Eucharistic Way:

Eucharist: A Guide for the Perplexed Ralph N. McMichael, 2010-06-17 What is the Eucharist This direct question would seem to yield an equally direct answer However as soon as we begin to answer it we encounter an array of responses layered with various complexities The answer is shaped by who answers for example a roman catholic an Anglican or a Baptist Perhaps even the name Eucharist would be contested Answers to this question would reflect not only confessional differences but also the spectrum of theological and liturgical perspectives across Christianity In this book Ralph McMichael analyses these complexities perplexities raised by asking this questions A Eucharistic Vision and the Spirituality of St Francis of Assisi Mark Turnham Elvins, 2007 Devotion to the Sacrament of Christ s Body and Blood lies at the heart of the spirituality of St Francis and his vision was to inspire the Church s development over the succeeding centuries Writing in this Franciscan tradition Br Mark offers his own insights on the Eucharist and St Francis insights that were first shared at an annual retreat of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal This book provides a unique series of meditations for Eucharistic devotion Although each is a separate reflection on the Eucharist in the life of the Church there is an implied centrality of the Sacrament in the life of any Catholic wishing to deepen the life of prayer In this St Francis can be our model and our guide as one of the original pioneers of extra Eucharistic devotion Just as in the thirteenth century his example helped to renew the life of the Church confronted by many crises so in our own day the Church hedged about with conflict and compromise and with declining vocations is seeing a revival of devotion to the Blessed Sacrament as perhaps the first sign of renewal He writes about spirituality as a lived experience of God shared by all whether they know it or not Mark Elvin s book will hopefully deepen our awareness of God s presence in both the Eucharist and the world Rt Rev Patrick O Donoghue Bishop of Lancaster Br Mark Fr Mark Elvins is a Capuchin friar Born in 1939 at Whitstable Br Mark took an MA at London University and a graduate diploma in spirituality at Dublin He is the author of Cardinals and Heraldry and of three other books published by Gracewing Catholic Trivia Gospel Chivalry and Towards a People s Liturgy The Eucharist, Poetics, and Secularization from the Middle Ages to Milton Shaun Ross, 2023-03-22 The Eucharist Poetics and Secularization from the Middle Ages to Milton explains the astonishing centrality of the eucharist to poets with a variety of denominational affiliations writing on a range of subjects across an extended period in literary history Whether they are praying thinking about politics lamenting unrequited love or telling fart jokes late medieval and early modern English poets return again and again to the eucharist as a way of working out literary problems Tracing this connection from the fourteenth through the seventeenth century this book shows how controversies surrounding the nature of signification in the sacrament informed understandings of poetry Connecting medieval to early modern England it presents a history of eucharistic poetics as it appears in the work of seven key poets the Pearl poet Chaucer Robert Southwell John Donne George Herbert Richard Crashaw and John Milton Reassessing this range of poetic voices The Eucharist Poetics and Secularization overturns an oft repeated argument that early modern poetry's fascination with the eucharist resulted from the Protestant rejection of transubstantiation and its supposedly enchanted worldview. Instead of this tired secularization story, it fleshes out a more capacious conception of eucharistic presence showing that what interested poets about the eucharist was its insistence that the mechanics of representation are always entangled with the self's relation to the body and to others. The book thus forwards a new historical account of eucharistic poetics placing this literary phenomenon within a longstanding negotiation between embodiment and disembodiment in Western religious and cultural history.

