Competition Law Barry J. Rodger, Angus MacCulloch, 2001-10-17 Competition law at both the EC and UK levels plays an important and ever increasing role in regulating the conduct of businesses Competition law can affect business contracts take overs and mergers co ordinated actions pricing behaviour and also S EU Competition Law and the Financial Services Sector Andrea Lista, 2013-06-07 Competition law is a complex and constantly evolving area of law which affects every aspect of the market economy including the financial services sector This book is a comprehensive and practical guide to the application of the EU competition rules to banking and insurance industries This book is divided into two parts the first part explores the application of Articles 101 102 and 107 TFEU to the insurance industry Emphasis is placed on recent changes which have progressively eroded the block exemption regime that traditionally benefited the insurance industry In the second part of the book focus is on the application of the Articles of TFEU to the banking industry with specific reference to card payment systems which give rise to some of the most intricate antitrust issues in the financial services sector Relevant Commission decisions and European Court of Justice case law are discussed and suggestions are made for an alternative regulatory framework through comparative analysis of US regulations This book will be an invaluable reference point for legal practitioners specialising in EU Competition law as well as postgraduate students and academic researchers working in competition law and the financial services sector Environmental Integration in Competition and Free-Movement Laws Julian Nowag, 2016-11-10 Environmental Integration in Competition and Free Movement Laws engages in a comprehensive analysis of the obligation of Article 11 TFEU integration of environmental protection requirements in the three core areas of EU internal market law competition state aid and free movement It develops a theoretical framework for integrating environmental and other policies and compares how environmental integration takes place within competition state aid and free movement law In turn it paves a way for a more transparent and consistent integration of environment protection in these three core areas of law Structured in three parts this volume I offers a detailed analysis of the historical development of environmental integration including discussions of the various intergovernmental conferences which led to a number of Treaty changes shaping the obligation itself II It investigates which provisions and concepts within competition law state aid law and the market freedoms can be interpreted in order to provide a clear demarcation of environmental protection and these areas of law III It analyses how competition state aid and free movement law allow for a balancing of the environment against restrictions in cases of conflict EU State Aid Control of

Infrastructure Funding Corinne Ruechardt,2018-07-03 The elements of infrastructure roads transportation electricity water communications schools hospitals are so ingrained in the fabric of daily life that few people give a second thought to who provides them and how Yet they are controlled by an extensive and complex regulatory system Moreover the EU s State aid modernization plan has made infrastructure a crucial aspect of competition law How did EU State aid law turn into regulation on whether a city can build a new airport or how it may operate a school And what do the rules actually mean for infrastructure funding These are the questions this book the first comprehensive guide to EU State aid law in this key sector and a major contribution to the debate on the topic seeks to answer In its thorough review of the legal literature as well as relevant legislation and case law this book covers such aspects of the infrastructure State aid nexus as the following role of infrastructure in competition law infrastructure funding as aid and its compatibility with the internal market impact on land development and other ongoing activities sector specific impact of State aid regulation on the design of infrastructure projects risk management and newer infrastructure sectors such as sports and cultural and healthcare projects At many points in the presentation the case by case analysis provides individual appraisals In addition to focusing on the complex rules and how they have been interpreted in the decisional practice of the Commission and in the EU case law this book provides deeply informed proposals for reform This is a key work in a field of EU law that has developed and changed dramatically in recent years It is sure to be of immeasurable value to practitioners and jurists in State aid law competition law and public procurement as well as market actors aid beneficiaries and competitors policymakers government officials and business persons in these fields Competition Law in Crisis Bruce Wardhaugh,2022-08-18 This book examines the application of EU competition law to past present and future economic crises Report on Competition Policy European Commission,2002 European Community Competition Policy European Commission. Directorate-General for Competition,2000 Report on Competition Policy Commission of the European Communities,2002 Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement Maria Ioannidou,2015-09-03 Despite the growing importance of consumer welfare in EU competition law debates there remains a significant disconnect between rhetoric and reality as consumers and their interests still play only an ancillary role in this area of law Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement is the first monograph to exclusively address this highly topical and much debated subject providing a timely and wide ranging examination of the need for more active consumer participation in competition law Written by an expert in the field it sets out a comprehensive framework of policy implications and arguments for greater involvement positioning the debate in the context of a broader EU law perspective It outlines pragmatic approaches to remedial and procedural measures that would enable consumer empowerment Finally the book identifies key institutional and political obstacles to the adoption of effective measures and suggests alternative routes to enhance the role of consumers in private competition law enforcement The book s innovative approach combining normative analysis and practical solutions make it invaluable for academics policy makers and practitioners in the field

