Fontainebleau. Memoirs of himself. Selections from his note book Robert Louis Stevenson,Lloyd Osbourne,Fanny Van de Grift Stevenson,William Ernest Henley,1925 Roman Portraits in Context Jane Fejfer,2009-03-13 The highest honour a Roman citizen could hope for was a portrait statue in the forum of his city While the emperor and high senatorial officials were routinely awarded statues strong competition existed among local benefactors to obtain this honour which proclaimed and perpetuated the memory of the patron and his family for generations There were many ways to earn a portrait statue but such local figures often had to wait until they had passed away before the public finally fulfilled their expectations It is argued in this book that our understanding and contemplation of a Roman portrait statue is greatly enriched when we consider its wider historical context its original setting the circumstances of its production and style and its base which in many cases bore a text that contributed to the rhetorical power of the image The Works of Robert Louis Stevenson: Memories and portraits.