The Eucharistic Vision of Laudato Si

Lucas Briola, 2022-12-28

No other encyclical has generated as much conversation both Catholic and non-Catholic as Laudato si. Often forgotten in these conversations is the theological heart and eucharistic vision of the encyclical and its integral ecology. Even the title of Laudato si, Praised be, signals the centrality of right praise in caring for our common home. Using Bernard Lonergan's theology of history, this book unearths the doxological eucharistic vision that shapes the encyclical's integral presentation of social and ecological conversion. It offers the first book-length study that recovers the eucharistic nature of Laudato si. In drawing out the eucharistic vision of Laudato si, the book accomplishes several feats for the reader. It roots the eucharistic dimensions of the encyclical in the writings of Popes John Paul II and Benedict XVI, showing how Pope Francis develops their thought in notable ways. It introduces Bernard Lonergan's theology of history, showing how his framework can capture the eucharistic contours of caring for our common home. So too, in light of Laudato si, does the book expand his theology of history to incorporate both ecological concern and the doxological eucharistic essence of the church. The book assembles a liturgically shaped systematic account of the church's social mission. It joins poles otherwise sundered in a polarized church and world: between worship and justice, between concerns for human life and concerns for the natural world. Realizing the eucharistic vision of Laudato si promises much for our contemporary moment. Pope Francis recently observed that the integral ecology of Laudato si holds the key for the world's recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic. The U.S. Catholic Bishops recently launched a Eucharistic Revival that aims to rekindle eucharistic devotion and praxis. The Eucharistic Vision of Laudato Si: Praise, Conversion, and Integral Ecology supplies a timely study that helps fulfill these intertwined calls.

The Eucharistic Prayer at Sunday Mass

Down in the valley, God asked the prophet Ezekiel a mighty question: "Mortal, can these dry bones live?" (Ezekiel 37:3). Today, this question is being posed once more to those who are charged with the preparation and celebration of the Sunday liturgy: the assembly that celebrates the ministers from within that assembly who prepare and serve and those ordained as priests or bishops who preside. We have come a long way since the early days of the conciliar reform of the liturgy. Assemblies respond and sing; the word is proclaimed with dignity and reverence; careful attention is given to environment and season; and all come to the communion table. Many assemblies strive to realize fully, week after week, the vision of the Council that the eucharistic liturgy be seen, heard, felt, and smelt as the summit toward which the activity of the church is directed, the source from which all its power flows This is critical work if we are utterly convinced that the preeminent manifestation of the church is present in the full active participation of all God's holy people in these liturgical celebrations But many still know liturgical assemblies that are but shadows of who they are called to be and celebrations are slivers of what they could be Many stand at the brink of the valley and behold dry bones And when we come to the eucharistic prayer named the central prayer of the Sunday liturgy we behold very dry bones indeed The question is put forth Can these dry bones live We have come to realize that liturgy is something people do something people live The eucharistic prayer is more than its words It is a way of praying and living What lies in the ritual book must be enfolded when we gather We come together and breathe life into our rituals and their words We can do this because we have first been sealed in the Spirit the one who aids us in our weakness to pray that the very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words Romans 8:26 from Chapter 1 The Eucharistic Faith Ralph McMichael, 2019-09-30 In The Eucharistic Faith the first of a significant new systematic theology of the Eucharist Ralph McMichael weaves liturgy and theology together to understand the ways in which theology and Christian faith are at heart about the receiving of the gift of Jesus' life in Communion Building a Eucharistic Pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea Hyung Seop Shin, 2013-04-29 Based on the critical conversations between education liturgy sociology and theology this book suggests an alternative eucharistic pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea by reforming eucharistic and curricular practices with attention to students' specific local contexts This process includes the formulation of the definition of the new eucharistic pedagogy the reconceptualization of concepts regarding the eucharistic pedagogy and five steps as pedagogical strategies for a new eucharistic pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea including pedagogical guidelines for teachers and students This book will open the door for further educational and liturgical discussions of the work of contextualization in churches around the world Even though this study investigates a contextual pedagogy limited to the PCK this task needs attention and study in a larger context beyond the PCK The gospel is the worldwide truth that cannot be limited to a certain culture but becomes incarnated into each local culture Therefore this kind of contextual investigation between the gospel and culture will not be optional but imperative to all churches Joseph Ratzinger Maximilian Heinrich Heim, 2007 This is a major work on the theology of Joseph Ratzinger by a highly regarded German theologian priest and writer Since his election to the Papacy Ratzinger's theology and in particular his ecclesiology theology of the Church has been in the limelight of theological and ecumenical discussions This work studies in detail Ratzinger's ecclesiology in the light of Vatican II against the ongoing debate about what Vatican II really meant to say about the life of the Church its liturgy its worship its doctrine its pastoral mission and more Resisting Violence and Victimisation Joel Hodge, 2016-03-23 The reality and nature of religious faith raises difficult questions for the modern world questions that re-present themselves when faith has grown under the most challenging circumstances In East Timor widespread Christian faith emerged when suffering and violence were inflicted on the people by the state This book seeks a deeper understanding of faith and violence exploring how Christian faith and solidarity affected the hope and resistance of the East Timorese under Indonesian occupation in their response to state sanctioned violence Joel Hodge argues for an understanding of Christian faith as a relational phenomenon that provides personal and collective tools to resist violence Grounded in the work of mimetic theorist Ren Girard Hodge contends that the experience of victimisation in East Timor led to an important identification with Jesus Christ as self giving victim and formed a distinctive communal and ecclesial solidarity The Catholic Church opened spaces of resistance and communion that allowed the Timorese to imagine and live beyond the violence and death perpetrated by the Indonesian regime Presenting the East Timorese stories under occupation and Girard s insights in dialogue this book offers fresh perspectives on the Christian Church s ecclesiology and mission

