of the Gospel and its presentation of such themes as christology discipleship miracles and Israel Several chapters also outline and demonstrate the hermeneutical methods underlying Luz's acclaimed commentary on Matthew for which this book can serve as a companion Luz is particularly conscious of the Gospel's reception history a history of interpretation connecting us with the past that determines so many of our questions categories and values Studies in Matthew thus constitutes a noteworthy contribution to biblical hermeneutics as well as to exegesis Signs of Freedom German Martinez, 2003

Modern secular culture has severely eroded the religious foundations on which traditional sacramental practice was based Built upon the sacramental bedrock the very Christian identity and mission were affected German Martinez looks at this challenge from the perspective of freedom as an opportunity to develop a sacramental worldview relevant to the new millennium To this effect he applies a series of methodologies and fresh pastoral approaches to the highly complex sacramental reality and to each individual sacrament Beginning with ten key interpretative elements he offers a coherent synthesis of the remarkable development of sacramental theology in our time Envisioned for both scholarly research and pastoral ministry this book presents the key issues of a renewed sacramentality rooted in ordinary life and celebrated in the liturgical mystery This theology is grounded in a biblical patristic historical and theological background It tries to articulate especially the Christological ecclesial individual and social aspects of the celebration of the sacraments as a dynamic and organic whole emphasizing their spirituality The material is organized into four parts the Sacramental Way of Life the Initiation and Foundational Church the Healing Church the Church at the service of Communion Highlights scholarly yet pastorally sensitive perfect text for courses on the sacraments solid one volume comprehensive text The Eucharistic Faith Ralph McMichael, 2019-09-30 Theology began with the appearances of the risen Jesus That is theology began when persons were confronted with a presence that could only be realized by the act of God In The Eucharistic Faith the first of a significant new systematic theology of the Eucharist Ralph N McMichael weaves liturgy and theology together to understand the ways in which theology and Christian faith are at heart about the receiving of the gift of Jesus life in Communion

Stories of the Eucharist Heidi Hess Saxton, 2024-05-06 Throughout the Church's history holy men and women have found that one of the best and most reliable ways to get close to Jesus is through the Eucharist By reading and sharing their stories in our families we can imitate Jesus in a very important way extending his mercy again and again that the Kingdom of God might shine a little more brightly in the world Stories of the Eucharist invites families to celebrate the transforming power of the Eucharist in our lives by exploring eucharistic miracles and saints who had deep devotion to the Real Presence of Jesus This book celebrates in word and illustration forty people and events that reveal how Christ has bestowed graces and even miracles on his people through the Eucharist As you read these stories from the span of Christian tradition with your family you will experience in a new way the power of the Eucharist and teach your children to open their hearts to the greatest mystery of our Faith Eucharist Dennis J. Billy, 2024-06-18 Diamonds are beautiful and precious gems The gift of a diamond says something about the beauty one person sees in another In Eucharist Exploring the Diamond of Our Faith Dennis Billy meditates on the various facts of the Eucharist described in the writings of the New Testament Jesus left the mysterious gift of the Eucharist to his disciples as a precious diamond because of the hidden beauty he saw in their hearts In turn they became keenly aware of the intimate connection between the breaking of the bread of life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ In an engaging style Fr Dennis Billy looks with the eyes of faith at the significant passages on the Eucharist in the four gospels Acts and the letters of Paul He guides readers in delving more deeply into the meaning of these passages to appreciate more fully the tremendous gift of the Eucharist and its meaning for our lives Reflection questions at the end of each chapter help readers personalize the content of this book Eucharist Exploring the Diamond of Our Faith is an excellent resource for individual and group meditation and study as well as a reference for catechists teachers RCIA leaders and anyone involved in faith formation

