for interested colonizers Through an analysis of particular language notations and drawings hidden in colonial documents and a reexamination of cross cultural communication the book writes biographies for five objects that exemplify the tensions of nineteenth century history Indian Art Worlds in Contention

Helle Bundgaard,2013-11-05 This beautifully illustrated book explores the opinions of artists critics and others involved with arts or crafts arguing for a theory that considers the different discursive formations and related strategic practices of an art world Focusing on Orissan patta paintings in India the author examines the local regional and national discourses involved In so doing the text demonstrates that while painters local discourses are characterised by pragmatism the discourses of regional and especially national elites are concerned with the exegesis of local paintings and their association with the great Sanskrit tradition A central theme of the study focuses on the awards given for skill in craft making and their changing significance as they pass from national and regional elites to local painters It is shown how certain key actions by local painters result from a clash between local discourses on the one hand and regional and national discourses on the other

Western Women's Lives Sandra Schackel,2003 An anthology of essays about 20th century women living in the western U S showing that the image of the pioneer woman has been replaced not with another dominant one but with many

Resilience, Authenticity and Digital Heritage Tourism Deepak Chhabra,2021-09-07 This book examines the authentication of authenticity in heritage tourism by using a resilient smart systems approach It discusses the emerging trends in cultural tourism and outlines in a detailed manner their significance in negotiating authenticity in tourism experience Authentication of authenticity is an evolving less researched field of inquiry in heritage tourism This book advances research on this subject by exploring different authentication processes and scrutinizes their resilience in building transformative heritage tourism pathways It offers a kaleidoscopic view of the manner authenticity has evolved over the last several decades by observing a broad spectrum of cultural expressions The evolution and meaningfulness of negotiated authenticity is identified and discussed in the context of pre intra and post pandemic times This book focuses on the moral and existentialist trajectories of authenticity and the notion of self authentication It proposes a smart resilient authentication model to delicately negotiate the objective and self dimensions of authenticity in transformative times Furthermore by sharing examples of best practices it offers unique insights on how authenticity is authenticated and mediated via digital platforms and artificial intelligence This book offers novel perspectives on negotiated authenticity and its authentication in heritage tourism and will appeal to both practitioners and students scholars in Heritage studies Design and Innovation Tourism Studies Geography and Planning across North America Europe and East Asian countries