Global Antitrust and Sustainability Julian Nowag, 2025-10-07 Sustainability has received increasing attention in recent years particularly surrounding concerns of poverty in the Global South the climate emergency the loss of biodiversity and the COVID 19 pandemic Competition and public authorities are more frequently encountering sustainability questions while states are more generally called upon to foster sustainability by the UN Resolution 70 1 Against this backdrop and drawing on cases and materials from different jurisdictions Global Antitrust and Sustainability Law Economics Enforcement explores the interaction between antitrust law and sustainability from the perspectives of law economics and the enforcement of such rules The book introduces the concept of sustainability and its environmental social and economic pillars and then gathers key insights from economic theory and economic studies on the relationship between competition and sustainability The subsequent chapters examine legal provisions cases and other materials from around the globe to analyse how competition agencies have responded to the sustainability challenge and the effectiveness of their action Insightful and pioneering Global Antitrust and Sustainability makes timely recommendations to ensure that competition policy contributes to a more sustainable world and will be an invaluable resource for scholars policymakers and practitioners This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International license

New Media and Sport Katrien Lefever, 2012-10-04 During the past decade the media landscape and the coverage of sports events have changed fundamentally Sports fans can consume the sports content of their choice on the platform they prefer and at the time they want Furthermore thanks to electronic devices and Internet content can now be created and distributed by every sports fan As a result it is argued that media regulation which traditionally contains rules safeguarding access to information and diversity would become redundant Moreover it is sometimes proposed to leave the regulation of the broadcasting market solely to competition law This book illustrates that media law is still needed even in an era of abundance to guarantee public s access to live and full sports coverage Dealing with the impact of new media on both media and competition law this book will greatly appeal to academics and stakeholders from various disciplines such as legal and public policy political science media and communications studies journalism and European studies Additionally it contains valuable information and points of view for policy makers lawyers and international and intergovernmental organisations active in media development The book contains an up to date analysis and overview of the different competition authorities decisions and media provisions dealing with the sale acquisition and exploitation of sports broadcasting rights Katrien Lefever is Senior Legal Researcher at IBBT The Interdisciplinary Centre for Law and ICT ICRI KU Leuven Belgium The book appears in the ASSER International Sports Law Series under the editorship of Prof Dr Robert Siekmann Dr Janwillem Soek and Marco van der Harst LL M

Liner Shipping and EU Competition Law Alla Pozdnakova, 2008-01-01 As of October 2008 liner shipping companies lose their privileged status under EU competition law due to withdrawal of the liner conference block exemption which generously authorized horizontal price fixing and similar agreements between liner shipping companies Where the liner consortia block exemption does not apply all cooperative activity should be carefully and individually assessed under the competition provisions of the EC Treaty Alla Pozdnakova has taken this opportunity to research and write an in depth study of competition law problems in the liner shipping context Her analysis is not only the first to examine the new European regime and thus the most up to date study of the subject it is in fact the first major independent study of how Articles 81 and 82 EC are construed and applied to the market conduct of liner shipping companies In particular the author addresses the following legal questions Does cooperation between liner shipping companies infringe Article 81 1 even if it does not entail hard core restrictions of competition Can a cooperative arrangement between liner shipping companies claim that the efficiencies they produce outweigh the negative impact on competition Article 81 3 When do certain market strategies of liner carriers become an abuse of a collective or individual dominant position Article 82 Does parallel pricing behaviour infringe EC Treaty competition rules Systematically the author considers various market strategies of liner shipping companies and tests them as to their compatibility with EC Treaty competition provisions In doing so she thoroughly analyses European Commission decisions and judgments of the European courts applying them authoritatively to the liner shipping sector In this way her book provides a well structured account that clearly identifies the legal issues that liner shipping companies are likely to face once the special treatment traditionally allowed them is withdrawn A summary of current and prospective developments in EU competition regulation and policy in liner shipping rounds up the analysis Liner Shipping and EU Competition Law will be a unique and powerful resource for practitioners and policymakers as liner shipping companies restructure their agreements and market strategies to accommodate loss of the block exemption It is also sure to become a definitive analysis of the legal identity of the liner shipping market sector under European competition law