The Eucharistic Liturgy Jameson K. Pallikunnil, 2017-03-20 The Malankara Mar Thoma Syrian Church exists as a hybrid church by blending the Eastern liturgical elements of the Oriental Orthodox Church and the evangelical ideas of the Protestant Reformation of the sixteenth century This Church is a bridging church connecting Protestantism and Oriental Orthodoxy The reformation in the Malankara Church 1836 instigated a new impetus for this church in constructing an ecclesial identity and pattern of mission A major missiological imperative employed by CMS missionaries in India was solely centered on the scripture Against this popular understanding the Mar Thoma Church through its reformation process showed that liturgy can also be an imperative for mission The translation and revision of the Eucharistic liturgy is the basic visible expression of reformation in the Malankara Church Hence this book explicitly places how the Eucharistic liturgy of the Mar Thoma Church is observed as the foundation for mission in its course of growth In order to accomplish this objective the writer has examined the historical evolution and the developmental process of the Eucharistic liturgy of the church which is a revised version of the liturgy of St James In a nutshell this study is an appraisal of various missiological themes reflected in the Eucharistic liturgy of the church This study throws ample light on how the Mar Thoma Church integrated liturgy and evangelism in its course of development The writer systematically illustrates how the church made a serious effort to bring missional themes employed in the liturgy into the practical realm by its ancillary organizations convention gatherings and sociocharitable works This volume asserts that an emphasis on Eucharist centred ecclesiology guides and motivates the church to enliven a mission oriented life which is crucial for accomplishing a relevant mission

Reinterpreting the Eucharist Anne F. Elvey, Carol Hogan, Kim Power, Claire Renkin, 2014-10-14 The Eucharist continues to be central to contemporary Christian religious tradition and to be the focus for a wide range of assumptions and disputes Chief amongst these disputes is the role of women in the theology and the ritual of the Eucharist Reinterpreting the Eucharist brings together a diverse range of voices with each using their own marginalized experience to explore other ways indigenous culture medieval and contemporary art social history and environmental ethics of engaging with the Eucharist Presenting new forms of theological and ethical engagement the book responds to the challenge of reconsidering the meaning of the Eucharist today

Angels and Anchoritic Culture in Late Medieval England Joshua S. Easterling, 2021-08-19 The monograph series Oxford Studies in Medieval Literature and Culture showcases the plurilingual and multicultural quality of medieval literature and actively seeks to promote research that not only focuses on the array of subjects medievalists now pursue in literature theology and philosophy in social political jurisprudential and intellectual history the history of art and the history of science but also that combines these subjects productively It offers innovative studies on topics that may include but are not limited to manuscript and book history languages and literatures of the global Middle Ages race and the post colonial the digital humanities media and performance music medicine the history of affect and the emotions the literature and practices of devotion the theory and history of gender and sexuality ecocriticism and the environment theories of aesthetics medievalism This volume examines Latin and vernacular writings that formed part of a flourishing culture of mystical experience in the later Middle Ages ca 1150-1400 including the ways in which visionaries within their literary milieu negotiated the tensions between personal charismatic inspiration and their allegiance to church authority It situates texts written in England within their wider geographical and intellectual context through comparative analyses with contemporary European writings A recurrent theme across all of these works is the challenge that a largely masculine and clerical culture faced in the form of the various and potentially unruly spiritualities that emerged powerfully from the twelfth century onward Representatives of these major spiritual developments including the communities that fostered them were often collaborative in their expression For example holy women including nuns recluses and others were recognized by their supporters within the church for their extraordinary spiritual graces even as these individual expressions of piety were in many cases at variance with securely orthodox religious formations These writings become eloquent witnesses to a confrontation between inner revelatory experience and the needs of the church to set limitations upon charismatic spiritualities that with few exceptions carried the seeds of religious dissent Moreover while some of the most remarkable texts at the centre of this volume were authored and or primarily read by women the intellectual and religious concerns in play cut across the familiar and all too conventional boundaries of gender and social and institutional affiliation

Eucharistic Origins, Revised Edition Paul F. Bradshaw, 2023-06-20 Eucharistic Origins was published a number of years ago This revised edition continues to incorporate the work of the latest liturgical scholars in establishing that the earliest Christian celebrations arose out of varied forms of their ritual meals and not out of the Last Supper The custom of centering Christian practice in ritual meals seems to have lasted for about one hundred and fifty years before it began to be replaced by morning meetings at which the sacrament was distributed and subsequently by a complete celebration of the Eucharist It is here in the third and fourth centuries and not in the distant Jewish past that the forms of the classical eucharistic prayers emerged and developed The most important of these are presented in full and their theology discussed
