The One Offering M. F. Sadler, 2023-12-13 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost Whose Sacrifice is the Eucharist? Stephen B Sours, 2024-07-26 This book explores what Catholics and Methodists believe about eucharistic sacrifice Eucharistic sacrifice refers to the offering that Christ and his church make in the celebration of the Lord's Supper It is therefore both a Christian doctrine and a church practice The sacrificial dimension of the sacrament comes both from Christ's sacrifice on the cross and from his self offering at the Last Supper in which Christ gives himself to the Father on behalf of his people This is my body which is given for you Luke 22:19 The eucharist is a sacrificial meal because in the bread and cup Christians are united to the body and blood of Christ that was sacrificed for them on the cross Moreover the resurrected Lord is really present with his people in the eucharist and while his historic crucifixion is an event in the past Jesus' salvation continues and his grace is given to his people in the sacrament for this is my blood of the covenant which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins Matthew 26:28 Catholics and Methodists believe that Jesus instructs his followers to repeat his words and actions from the Last Supper in their celebration of the eucharist but a long running assumption is that Catholics and Methodists following the historic Reformation schism are deeply divided over eucharistic sacrifice This book challenges that assumption by analyzing what these churches teach on eucharistic sacrifice from historical sacramental liturgical and ecumenical perspectives Key figures like Thomas Aquinas and John Wesley help define eucharistic sacrifice in each tradition Subsequently authoritative texts such as ecclesial statements eucharistic prayers and hymns further specify what Catholics and Methodists believe they are doing when they offer the eucharist to God Sours argues that far from being divided Catholics and Methodists have much in common regarding this controversial doctrine The Eucharist as Offering of Firstfruits Lawrence Francis Ligoeki, 2017-06-04 One of the difficulties for Protestant Evangelical Pentecostal and other Christians is how to understand the Eucharist as sacrifice offering and oblation A return to ancient Jewish and Christian sources has uncovered the category of the offering of firstfruits This is found in a lesser degree among Second Temple Judaism and to a greater degree in early Christian literature beginning with the New Testament itself This has brought renewed interest in understanding the Eucharist not only in the context of the Feast of Passover but also in light of the Feast of Pentecost and the offering of firstfruits and within the context of the Zebach t d that is the sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving This has strong implications for a theological liturgical spiritual and practical awakening in understanding the Eucharist as Sacrifice In the Eucharist the Church offers the firstfruits of creation Christ and also herself to the Father in the Holy Spirit Each member is called to actively participate in the Eucharistic sacrifice through which they themselves become a Holy and Living sacrifice for the life of the world This has implications for a renewed Eucharistic spirituality and worship the

Kilmartin,2015-09-22 In the light of its own history the Catholic theology of the Eucharist as it is generally understood today is revealed as a splinter tradition whose deficiencies call for fundamental reformulation The valid aspects of that theology for example the recovery of the role of the Holy Spirit in the new Roman Eucharistic Prayers must be identified and integrated with the faith and practice of the first theological millennium when the lex orandi was not so dominated by the lex credendi In the third theological millennium more attention to the content and structure of the classical Eucharistic Prayers of both East and West will result in a Catholic systematic theology of eucharistic sacrifice that is not only truer to its biblical and patristic foundations but also of ecumenical import closer to some of the theological insights of the Protestant Reformers These highlights of The Eucharist in the West illustrate the great value of this posthumous work Conceptually complete but in only rough draft form at the time of Father Kilmartin's death it has been edited and prepared for publication by Robert J Daly SJ Chapter one describes the characteristics of the eucharistic theology of the Western Latin Fathers Chapter two identifies the more important orientations and developments of the Catholic tradition from early medieval Scholasticism up to the first part of the twelfth century Chapter three singles out the special contribution of early Scholasticism to Latin eucharistic theology Chapter four functions as a bridge from early Scholasticism to high Scholasticism by outlining the general approach to a synthetic theology of the Eucharist which was obtained at the beginning of the thirteenth century Chapter five treats eucharistic theology from high Scholasticism to the Council of Trent Chapter six summarizes the dogmatic teaching of the Council of Trent This is followed in Chapter seven by a treatment of salient features of post Tridentine Eucharistic theology Chapter eight includes an analysis of the practice and theology of Mass stipends Chapter nine includes a detailed analysis of Aquinas's theology of the eucharistic sacrifice Chapter ten offers an account of some recent contributions to the formulation of a theology of the eucharistic sacrifice which have contributed to the modern average Roman Catholic synthesis Robert J Daly SJ is a professor of theology at Boston College and former editor of Theological Studies Edward J Kilmartin SJ 1923 1994 professor for liturgical theology at the Pontifical Oriental Institute in Rome taught theology first at the Weston Jesuit School of Theology and later at Boston College He served as director of the doctoral program in liturgical studies at the University of Notre Dame

