The Transmutation of Love and Avant-Garde Poetics Jeanne Heuving, 2016-05-19 The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics is a probing examination of how the writing of sexual love undergoes a radical revision by avant garde poets in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Today the exploration of love by poets long a fixture of Western poetic tradition is thought to be in decline with love itself understood to be a mere ideological overlay for the more real entities of physical sex and desire In The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics Jeanne Heuving claims that a key achievement of poetry by Ezra Pound H D Robert Duncan Kathleen Fraser Nathaniel Mackey and others lies significantly in their engagement with the synergistic relations between being in love and writing love These poets she argues have traded the cliché lover of yore for impersonal or posthuman poetic speakers that sustain the gloire and mystery of love poetry of prior centuries As Robert Duncan writes There is a love in which we are outcast and vagabond from what we are that we call falling in love Heuving claims that this writing of love is defining for avant garde poetics identifying how such important discoveries as Pound's and H D's Imagism Pound's Cantos and Duncan's open field poetics are derived through their changed writing of love She draws attention to how the prevailing concept of language as material is inadequate to the ways these poets also engage language as a medium as a conduit enabling them to address love afresh in a time defined through preoccupations with sexuality They engage love as immanent and change it through a writing that acts on itself The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics ascribes the waning of love poetry to its problematic form a genre in which empowered poetic speakers constitute their speech through the objectification of comparatively disempowered subjects or beloveds Refusing this pervasive practice the poets she highlights reject the delimiting one-sided tradition of masculine lovers and passive feminine beloveds instead they create a more nuanced dynamic poetics of ecstatic exploration what Heuving calls projective love and libidinalized field poetics a formally innovative poetry in which one perception leads directly to the next and all aspects of a poem are generative of meaning

Unification of Art Theories (UAT) Florentin Smarandache, 2007-01-01 Unification of Art Theories UAT proposed by the author considers that every artist should employ in producing an artwork ideas theories styles techniques and procedures of making art borrowed from various artists teachers schools of art movements throughout history but combined with new ones invented or adopted from any knowledge field science in special literature etc by the artist himself The artist can use a multi structure and multi space The distinction between Eclecticism and Unification of Art Theories UAT is that Eclecticism supposed to select among the previous schools and teachers and procedures while UAT requires not only selecting but also to invent or adopt from other non artistic fields new procedures In this way UAT pushes forward the art development Also UAT has now a larger artistic database to choose from than the 16 th century Eclecticism since new movements art schools styles ideas procedures of making art have been accumulated in the main time Like a guide UAT database should periodically be updated changed enlarged with new invented or adopted from any field ideas styles art schools movements experimentation techniques artists It is an open increasing essay to include everything that has been done throughout history This album presents a short panorama of commented art theories together with experimental digital images using adopted techniques from various fields in order to inspire the actual artists to choose from and also to invent or adopt new procedures in producing their artworks Catalog of Copyright Entries.
