Economic Perspective

In economics, people may have diverse perspectives on the same policy or decision, and our own economic perspective affects our personal economic/financial decisions. In addition, economic policies and decisions may benefit some groups while disadvantaging others.

Economic development may have social, cultural, and environmental, as well as direct economic, effects.

Europe Policies And People An Economic Perspective:

Europe, Policies and People S. Hatt, F. Gardner, 2015-12-17 People in Europe have seen their lives profoundly affected by the policies of the European Union The contributors to this book provide an overview of the EU within global capitalism a survey of policies within key issue areas and a treatment of the economics of family care migrant workers and pensioners It concludes with an analysis of the insider outsider dilemmas of the imperfectly united Europe The book takes a social perspective on economic issues and is accessible even to the non specialist

Eurasian Business and Economics Perspectives Mehmet Huseyin Bilgin, Hakan Danis, Ender Demir, 2021-05-31 This book presents selected papers from the 31st Eurasia Business and Economics Society EBES Conference which took place as a virtual conference due to the global COVID 19 health crisis The theoretical and empirical papers gathered here cover diverse areas of business economics and finance in various geographic regions including not only topics from HR management finance marketing but also contributions on public economics political economy and regional studies

Fiscal Federalism and European Economic Integration Mark Baimbridge, Philip Whyman, 2005-06-28 The pace of economic integration amongst European Union EU member states has accelerated considerably during the past decade highlighted by the process of Economic and Monetary Union EMU Many aspects of the EU s apparatus however have failed to evolve in order to meet these new challenges This book explores the issue of fiscal federalism within the context of EU integration from theoretical historical policy and global perspectives It contrasts the pace of integration amongst EU member states with the failure of financial and administrative apparatus to evolve to encompass fiscal federalism i e the development of a centralised budgetary system This impressive collection with contributions from a range of internationally respected authors shall interest students and researchers involved with European economics and economic integration Its accessible style will also make it extremely useful to policy makers and professionals for whom European economic integration is a daily topic of conversation

The European Neighbourhood Policy in a Comparative Perspective Sieglinde Gstohl, 2016-07-22 The European Neighbourhood Policy ENP has evolved into one of the European Union s major foreign policy instruments and received considerable attention However other EU neighbourhood policies and their relevance for the ENP also require examination The Arab uprisings civil wars in Libya and Syria the continuing Israeli Palestinian conflict the crisis in Ukraine and Russia s annexation of the Crimean peninsula have all brought the institutional design and tools of the ENP into question and a comparative perspective is crucial to understand EU neighbourhood policies in a wider sense This timely book puts the ENP into context by exploring the major challenges and key lessons of the EU s other policy frameworks with neighbouring countries Mapping the EU s bilateral and multilateral neighbourhood relations in comparison to the ENP and investigating the major challenges faced it provides a comprehensive up to date view of the EU s relations with its neighbours Focusing on current affairs and future challenges the comparison with the ENP and the lessons to be drawn generate novel insights into the EU s closest external relations This book will be of key interest to students and scholars studying European Politics policies and comparative politics

Political and Legal Perspectives of the EU Eastern Partnership Policy Tanel Kerikmäe, Archil Chocia, 2016-01-23 This book examines EU Eastern Partnership taking into account geopolitical challenges of EU integration It highlights reasons for limited success such as systematic conflict of EU External Action In addition the book analyses country specific issues and discusses EaP influence on them investigating political economic and social factors while seeking for potential solutions to existing problems The reluctance of the Eastern countries to the European reforms should not reduce political pro activeness of the EU The authors suggest that EaP strategies should be reviewed to be more reciprocal and not based solely on the EU laden agenda This book is one of the good examples of cooperation between scholars not only from EaP and EU countries but also from different disciplines bringing diversity to the discussion process

Eurasian Economic Perspectives Mehmet Huseyin Bilgin, Hakan Danis, Gökhan Karabulut, Giray Gözgor, 2020-03-31 This book presents selected papers from the 23rd Eurasia Business and Economics Society EBES Conference held in Madrid Spain While the theoretical and empirical papers presented cover diverse areas of economics and finance in different geographic regions the main focus is on the latest research concerning international trade public economics and regional studies The book also includes studies on the economics of innovation inequality and tourism