Competition Law and Consumer Protection Katalin Judit Cseres, 2005-01-01 The assumption that competition law and consumer protection are mutually reinforcing is rarely challenged The theory seems uncontroversial However because a positive interaction between the two is presumed to be self evident the frequent conflicts that do in fact arise are often dealt with on an ad hoc basis with no overarching legal authority

There is a clear need for a detailed and coherent understanding of exactly where the complements and tensions between the two policy areas exist Dr Cseres in depth analysis provides that understanding Proceeding from the dual perspective of law and economics that is of justice fairness and reasonableness on the one hand and of efficiency of the other she fully considers such underlying issues as the following the role of competition law and consumer law in a free market economy the notion of consumer welfare the effect of the modernisation of EC competition law for consumers economics theories of information bounded rationality and transaction costs the special significance of vertical agreements and merger control and how consumers are affected by information asymmetries The ultimate focus of the book is on current and emerging EC law in which a rapprochement between the two areas seems to be under way Dr Cseres provides a knowledgeable guide to the various strands of theory policy and jurisprudence that she shows ought to be taken into account in the process including schools of thought and law and policy experience in both Europe and the United States A special chapter on Hungary where post 1989 law and practice reveal a fresh and distinctly forward looking understanding of the matter is one of the book s most extraordinary features Competition Law and Consumer Protection stands alone as a committed contribution to bridging a gap in legal knowledge the significance of which grows daily It will be of immeasurable value to a wide range of professionals from academics and researchers to officials policymakers and practitioners in competition law consumer protection advocacy economic theory and planning business administration and various pertinent government authorities

Public Services and the European Union Laura Nistor,2011-09-15 Politically sensitive and economically important welfare services such as health care health insurance and education have opened up a heated debate in the EU The application of EU law to welfare services raises discontent from the part of the Member States who perceive their systems to be under threat Resisting to the application of the EU law is sometimes seen as part of protecting those values This book suggests that this resistance is largely unjustified EU law is not damaging to welfare systems but it provides adequate balancing mechanisms to ensure that all interests are protected The approach taken in analysing the impact of EU law on welfare services is to look at the negative integration process and answer the questions related to the extent to which EU law applies to welfare services and the kinds of safeguards the Court offers for these services The proportionality principle distinguishes itself as the central element in balancing national and Community interests Being part of the broader integration process negative harmonization creates legislative lacunae and therefore this book also looks at alternative solutions to the negative harmonization process namely positive and soft law

European Energy Law and Policy Heiko Krüger,2016-09-30 EU energy law and policy have become more and more complex in recent years Today these areas feature a multitude of layers concerning not only regulation of the power industry but also security of energy supply climate change consumer needs and technical innovation This textbook serves as an introduction to this distinctive field For readers without much experience with the EU the author provides a separate chapter which outlines the institutional structure and functioning of the European Union in the field of energy policy Tables of key court decisions and key legislation review questions and further reading lists ultimately help to give readers a lasting impression of one of the most vibrant fields of EU law and policy     European Community competition policy European Commission. Directorate-General for Competition,1999

The Law of the Single European Market Catherine Barnard,Joanne Scott,2002-06-28 This edited collection explores the legal foundations of the single market project in Europe and examines the legal concepts and constructs which underpin its operation While an apparently well trodden area of EU law such is the rapid evolution of the European Court s case law that confusion persists as to the meaning of core concepts The approach adopted is a thematic one with each theme being explored in the context of the different freedoms The themes covered include discrimination horizontality mutual recognition market access pre emption and harmonization enforcement mandatory requirements flexibility subsidiarity and proportionality Separate chapters explore the link between competition law and the single market the rapidly evolving case law on capital and the external dimension of the single market Contributors also address the WTO dimension and its important implications for the single market project in Europe
