Ethnic Diversity And Public Policy A Comparative Inquiry:

Ethnic Diversity and Public Policy C. Young, 2016-07-27 In recent years the saliency of conflicts pitting different ethnic racial and religious groups against one another has increased dramatically The world of nation states is much more diverse than previously realized only a small number of the 185 independent countries are truly homogeneous With the end of the cold war the relative importance of ethnic conflicts as a threat to international peace and stability is far greater An international set of scholars collaborate in this volume to explore policy alternatives which can contribute towards the accommodation of cultural diversity

Ethnic Diversity and Public Policy United Nations Research Institute for Social Development, 2003 Autonomy and Ethnicity Yash P. Ghai, 2000-10-12 This book first published in 2000 deals with one of the most urgent problems of contemporary times the political organisation of multi ethnic states Most major conflicts of our time are internal to the state and revolve around the claims of access to or the redesign of the state Responses to ethnic conflicts have ranged from oppression and ethnic cleansing to accommodations of ethnic claims through affirmative policies special forms of representation power sharing and the integration of minorities One of the most sought after and resisted devices for conflict management is autonomy Within an overarching framework that examines different understandings of ethnic consciousness and the variety of territorial autonomies the authors examine the experiences of spatial distribution of power in Canada India China South Africa Ethiopia PNG Spain the former Yugoslavia Cyprus Sri Lanka and Australia

Decentralization and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M. Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2019-09-10 This collection of essays assesses the efforts of African governments to constitutionalise decentralisation be it in the form of federalism local government or traditional authorities Since the end of the Cold War jurisdictions across Africa have witnessed an ostensible return to multi party democracy within the paradigm of constitutionalism and the rule of law Linked to the democratisation process many countries took steps to decentralize power by departing from the heavily centralized systems inherited from colonial regimes The centralization of power typically characterized by the personalization and concentration of power in the hands of leaders and privileged elites in capital cities mostly resulted in repressive regimes and fragile states As decentralisation is a response to these challenges this volume analyses the dynamic relationship between the efforts to implement decentralization and presence or absence of constitutionalism This volume examines a variety of forms and degrees of decentralization found across Africa It advances a new understanding of trends and patterns and facilitates the exchange of ideas among African governments and scholars about the critical role that decentralisation may play in democratization of and constitutionalism in Africa The Postcolonial State in Africa Crawford Young, 2012-11-20 A highly readable sweeping and yet detailed analysis of the African state in all its failures and moments of hope Crawford Young manages to touch upon all the important issues in the discipline and crucial developments in the recent history of the African continent This book will be a classic Pierre Englebert author of Africa Unity Sovereignty and Sorrow Citizenship in

Diverse Societies Will Kymlicka, Wayne Norman, 2000-03-16 Is it possible in a modern pluralistic society to promote common bonds of citizenship while at the same time accommodating and showing respect for ethnocultural diversity Citizenship and diversity have been two of the major topics of debate in both democratic politics and political theory over the past decade Much has been written about the importance of citizenship civic identities and civic virtues for the functioning of liberal democracies and the need to accommodate the ethnocultural linguistic and religious pluralism that is a fact of life in most modern states By and large however these two topics have been largely discussed in mutual isolation Much of the writing on the issues of both citizenship and diversity remains rather abstract and general and disconnected from the specific issues of public policy and institutional design Citizenship in Diverse Societies examines the specific points of conflict and convergence between concerns for citizenship and diversity in democratic societies and reassesses and refines existing theories of diverse citizenship by examining these theories in the light of actual practices and policies of pluralistic democracies