EU Law and Economics Armin Steinbach, 2024-12-17 The intersection between law and economics is a dynamic field of research Yet European law has so far not been the subject of comprehensive systematic economic analysis Instead issues such as the European debt crisis COVID 19 pandemic and the climate emergency have largely escaped scholarly analysis through the nexus of EU law and economics EU Law and Economics closes this gap providing an overview of the application of economics to the institutional procedural and substantive aspects of European law Drawing on various branches of the economic sciences including rational choice and game theory and institutional and behavioural economics this book goes beyond conventional methods of EU legal scholarship to expand our understanding of EU law and its effects This book devotes attention to EU Treaties and secondary law as well as their adjudicative interpretation while using economic theory to explain their core legal principles such as conferral subsidiarity and mutual recognition Systematic and original this book offers additional descriptive and normative metrics that expand our understanding of the decision making behaviour of EU institutions and member states while opening a new dialogue between two distinct disciplines This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to download from OUP and selected open access locations

Contemporary Perspectives on Ageism Liat Ayalon, Clemens Tesch-Römer, 2018-05-22 This open access book provides a comprehensive perspective on the concept of ageism its origins the manifestation and consequences of ageism as well as ways to respond to and research ageism The book represents a collaborative effort of researchers from over 20 countries and a variety of disciplines including psychology sociology gerontology geriatrics pharmacology law geography design engineering policy and media studies The contributors have collaborated to produce a truly stimulating and educating book on ageism which brings a clear overview of the state of the art in the field The book serves as a catalyst to generate research policy and public interest in the field of ageism and to reconstruct the image of old age and will be of interest to researchers and students in gerontology and geriatrics

Territorial and Social Inequalities in Europe Martin Heidenreich, 2022-10-28 This book examines social inequalities in Europe especially those caused by economic factors It starts with the paradox of European inequality where on the one hand even total income inequality in Europe is significantly lower than in most parts of the world but on the other Europe is also characterised by profound and durable inequalities within the continent It discusses inequalities caused by the exclusion of marginalised groups from the labour market with considerable and sometimes increasing differences between central and peripheral regions pronounced wealth and labour market inequalities and significant rates of persistent poverty deprivation educational poverty low wages and unemployment The book also discusses broader territorial inequalities which are the basis for divisions between Northern and Southern Europe East and West between qualified and unqualified employees younger and older people men and women and migrants and non migrants The book raises questions about the winners and losers of the social transformations linked to the introduction of the Euro the Eastern enlargement of the EU and the financial and Eurozone crises It is based on a comprehensive analysis of a European wide microdata set on income and living conditions EU SILC The empirical research material which is the first to deploy this data in a comprehensive manner consists of detailed empirical analyses of social divisions and Europeanisation processes in 30 European countries It analyses and explains the transformation of the previously dominant national spaces into a European social space This topical book is of interest to academics and students in the fields of sociology and comparative social sciences along with those studying European regional geography anthropology international relations and international politics

The European Union Illuminated A. El-Agraa, 2015-05-05 The EU is under stress Many believe in the euro's demise because they blame it for the 2008 financial crisis and the unwelcome austerity measures Many resent the immigrants from the new EU member states threatening the survival of the Single European Market Many complain of a Brussels diktat seeking an escape from joint EU decisions Several member states want to unilaterally deal with the enhanced competition from the emerging markets especially China undermining the EU's common commercial policy run by a single EU commissioner And many in the UK want its exit from the EU diluting EU unity and reducing its global influence These concerns are either misguided or require a stronger EU to deal with them this book aims to address these issues by considering the nature importance and future of the European Union

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Socioecological Challenges Anders Siig Andersen, Henrik Hauggaard-Nielsen, Thomas Budde Christensen, Lars Hulgaard, 2023-04-07 This book explores interdisciplinary perspectives on socioecological challenges and offers innovative solutions at both a European and global level This book critically reflects on the latest scientific knowledge regarding the increasing instability of the Earth System caused by human activities during the Anthropocene and the Great Acceleration It focuses on the global and European challenges regarding climate resources bio integrity and environment The authors assess the obstacles to overcoming these challenges and examine the risks posed by path dependencies lock ins and trade offs between global and regional goals They also drill down into the complexities of the European Green Deal specifically the similarities and differences between the scientific analyses and recommendations from the European Environment Agency and the content of the Deal Finally the book looks at the Just Transition put forward by the European Green Deal The authors discuss this in a context of global and European ecological and socioecological challenges and put the question of equality recognition and democratization at the center Outlining new pathways to broaden the scope of scientific collaboration between the natural and technical sciences and the social sciences and the humanities this volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of sustainable development environmental policy and governance and environmental justice

