Confronting Totalitarian Minds: Jan Patočka on Politics and Dissidence Aspen E. Brinton, 2021-05-01 The Czech philosopher Jan Patočka not only witnessed some of the most turbulent politics of twentieth century Central Europe but shaped his philosophy in response to that tumult One of the last students of Edmund Husserl and Martin Heidegger he inspired Václav Havel and other dissidents who confronted the Communist regime before 1989 as well as being actively involved in authoring and enacting Charter 77 He died in 1977 from medical complications resulting from interrogations of the secret police Confronting Totalitarian Minds examines his legacy along with several contemporary applications of his ideas about dissidence solidarity and the human being's existential confrontation with unjust politics Expanding the current possibilities of comparative political theory the author puts Patočka's ideas about dissidence citizen mobilization and civic responsibility into conversation with notable world historical figures like Mahatma Gandhi Václav Havel Dietrich Bonhoeffer and other contemporary activists In adding a fresh voice to contemporary conversations on transcending injustice Confronting Totalitarian Minds seeks to educate a wider audience about this philosopher's continued relevance to political dissidents across the world

The Risk of Freedom Francesco Tava, 2015-12-11 The Risk of Freedom presents an in depth analysis of the philosophy of Jan Patočka one of the most influential Central European thinkers of the twentieth century examining both the phenomenological and ethical political aspects of his work In particular Francesco Tava takes an original approach to the problem of freedom which represents a recurring theme in Patočka's work both in his early and later writings Freedom is conceived of as a difficult and dangerous experience In his deep analysis of this particular problem Tava identifies the authentic ethical content of Patočka's work and clarifies its connections with phenomenology history of philosophy politics and dissidence The Risk of Freedom retraces Patočka's philosophical journey and elucidates its more problematic and less evident traits such as his original ethical conception his political ideals and his direct commitment as a dissident

Caring for the Soul in a Postmodern Age Edward F. Findlay, 2012-02-01 In 1977 the sixty nine year old Czech philosopher Jan Patočka died from a brain hemorrhage following a series of interrogations by the Czechoslovak secret police A student of Husserl and Heidegger he had been arrested along with young playwright Václav Havel for publicly opposing the hypocrisy of the Czechoslovak Communist regime Patočka had dedicated himself as a philosopher to laying the groundwork of what he termed a life in truth This book analyzes Patočka's philosophy and political thought and illuminates the synthesis in his work of Socratic philosophy and its injunction to care for the soul In bridging the gap not only between Husserl and Heidegger but also between postmodern and ancient philosophy Patočka presents a model of democratic politics that is ethical without being metaphysical and transcendental without being foundational