Religion and Personal Law in Secular India Gerald James Larson, 2001-11-28 Though a directive principle of the constitution a uniform civil code of law has never been written or instituted in India As a result in matters of personal law the segment of law concerning marriage dowry divorce parentage legitimacy wills and inheritance individuals of different backgrounds must appeal to their respective religious laws for guidance or rulings But balancing the claims of religious communities with those of a modern secular state has caused some intractable problems for India as a nation Religion and Personal Law in Secular India provides a comprehensive look into the issues and challenges that India faces as it tries to put a uniform civil code into practice Contributors include Granville Austin Robert D Baird Srimati Basu Kevin Brown Paul Courtwright Rajeev Dhavan Marc Galanter Namita Goswami Laura Dudley Jenkins Jayanth Krishnan Gerald James Larson John H Mansfield Ruma Pal Kunal M Parker William D Popkin Lloyd I Rudolph Susanne Hoeber Rudolph Sylvia Vatuk and Arvind Verma

Governance, Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution Cedric Hilburn Grant, R. Mark Kirton, 2007 Decades after our contemporary international system witnessed the end of the Second World War the events that followed in its aftermath has fashioned an international system characterized by global conflict in the guise of the Cold War Although wars were part of the struggle between the two rival super powers the US and USSR their main theatre was the Third World and hostilities during the Cold War era were global It is against this backdrop that Governance Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution addresses conflict in the Caribbean and elsewhere exploring the linkages between conflict and development The book is divided into eight sections and offers diverse views on conflict conflict resolution and governance Part I Governance and Conflict Management in a Global Context Part II Management and resolution of Conflict in the Regional Context Part III Perspectives on Social Stratification Political Rivalry and Ethnic Insecurities Part IV High Intensity Conflicts Part V The Management and Resolution of Territorial Conflicts Part VI Poverty Economics and Conflict Management Part VII Advancing Conflict Resolution through Education and Part VIII Civil Society Governance and Social Consensus

Peacemaking J. Darby, Roger Mac Ginty, 2008-06-11 Contemporary Peacemaking draws on recent experience to identify and explore the essential components of peace processes The book is organized around five key themes in peacemaking planning for peace negotiations violence on peace processes peace accords and peace accord implementation and post war reconstruction

Affirmative Action Matters Laura Dudley Jenkins, Michele S. Moses, 2014-04-04 Affirmative Action Matters focuses specifically on affirmative action policies in higher education admissions the sphere that has been the most controversial in many of the nations that have such policies It brings together distinguished scholars from diverse nations to examine and discuss the historical political and philosophical contexts of affirmative action and clarify policy developments to further the meaningful equality of educational opportunity This unique volume includes both well established and emerging policies from the Americas Europe Africa and Asia policies which developed under a variety of political systems and target a range of underrepresented groups based on race ethnicity gender class social background or region Accessible and thought provoking case studies of affirmative action demonstrate that such policies are expanding to different countries and target populations While some countries such as India have affirmative action policies that predate those in the United States affirmative action is a recent development in countries such as Brazil and France Legal or political pressures to move away from explicitly race based policies in several countries have complicated affirmative action and make this assessment of international alternatives particularly timely New or newly modified policies target a variety of disadvantaged groups based on geography class or caste in addition to race or sex International scholars in six countries spanning five continents offer insights into their own countries experiences to examine the implications of policy shifts from race toward other categories of disadvantage to consider best practices in student admission policies and to assess the future of affirmative action

Democracy and Human Rights in Multicultural Societies Matthias Koenig, 2017-07-05 Published in association with UNESCO Democracy and Human Rights in Multicultural Societies examines the political governance of cultural diversity specifically how public policy making has dealt with the claims for cultural recognition that have increasingly been expressed by ethno national movements language groups religious minorities indigenous peoples and migrant communities Its principle aim is to understand explain and assess public policy responses to ethnic linguistic and religious diversity Adopting interdisciplinary perspectives of comparative social sciences the contributors address the conditions forms and consequences of democratic and human rights based governance of multi ethnic multi lingual and multi faith societies