Commodified Communion Antonio Eduardo Alonso, 2021-06-01 WINNER 2021 HTI BOOK PRIZE Resist This exhortation animates a remarkable range of theological reflection on consumer culture in the United States And for many theologians the source and summit of Christian cultural resistance is the Eucharist In Commodified Communion Antonio Eduardo Alonso calls into question this dominant mode of theological reflection on contemporary consumerism Reducing the work of theology to resistance and centering Christian hope in a Eucharist that might better support it he argues undermines our ability to talk about the activity of God within a consumer culture By reframing the question in terms of God s activity in and in spite of consumer culture this book offers a lived theological account of consumer culture that recognizes not only its deceptions but also traces of truth in its broken promises and fallen hopes

Communion and Otherness John D. Zizioulas, 2010-07-15 Communion and otherness how can these be reconciled In this wide ranging study the distinguished Orthodox theologian Metropolitan John Zizioulas of Pergamon seeks to answer that question In his celebrated book Being as Communion 1985 he emphasised the importance of communion for life and for unity In this important companion volume he now explores the complementary fact that communion is the basis for true otherness and identity With a constant awareness of the deepest existential questions of today Metropolitan John probes the Christian tradition and highlights the existential concerns that already underlay the writings of the Greek fathers and the definitions of the early ecumenical councils In a vigorous and challenging way he defends the freedom to be other as an intrinsic characteristic of personhood fulfilled only in communion After a major opening chapter on the ontology of otherness written specially for this volume the theme is systematically developed with reference to the Trinity Christology anthropology and ecclesiology Another new chapter defends the idea that the Father is cause of the Trinity as taught by the Cappadocian fathers and replies to criticisms of this view The final chapter responds to the customary separation of ecclesiology from mysticism and strongly favours a mystical understanding of the body of Christ as a whole Other papers previously published but some not easily obtainable are all revised for their inclusion here This is a further contribution to dialogue on some of the most vital issues for theology and the Church from one of the leading figures in modern ecumenism

The Eucharist Diana Macalintal, 2009 This faith formation program introduces young Catholic adolescents to Jesus Christ in a new way and inspires them to follow him Fostering the faith of young adolescents involves helping them to make connections between the Catholic faith and everyday life God-Walk Frederick Herzog,2008-07-01 Challenging and disturbing and ultimately healing Robert McAfee Brown author of Liberation Theology An Introductory Guide Frederick Herzog was Professor at the Duke University Divinity School He served on numerous commissions of the World Council of Churches and the United Church of Christ In the spring of 1970 he wrote the first North American article on liberation theology and in 1972 his Liberation Theology was published a study of the Fourth Gospel described by Robert McAfee Brown as a pioneer North American work In Justice Church Herzog continues his pioneering work with a North American methodology of liberation theology Liturgical Theology Revisited Stephen Edmondson,2015-06-24 Something happens at the eucharistic table When Jesus story meets Jesus presence Jesus happens there and the hungry are fed Christians beliefs that they believe and what they believe are formed by Jesus happening This book explores the theology inscribed on communities through their encounter with Jesus at the table It begins with the theology of radical grace embodied in the invitation of everyone baptized or not to the table and it addresses from this vantage the whole of the Christian life the truth of Jesus the work of the Spirit the significance of baptism and the integrity and mission of the church

