intermediate students learning to read Biblical Hebrew. However, even advanced readers will appreciate the glossing of the rare words since it saves time reading the text. In addition, unlike other readers, this book is small and light, so very easy to carry around and a pleasure to read. A First Hebrew Reader Duncan F. [Extracted from "The Hebrew Reader," Pt. 1.]* Thomas BURGESS (successively Bishop of Saint David's and of Salisbury.), 1808 The Shaping of Jewish Identity in Nineteenth-Century France Jay R. Berkovitz, 2018-02-05 Focusing on the ideology of regeneration Jay Berkovitz traces the social, economic, and religious struggles of nineteenth-century French Jews. Nineteenth-century French Jewry was a community struggling to meet the challenges of emancipation and modernity. This struggle, with its origins in the founding of the French nation, constitutes the core of modern Jewish identity. With the Revolution of 1789 came the collapse of the social, political, and philosophical foundations of exclusiveness, forcing French society and the Jews to come to terms with the meaning of emancipation. Over time, the enormous challenge that emancipation posed for traditional Jewish beliefs became evident. In the 1830s, a more comprehensive ideology of regeneration emerged through the efforts of younger Jewish scholars and intellectuals. A response to the social and religious implications of emancipation, it was characterized by the demand for the elimination of rituals that violated the French conceptions of civilization and social integration, a drive for greater administrative centralization, and the quest for intercommunal and ethnic unity. In its various elements, regeneration formed a distinct ideology of emancipation that was designed to mediate Jewish interaction with French society and culture. Jay Berkovitz reveals the complexities inherent in the processes of emancipation and modernization, focusing on the efforts of French Jewish leaders to come to terms with the social and religious implications of modernity. All in all, his emphasis on the intellectual history of French Jewry provides a new perspective on a significant chapter of Jewish history. The United States Catalog Mary Burnham, Carol Hurd, 1928 The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1919 The Athenaeum, 1919
