

CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776. A DECLARATION BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, IN GENERAL CONGRESS ASSEMBLED.

WHEN in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for just People to dissolve the political Bands which have connected them with another, and so assume among the Powers of the Earth, a separate and equal Station, to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a Decree is due, which shall declare the Causes which impel them to the Separation.

We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect these Ends.—Reason and Experience have shown that mankind are more inclined to suffer, while Endeavours are suffering, than to fight themselves by abolishing the Forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long Train of Abuses and Usurpations, pointing invariably to a total Destruction, shall have reduced them under absolute Despotism, it is their Right, it is their Duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future Security. Such has been the patient Sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the Necessity which constrains them to alter their former System of Government. The History of the present Oppression of these Colonies is a History of repeated Injuries and Usurpations, all having in direct Object the Establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid World.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public Good.

He has refused to assent to Acts of great Importance, which he thought proper to suspend in their Operation until his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has strictly required to stand in their full Force.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the Accommodation of large Numbers of People, unless those People would relinquish the Right of Representation in the Legislature, a Right unalienable to them, and forfeitable to Tyranny only.

He has called together legislative Bodies at Places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the Depository of their public Records, for the sole Purpose of defrauding them from Complaints with his Ministers.

He has refused to assent to Acts, especially, for supplying with money Provisions for the Rights of the People.
