Eucharistic Breadbaking As Ministry:

Eucharistic Bread-Baking As Ministry Tony Begonja, 1991-01-01 Eucharistic Minister Nancy Gaudette, 2001 Ideal for those just beginning their ministry and for ministry veterans to affirm their call to service Each 48 page booklet offers practical advice questions for reflection personal testimonies simple prayers for either group or individual use and spiritual enrichment in a format that is clear and easy to use Mission, Ministry, Order David Noel Power, 2008-06-01 What is the mission of the church What are the ministries that further its mission How should the traditional orders of bishop overseer priest presbyter and deacon be reconsidered in the light of 21st century challenges and ecumenical unity These big questions involve a constellation of neuralgic issues both within the Roman Catholic Church and between it and its sister churches both East and West women priests women bishops married priests lay ministries the unaccountability of bishops to their flocks The rapid decline of priests in the US has led to an enormous number of lay people in leadership positions but they can't preside at the Eucharist the heart and soul of Catholic identity and practice and their roles are nebulous undefined and severely constrained Catholic women are voting with their feet over the church's failure to ordain women Lay theologians men and women now outnumber priest theologians but have little standing in the church outside of academia Far reaching agreements on theological issues have been made between Roman Catholicism and Anglicanism and Lutheranism but the practical consequences e.g. shared Eucharists are nil It is against this background that David Power the doyen of sacramental theologians in North America has written a magisterial work on the mission ministry and order of the church that is historically comprehensive theologically progressive ecumenically and globally focused and practical in its prescriptions

Models of the Eucharist, Second Edition Irwin, Kevin W., 2020 In this book updated with the texts of the third edition of the Roman Missal Kevin Irwin reflects on the jewel in the crown of Catholicism the celebration of the Eucharist His book theological pastoral and contemporary is essentially concerned with issues about the Eucharist that face us today decades after the truly historic and unprecedented revisions that took after the Second Vatican Council Some of these concerns are the result of unforeseen developments about the Eucharist resulting from other factors for example the decline in numbers of clergy which has led in some places to Sunday celebrations without the Mass Other concerns arise from a lack of proper catechesis about the Mass and a keen desire to understand why and how the Eucharist is at the center of Catholic life In addition to being expressly theological this book is also expressly pastoral in that it is a reflection on the life lived by the church as it enacts the Eucharist and seeks to live out what the Eucharist celebrates The book is aimed at the audience of educated Catholics who seek a deeper appreciation of what the Eucharist is and who want to appropriate that understanding in the way they live their lives This book will be of particular interest to pastoral ministers both those present and those in training and the communities of faith whom they serve Exploring Practices of Ministry Pamela Cooper-White, Michael Cooper-White, 2014-12-01 Fortress Press Foundations for Learning series prepares students for academic success through compelling resources that kick start their educational journey into professional Christian ministry In Exploring Practices of Ministry Pamela Cooper White and Michael Cooper White share insights from their extensive experience as parish ministers church agency executives and seminary educators in diverse multicultural and international contexts Pamela an Episcopal priest who teaches pastoral theology care and counseling is also a pastoral psychotherapist with an extensive clinical background Michael a Lutheran pastor and seminary president is also a pilot and flight instructor and has served as a chaplain with the Civil Air Patrol The authors share their wisdom with seminarians and other readers seeking to deepen theological reflection and expand skills as ministry practitioners While not all readers are preparing to be ordained ministers most will engage in many of the practices described in the book preaching and public speaking teaching leading liturgies conducting ceremonies counseling and offering pastoral support for persons undergoing life transitions and serving as organizational leaders in congregations chaplaincies social ministries and in the public arena This book is a companion journal for pilgrims on the way to becoming confident practitioners of ministry

The Meal That Reconnects Mary E. McGann, 2020-03-03 2021 Catholic Media Association Award first place award in Catholic Social Teaching In The Meal That Reconnects Dr Mary McGann RSCJ invites readers to a more profound appreciation of the sacredness of eating the planetary interdependence that food and the sharing of food entails and the destructiveness of the industrial food system that is supplying food to tables globally She presents the food crisis as a spiritual crisis a call to rediscover the theological ecological and spiritual significance of eating and to probe its challenge to Christian eucharistic practice Drawing on the origins of Eucharist in Jesus's meal fellowship and the worship of early Christians McGann invites communities to reclaim the foundational meal character of eucharistic celebration while offering pertinent strategies for this renewal

The Visiting Minister Paul Monk, 2022-06-07 SLG Press Vestry Guides 1 There are many reasons why a church may have a visitor coming to celebrate their services for them and the incumbent is not always available to help if the occasion is unexpected Anything from illness of the incumbent to awaiting the appointment of a new priest can mean that the minister who celebrates the service might be a visitor who does not know the church and will need introducing to its in house styles and customs The group inviting visitors will therefore need to liaise with the visitor and prepare the church ready for worship This short guide is written to help in these tasks of preparation Its checklists and images comprise a simple guide explaining what needs to be done to support the visitor and make sure the service runs smoothly