Building Social Work Politics in Europe Katrin Toens, Günter Rieger, 2025-09-26 The profession of social work and its representative bodies are in numerous ways involved in European politics At the same time social work practice is affected by EU regulations coordination funding and jurisdiction in relevant policy fields This book provides a systematic and practice based reflection on the issues of how current political activities in the EU and beyond are social work driven affect social work and give reason for an even deeper involvement of organized social work in European politics Based on a structured dialogue among professors students of social work social workers social NGOs and policymakers this text tackles European policy issues from various perspectives Starting with theoretical reflections the authors discuss the political mandate of social work and how it applies to the EU polity sui generis as well as to the pan European institutional settings of the Council of Europe This is followed by analyses of different European social work policies homeless policy European Social Fund ESF basic income policy prostitution policy and their impact on social services and its clients The next part shifts the focus to actors and institutions The authors asked policy staff of social NGOs human rights organizations churches and social service providers to give their perspectives on how they lobby current EU policy initiatives and regulations regarding social problems Finally authors discuss the state of the art in selected European countries and the question of how social work politics in Europe could be strengthened The volume concludes with concrete examples of participation and career opportunities in European social policy for students and graduates of social work Building Social Work Politics in Europe Research Approaches Practices and Perspectives is a useful and timely text for students of social work at all levels BA MA third cycle schools of social work universities of applied sciences with social work study programs practitioners and executive management of organized social work and social service provision internationally and in Europe in particular

Security and Cross-border Cooperation in the EU, the Black Sea Region and Southern Caucasus Ayça Ergun, Hamlet İşaxanlı, 2013 Proceeding of the NATO Advanced Research Workshop on Security and Cross Border Cooperation in the EU the Black Sea Region and Southern Caucasus Ankara Turkey 23 24 September 2011 Title page verso EU Policies in the Eastern Neighbourhood

Elena Korosteleva, Michal Natorksi, Licinia Simão, 2018-10-24 The EU continuously searches for more effective policy towards its eastern neighbourhood which is reflected in the on going adaptation of its existing approaches discourses and policy strategies to the new challenges of its external environment In order to understand the complexity and limitations of the EU framework under the European Neighbourhood Policy ENP and the Eastern Partnership Initiative EaP that is to consider the interface between policy instruments institutional structures and multiple agents one needs to adopt an original analytical perspective of practices to comprehensively assess the policies outcomes This volume therefore offers an examination of social practices as implemented through the use of policy instruments and subsequently embedded into the existing emergent social structures which shape and determine the EU neighbours relations To gauge success of the ENP in the eastern region the manuscript pulls together a rich collection of geographical and thematic case studies joined by the overarching conceptual framework of practices This study s principal aims are to discern patterns of social practices which guide agents interactions in different policy areas to explore the origin and effect of these practices the role of dominant discourses logistical imbalances deliberate strategies etc and to explicate the nature of the emerging social structures being established in the eastern region This approach is distinctive from other constructivist undertakings as it allows to synergise the meanings of social actions through the focus on agents and instruments and their structural extensions through the focus on emergent structures across geo and bio political localities of the EU and its eastern neighbourhood This book was published as a special issue of East European Politics

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Cross-Border Trade and Business Abdul-Talib, Asmat-Nizam, Zakaria, Norhayati, Abdul-Latif, Samshul-Amry, 2021-12-10 Cross border business transactions have become increasingly important due to new norms of conducting business Cross border business has led to the emergence of multiple business opportunities and challenges to various stakeholders Such global reality cannot simply be ignored thus business entities that operate across national borders need to fully employ global business strategies to compete and survive in the dynamic global environment Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Cross Border Trade and Business captures a multi faceted outlook on international business phenomena particularly when cross border businesses are severely affected by global crises such as the COVID 19 pandemic This book discusses the perspectives of stakeholders from both developed and developing countries as they handled international crises including the COVID 19 pandemic Covering topics such as knowledge acquisition internationalization and small and medium enterprises this book is an essential resource for business executives practitioners policymakers graduate and post graduate students of government or business administration professors researchers and academicians English as a Lingua Franca: Perspectives and Prospects

Marie-Luise Pitzl,Ruth Osimk-Teasdale,2016-07-11 In the past 15 years English as a lingua franca ELF has evolved from a niche topic of a relatively small group of specialists to a highly productive research area that now has a firm place on the map of linguistics Looking back as well as forward this edited volume addresses perspectives and prospects of ELF in connection with other areas of linguistics It is the first volume that brings together ELF scholars with experts from a wide range of areas in linguistics such as corpus linguistics sociolinguistics historical linguistics language pedagogy language policy intercultural communication Adopting an inter transdisciplinary approach the book traces the impact that discussions about ELF have had or may have beyond the study of ELF as such for the conceptualization description methodology pedagogy and politics of English As the book combines external perspectives on ELF provided by well known scholars in diverse fields with a smaller number of internal perspectives provided by prominent ELF scholars it will be of interest not only to students and researchers interested in ELF but also to students and scholars in Applied Linguistics Sociolinguistics and Intercultural Communication
