Photography in 100 Words David Clark, 2009 The question What is photography is not an easy one to answer. Many thousands of words have been written in an effort to do so in academic journals and in books by cultural commentators such as Susan Sontag and Roland Barthes. If we acknowledge that it is impossible to provide a definitive answer, can we at least distill the meaning of photography into somewhat fewer words and get to the very essence of the medium without diminishing its importance as an art form? This book aims to do just that. David Clark has selected 50 iconic images by some of the world's greatest photographers and asked them to explain how the pictures were made and their creative approach. From these interviews, he has chosen 100 words that encapsulate their philosophy and which are picked out in bold in the text. The highlighted words work on two levels. As well as giving insights into iconic images from the photographers who took them, they build over the course of the book into a unique creative lexicon of the photographic medium, one which crystallises its many aims and functions, perspectives and meanings. Thought-provoking, insightful and inspirational. Photography in 100 Words will appeal to all photographers and anyone who seeks a better understanding of the medium. David Clark is a photography journalist and author. He was the senior features writer on Amateur Photographer magazine for nine years during which time he met and interviewed many of the world's great photographers.

A Photographer's Journey By Boswell Boswell, 2023-03-09 Who is Boswell? Boswell is the pseudonym for an award-winning freelance photographer with engaging and sometimes controversial stories to tell. You've likely seen his photos in national and international magazines, books, and travel brochures. This ebook will describe how an inspiration during his early years in a tiny rural Midwestern town led to a life spent traveling in 130 countries on all seven continents and how a successful business was built by producing a prolific number of marketable photos as a professional stock and assignment photographer. Filled with entertaining anecdotes and accompanied by 99 photos, Boswell's journey takes readers inside some of the most colorful aspects of editorial and corporate photography. Landing and executing magazine assignments, gaining special access, required entry to exclusive corridors of privilege, seeking serendipity in the world's streets and cruising the world's seas and oceans, as well as uncovering some dark sides of the industry. Just a few stories include: Waiting for Mandela, chasing Doctor Death, repatriating skyjackers from Cuba, attending Zimbabwe's first session of parliament, surviving the Drake Passage, standing on stage with the Lord of the Dance, roving the pits with famous race drivers, hanging with a Piston Bad Boy, chumming with Sparky in the Tigers' locker room, and being interviewed by oral historian Studs Terkel while taking his portrait. One of the first Americans to visit Mao's China during the Cultural Revolution, Boswell returned over fifty times to produce books on China, including a very large one stolen by the French. Several chapters of his unlikely story are devoted to travels in China, how specializing in that country proved a key to his photographic success, and why he fell in love in a rice paddy.
