Toxic Schools Bowen Paulte,2013-10-04 Violent urban schools loom large in our culture for decades they have served as the centerpieces of political campaigns and as window dressing for brutal television shows and movies Yet unequal access to quality schools remains the single greatest failing of our society and one of the most hotly debated issues of our time Of all the usual words used to describe non selective city schools segregated unequal violent none comes close to characterizing their systemic dysfunction in high poverty neighborhoods The most accurate word is toxic When Bowen Paulte speaks of toxicity he speaks of educational worlds dominated by intimidation and anxiety by ambivalence degradation and shame Based on six years of teaching and research in the South Bronx and in Southeast Amsterdam Toxic Schools is the first fully participatory ethnographic study of its kind and a searing examination of daily life in two radically different settings What these schools have in common however are not the predictable ideas about race and educational achievement but the tragically similar habituated stress responses of students forced to endure the experience of constant vulnerability From both sides of the Atlantic Ocean Paulte paints an intimate portrait of how students and teachers actually cope in real time with the chronic stress peer group dynamics and subtle power politics of urban educational spaces in the perpetual shadow of aggression Vegetarian Times ,1994-01 To do what no other magazine does Deliver simple delicious food plus expert