Talk of the Nation Zsuzsa Csergo, 2018-07-05 How can democratization coupled with transnational integration resolve conflicts over cultural difference in places that are marked by legacies of nationalist competition This book explores that question through a comparative study of contestations over language use in the heart of the post Communist region Zsuzsa Csergo notes that newly independent governments looked to rejoin the West in particular the European Union while at the same time asserting control over the institutions they considered key to the reproduction of national cultures These national projects resulted in renewed salience for minority language rights and a complicated politics triggering EU concerns about the treatment of regional cultural minorities Csargo s field research in Romania Hungary and Slovakia leads her to make a bold claim about the primacy of domestic politics in the construction of democratic solutions to the conundrum of nation building and minority rights Talk of the Nation breaks new ground by focusing on both majority and minority political elites and parties in interethnic relations Csargo challenges arguments about the overwhelming importance of international influence Her book demonstrates that the role of domestic political actors in interethnic reconciliation is not merely that of compliance with international requirements or effectiveness in responding to external pressure they are largely guided by the internal democratic process

African Renaissance in the Millennium Emmanuel Ike Udogu,2007-01-01 The book brings into sharp focus some of the major political social and economic issues that might impede Africa s development project in the 21st century It debates and suggests ways that policy makers might tackle these issues in order to promote the vision of the continent s transformation in the millennium

Governance in Multicultural Societies Gurharpal Singh,2017-09-08 In the last decade the study of multiculturalism has become an established field in political and social theory This in depth and engaging volume focuses on public policy and the dilemmas faced by the governments of increasingly diverse societies Offering a theoretically and empirically rich collection of essays from some of the leading specialists in the field it fills the gap between the social and political theory of multiculturalism and institutionally based national case studies The book is distinctive in combining a robust theoretical introduction to recent developments in multiculturalism with a critical evaluation of contemporary public policy in a variety of countries in Europe South Asia Southeast Asia the Far East and South Africa It incorporates a strong comparative dimension both within and across the case studies with a regional focus enabling comparisons of regional national and international experience

Contemporary Peace Making J. Darby,R. Mac Ginty,Roger Mac Ginty,2002-12-19 Contemporary Peace Making draws on recent experience to identify and explore the essential components of peace processes Each chapter examines a different element in recent peace processes The collection is organized around five main themes planning for peace during periods of violence the process of negotiations including pre negotiation the effects of violence on peace processes peace accords constitutional and political options and securing the settlement and building the peace Israel-Palestine Omer Bartov,2021-09-17 The conflict between Israel and Palestine has raised a plethora of unanswered questions generated seemingly irreconcilable narratives and profoundly transformed the land s physical and political geography This volume seeks to provide a deeper understanding of the links between the region that is now known as Israel and Palestine and its peoples both those that live there as well as those who relate to it as a mental mythical or religious landscape Engaging the perspectives of a multidisciplinary international group of scholars it is an urgent collective reflection on the bonds between people and a place whether real or imagined tangible as its stones or ephemeral as the hopes and longings it evokes

Governance and Internal Wars in Sub-Saharan Africa Abdulahi A. Osman,2007-03-31 The 1990s have brought unprecedented violence economic decline and suffering for many African countries Much of the optimism that greeted the independence decade of the 1960s when Africa was called the continent of the future has turned into failure and disappointment The increase in these conflicts has been blamed on several variables including colonialism ethnic diversity end of the Cold War and economic decline While many African countries have managed to maintain a modicum of peace stability and growth some have clearly failed woefully in this regard This raises a very fundamental question How and why did some countries manage to avert internal wars while others did not The book measures and provides rich details of governance from contextual structural and policy perspectives It systematically and uniformly compares two categories of countries those that experienced internal war and those that did not Taking Ethno-Cultural Diversity Seriously in Constitutional Design Solomon A. Dersso,2012 Using a legal and multidisciplinary approach towards empirical and prescriptive analysis of contemporary minority rights standards this book defends and elaborates a robust minority rights framework for articulating a constitutional design responsive to the claims of ethno cultural groups in Africa