In-Between God Stephen Pickard,2011-12-28 In Between God explores three important areas for contemporary Christianity theology community and discipleship Part One inquires into the rhythms of faith as it interacts with themes of uncertainty and doubt the nature of theological discourse the task of systematic theology evangelism and the various ways in which theology is done Part Two discusses the importance of place in relation to the church and themes of innovation undecideability and new forms of monastic community Part Three addresses themes in discipleship simplicity mysticism the passions and pilgrimage A red thread connecting these essays is the character of the triune God who is the energy and life in between all things Evangelicals on the Canterbury Trail Robert E. Webber,Lester Ruth,2013-01-01 Why do so many evangelicals flock to liturgical traditions today Robert Webber first explored the question in this thoughtful and engaging classic in 1989 now evangelical scholar and pastor Lester Ruth updates the conversation Much remains of Webber s beloved original text including his discussion of Anglicanism s six great gifts mystery and awe Christ centered worship sacramental reality historical identity participation in catholic traditions and holistic spirituality Ruth adds fresh stories from evangelicals who have followed Webber s footsteps on the Canterbury trail along with new essays that highlight the diversity of Anglican expressions today Eating Beauty Ann W. Astell,2016-02-09 The enigmatic link between the natural and artistic beauty that is to be contemplated but not eaten on the one hand and the eucharistic beauty that is both seen with the eyes of faith and eaten on the other intrigues me and inspires this book One cannot ask theo aesthetic questions about the Eucharist without engaging fundamental questions about the relationship between beauty art broadly defined and eating from Eating Beauty In a remarkable book that is at once learned startlingly original and highly personal Ann W Astell explores the ambiguity of the phrase eating beauty The phrase evokes the destruction of beauty the devouring mouth of the grave the mouth of hell To eat beauty is to destroy it Yet in the case of the Eucharist the person of faith who eats the Host is transformed into beauty itself literally incorporated into Christ In this sense Astell explains the Eucharist was productive of an entire way of life a virtuous life form an artwork with Christ himself as the principal artist The Eucharist established for the people of the Middle Ages distinctive schools of sanctity Cistercian Franciscan Dominican and Ignatian whose members were united by the eucharistic sacrament that they received Reading the lives of the saints not primarily as historical documents but as iconic expressions of original artworks fashioned by the eucharistic Christ Astell puts the faceless Host in a dynamic relationship with these icons With the advent of each new spirituality the Christian idea of beauty expanded to include first the marred beauty of the saint and finally that of the church torn by division an anti aesthetic beauty embracing process suffering deformity and disappearance as well as the radiant lightness of the resurrected body This astonishing work of intellectual and religious history is illustrated with telling artistic examples ranging from medieval manuscript illuminations to sculptures by Michelangelo and paintings by Salvador Dal Astell puts the lives of medieval saints in conversation with modern philosophers as disparate as Simone Weil and G W F Hegel Jesus and the Miracle Tradition Paul J. Achtemeier, 2008-01-01 Working with selected miracles of Jesus from the canonical Gospel traditions and with background studies in the general understanding of miracles in the Greco Roman world of the Hellenistic period this collection of essays shows how we may understand the theological reasons why the early followers of Jesus included these stories in their traditions that constituted the canonical Gospels Using individual stories from the Gospels three of the essays demonstrate how literary critical analysis can show the theological intent of the miracle story A second set of three essays examines the way Mark and Luke view the miracle tradition within their larger task of writing the story of Jesus A final set of three articles examines the Hellenistic background of such stories and the way they were used in secular and Jewish sources to gain perspective on what the early Christians intended with the miracle stories of Jesus On Earth as in Heaven Bartholomew I (Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople), 2012 As this new volume of his writings reveals His All Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew has continually proclaimed the primacy of spiritual values in determining environmental ethics and action For him the predicament we face is not primarily ecological but in fact spiritual The ultimate aim is to see all things in God and God in all things Blessed Sacrament Book Francis Xavier Lasance, 1913
