Eu Enlargement And Its Macroeconomic Effects In Eastern Europe Currencies Prices Investment And Competitiveness:

EU Enlargement and its Macroeconomic Effects in Eastern Europe H. Gabrisch, R. Pohl, 1999-01-29 What will joining the EU mean for the new Eastern member states and their economies This book offers a detailed study of the macroeconomic and structural adjustment burden It envisages a real currency appreciation stemming from price convergence capital inflows and weak structural change The widespread belief that an Eastern enlargement of the Union would be overwhelmingly to the detriment of the present EU budgetary costs locational decisions trade deficits is rejected The authors discuss the lack of competitiveness of Eastern countries and their need for structural adjustments in the financial sector in agriculture and in manufacturing in order for them to survive and thrive in their new economic environment European Union and the Race for Foreign Direct Investment in Europe Pervez N. Ghauri, Lars Oxelheim, 2003-12-16 Countries create different type of incentives for foreign firms such as direct incentives subsidies tax relief soft loans and preferred handling This volume aims to analyze the impact of European Union on inward foreign direct investment in Europe and to discuss what type of effects are being created by this race for FDI Technology Transfer via Foreign Direct Investment in Central and Eastern Europe J. Stephan, 2005-11-28 Foreign subsidiaries of multinational companies are suggested as one of the main channels of technology transfer to less developed economies In Central East Europe their presence proved to be a decisive factor to economic restructuring and development This volume is a unique guide to theory method of research and empirical evidence for technology transfer via foreign subsidiaries of multinational companies It combines the merits of a core text on technology transfer via FDI with up to date empirical evidence Central and South-Eastern Europe 2003 Europa Publications, 2002 An in depth survey of the region presenting the latest economic and political developments It includes expert comment on issues of regional importance up to date statistics a directory of institutes and companies and political profiles Privatisation and Its Limits in Central and Eastern Europe H. Engerer, 2001-06-18 Hella Engerer analyses the emergence evolution and theory of property rights and establishes the limits for privatization of state owned enterprises in the transitional economies of Eastern Europe She counters the assumption that reduction of the state sector helps to create the basis for a private property system showing that privatization actually presupposes a stable framework including property order She makes use of an outstanding methodological approach reaching well beyond the limits of pure economic observation This is a major contribution to the understanding of the emerging economic order of Central and Eastern Europe

Reforming the Financial Sector in Central European Countries S. Poloucek, 2016-01-13 The analysis in this book reflects various aspects of financial sector transformation in selected Central European countries that are expected to join the EU in 2004 The authors are Central European financial experts who provide among other things a detailed overview of the following main topics Banking Regulation and Supervision Concentration and Efficiency of the Banking Sectors Financial banking crises in selected Central European countries and Monetary and Exchange Rate Development The results of the research done by these authors reflect an interesting fact that there exist important differences in the financial sector development even in the relatively homogeneous group of selected Central European countries namely the Czech Republic Poland Slovakia and Hungary Financial Participation of Employees in the EU-27 J. Lowitzsch,2009-09-23 This book aims to systematically assess laws and practices close gaps that currently prevent a full profiling of financial participation provide a description of individual countries against the background of comparable scores for the EU 27 and to promote a common platform for financial participation within the European Union

Critical Management Research in Eastern Europe M. Kelemen,M. Kostera,2002-10-23 The process of transition in Eastern European countries is one in which ideas of the past and present both local and Western meet and conflict Presenting a wealth of new ethnographic and interview based research Critical Management Research in Eastern Europe argues that the reform process in Central and Eastern Europe has been dominated by the traditional Western view of management practice However this approach overlooks the fact that certain managerial and organizational practices developed in Central and Eastern Europe may still be appropriate and indeed effective within this particular setting The book brings together authors from both East and West Europe to evaluate how the two systems can best be harmonized which is particularly important in the context of EU enlargement

Banking and Monetary Policy in Eastern Europe Adalbert Winkler,2016-01-26 At the beginning of the transition process the countries of Central and Eastern Europe faced the task of creating a functioning financial system where none had existed before A decade later high level practitioners and well known experts take stock of banking and monetary policy in the region centring on the governance of banks the spread of financial crisis and perspectives for monetary policy and banking sector development

Economics of Institutional Change Tomasz Mickiewicz,2010-08-11 This book a second edition has been significantly expanded and updated It revisits the process of institutional change its characteristics determinants and implications for economic performance

Transformation and European Integration B. Dallago,2006-07-13 The Balkan countries have been looking for good examples and ideas to pursue development and internal integration in destabilized and ethnically complex and conflicting areas This book about transformation in the framework of European outlines the path of the Balkans to European integration

Europeanization, Varieties of Capitalism and Economic Performance in Central and Eastern Europe L. Cernat,2016-01-18 By combining insights from Europeanization globalization varieties of capitalism and policy transfer literature this book reconceptualizes the dynamics taking place during the EU enlargement process and makes a major contribution to the understanding of the relationships between institutional transformation and economic performance

Economic Transition in Central Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States T. Mickiewicz,2005-11-11 Fifteen years ago twenty seven countries in Europe and Central Asia embarked on their economic transition paths For some the outcome was a considerable success Several others are still struggling to shed the inheritance of the past and to correct more recent policy mistakes Why were post Communist recessions so long in some countries and growth disappointing Why was fiscal performance so different Was democracy a factor which facilitated reforms or rather slowed them down This book discusses these questions in the context of new empirical evidence including a critical examination of the main themes in the economics of transition literature The Transformation of State Socialism D. Lane, 2007-09-12 This book considers aspects of transformation of former state socialist countries social and economic outcomes forces in the transformation process problems of consolidation of the new regimes and other scenarios It also looks at alternative types of society that might replace state socialism particularly state capitalism and market socialism

Economic Growth and Structural Features of Transition E. Marelli, M. Signorelli, 2010-01-20 This book examines theoretically and empirically the key aspects and differences of economic growth It provides a comprehensive investigation of the numerous features of development in transition countries covering the last two decades from the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 to the current financial crisis Serbia's Transition M. Uvalic, 2010-05-26 The book analyzes the twenty years of economic transition from socialism to capitalism in Serbia It offers a comprehensive evaluation of the achievements and failures of the transition and explains why its course has been more complex and unique than elsewhere in the former socialist world Divergent Paths in Post-Communist Transformation O. Havrylyshyn, 2006-02-20 The most comprehensive and up to date analysis of the successes and failures of 27 countries post communism transformation Looking at life after the fall of the Berlin wall in 1989 the book examines and contrasts why some countries have virtually completed their transformation to a liberal polity and economy while others lag behind Monetary Integration in Europe H. Tomann, 2016-02-05 Can the European Economic and Monetary Union survive as an institution providing the highest degree of monetary integration Can it withstand crises in international markets and contribute to the stability of the global financial system This book addresses these questions emphasising the need for new forms of economic policy coordination

Varieties of Capitalism in Post-Communist Countries D. Lane, M. Myant, 2016-01-23 This book sets the experiences of former communist countries as they head towards capitalism against the varieties of capitalism paradigm and provides a framework for comparing transformation processes demonstrating how differing heritages of communist and pre communist pasts are leading to different kinds of capitalist economies Transition and Beyond S. Estrin, G. Kolodko, M. Uvalic, 2007-08-10 This book covers a wide variety of aspects of transition in Central and Southeast Europe and the CIS including the socialist legacy privatization and growth skills and banking reforms It also covers the evolution of the global economy beyond transition looking at complexity risk management the optimal transition path and globalization