The Eucharistic Offering George Henry Somerset Walpole, 1894 The Eucharistic Offering George Henry Somerset Walpole, 1894 The Eucharist Church of England. House of Bishops, 2001 The Eucharist Sacrament of Unity sets out the teaching of the Church of England within the Anglican Communion on the Eucharist It discusses the following questions Why is it so important How is Christ present Is the Eucharist a sacrifice in any sense Why do Anglicans offer eucharistic hospitality to members of other churches and expect to receive it from them In 1998 the Roman Catholic Bishops of England and Wales Ireland and Scotland issued One Bread One Body and invited ecumenical responses In this courteous but robust reply the House of Bishops shows that the Church of England upholds the faith of the Church concerning the Eucharist and justifies eucharistic sharing

The Holy Eucharist the Christian Peace-offering: a Sermon [on 1 Cor. X. 18]. With a Postscript, Etc John Bacchus Dykes, 1867 A Companion to Anglican Eucharistic Theology Brian Douglas, 2011-11-25 Anglican eucharistic theology varies between the different philosophical assumptions of realism and nominalism Whereas realism links the signs of the Eucharist with what they signify in a real way nominalism sees these signs as reminders only of past and completed transaction This book begins by discussing the multifomity of the philosophical assumptions underlying Anglican eucharistic theology and goes on to present extensive case study material which exemplify these different assumptions from the Reformation to the Nineteenth century By examining the multiformity of philosophical assumptions this book avoids the hermeneutic idealism of particular church parties and looks instead at the Anglican eucharistic tradition in a more critical manner

The Eucharistic Theology of Edward Bouverie Pusey Brian Douglas, 2015-08-25 In The Eucharistic Theology of Edward Bouverie Pusey 1800 1882 and Regius Professor of Hebrew at Oxford University from 1828 to 1882 Brian Douglas offers a critical account of Pusey s eucharistic theology set in the context of his life and work at Oxford and as the leader of the nineteenth century Oxford Movement Pusey has often been characterised as conservative and obscurantist but in this book Douglas critically assesses Pusey s eucharistic theology as a consistent expression of moderate realism which is both wise and creative The book analyses Pusey s extensive written output on eucharistic theology and ends with a reassessment of Pusey as a theologian portraying him as a thinker owing much to Scripture the early church Fathers Anglican divines and philosophical reflection Pusey is also seen to anticipate modern eucharistic theology Reassessments of Pusey in the modern era are rare and this book contributes to a significant gap in the literature

A History of the Doctrine of the Holy Eucharist Darwell Stone, 1909 The Oxford Handbook of Sacramental Theology Hans Boersma, Matthew Levering, 2015-08-06 As a multi faceted introduction to sacramental theology the purposes of this Handbook are threefold historical ecumenical and missional The forty four chapters are organized into the following parts five parts Sacramental Roots in Scripture Patristic Sacramental Theology Medieval Sacramental Theology From the Reformation through Today and Philosophical and Theological Issues in Sacramental

Doctrine Contributors to this Handbook explain the diverse ways that believers have construed the sacraments both in inspired Scripture and in the history of the Church's practice. In Scripture and the early Church, Orthodox, Protestants, and Catholics all find evidence that the first Christian communities celebrated and taught about the sacraments in a manner that Orthodox, Protestants, and Catholics today affirm as the foundation of their own faith and practice. Thus, for those who want to understand what has been taught about the sacraments in Scripture and across the generations by the major thinkers of the various Christian traditions, this Handbook provides an introduction. As the divisions in Christian sacramental understanding and practice are certainly evident in this Handbook, it is not thereby without ecumenical and missional value. This book evidences that the story of the Christian sacraments is, despite divisions in interpretation and practice, one of tremendous hope.

Non-communicating Attendance William John Sparrow-Simpson, 1913 The Holy Bible, in the Authorized Version: The Book of the Prophet Isaiah (2nd ed., 1869), 1869 Doxology 35.3 Mark W. Stamm, Richard L. Eslinger, Heather Josselyn-Cranson, Derek Ryan Kubilus, Doxology a journal of worship and the sacramental life Volume 35 3 Ordinary Time 2024 Founded in 1984 Doxology a journal of worship and the sacramental life is a quarterly peer-reviewed journal published by the Order of Saint Luke OSL Publications. A Gospel Contrary! Timothy F. Kauffman, Robert M. Zins, 2023-05-20 One of the foremost and widely recognized Roman Catholic apologists, Patrick Madrid, published Answer Me This to provide factual, convincing answers to people's questions about Catholicism. Upon inspection, we find his answers to be neither factual nor convincing. What Madrid has demonstrated for us rather is the typical approach of a Roman Catholic apologist to overwhelm the ignorant and the naïve with sweeping claims, historical glosses, and logical leaps that crumble under even modest scrutiny. When subjected to sober investigation, the Roman religion is exposed as the novelty it clearly is. Throughout his arguments, Madrid criticizes the inquirer for not being familiar with Scripture and history. Yet it is Madrid who is ignorant, misreading, and misunderstanding the source material, overplaying his hand, and outrunning his coverage at every turn.
